K-State To Celebrate 150th Anniversary

2012-13 academic year marks a milestone for Kansas State University, as it celebrates 150 years of excellence with a birthday bash. The sesquicentennial is a time for friends, alumni, faculty and staff to honor the proud history of our university and look to the future. The university founders started the university with a vision for innovative education, and the university opened in 1863 with 52 students as the first fully-operational land-grant university in the country. There will be a kickoff and grand exhibition on February 14, 2013 at Ahearn Field House, while the athletics department will hold a special celebration during the men's basketball game with Baylor on February 16, 2013.

→ K-State dedicated its new $18 million Basketball Training Facility on October 5.

■ Bruce Weber Era Begins

One of the winningest active Division I coaches with over 300 career wins and eight NCAA Tournament appearances to his credit, Bruce Weber was named the 24th head men's basketball coach at Kansas State on March 31, 2012 by Director of Athletics John Currie. A longtime assistant to K-State alumnus Gene Keady at first, Western Kentucky (1979-80), then Purdue (1981-98) before a successful head coach career at both Southern Illinois (1998-2003) and Illinois (2003-12), Weber has been apart of more than 700 wins and 28 postseason appearances in his 33-year coaching career, which includes 23 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Weber agreed to a 5-year contract, which was approved by the K-State Athletics, Inc., Board of Directors and President Kirk Schulz, and runs through the 2016-17 season. Weber will be paid $1.5 million in 2012-13 and will receive a $100,000 base salary increase each year remaining on the contract ($1.6 million in 2013-14, $1.7 million in 2014-15, $1.8 million in 2015-16 and $1.9 million in 2016-17).

Weber has compiled a 313-155 (.669) in his 14 seasons as a head coach, which includes stints at Southern Illinois (1998-2003) and Illinois (2003-12). His .669 winning percentage ranks 28th among active Division I head coaches, including third among head coaches in the Big 12, while his 313 wins are the 11th-most by a head coach in his first 14 seasons in NCAA history. His teams have participated in postseason play in 10 of his 14 seasons, including eight NCAA Tournament appearances. He has won 11 NCAA Tournament games, including trips to the Sweet 16 in 2002, 2004 and 2005, while his 2004-05 Illinois squad played UNC for the NCAA title.

Weber's teams have won a combined five conference regular season and tournament championships, including the 2002 and 2003 Missouri Valley Conference and 2004 and 2005 Big Ten Conference regular season titles. He has won 20 or more games in all but four of his 14 seasons, including an Illinois school-record 37 wins in 2004-05, and he has averaged 22.4 victories a season in his head coaching career.

Weber has won numerous Coach of the Year honors in his career, including consensus National Coach of the Year accolades in 2004-05 en route to guiding Illinois to the National Championship game. Among the National Coach of the Year awards earned by Weber in 2005 were the Naismith Award, The Associated Press, Adolph F. Rupp Cup, U.S. Basketball Writers Association's Henry Iba Award, National Association of Basketball Coaches, Chevrolet/CBS, The Sporting News and Basketball Times.

Weber brings an acclaimed coaching staff, which brings over 115 years of experience at the college, community college, high school and AAU levels. It includes associate head coach Chris Lowery, assistant coaches Alvin Brooks III and Chester Frazier, director of operations Brad Korn, director of student-athlete development Wayne McClain, strength and conditioning coach Jimmy Price and video coordinator Drew Speraw.

■ K-State Dedicates New Training Facility

A new chapter in the history of Kansas State basketball team was unveiled on October 5, as K-State Athletics dedicated its new $18 million Basketball Training Facility. Guest were able to tour the facility prior to a dedication ceremony, which included comments from University President Kirk Schulz, Athletics Director John Currie, lead contributors Rand and Patti Berney and Jim and Laura Johnson as well as head coaches Deb Patterson and Bruce Weber. The group then participated in a ribbon cutting before Schulz and senior basketball players Brittany Chambers and Rodney McGruder wrapped up the festivities with ceremonial first free throws. Schulz was unlucky on his attempt, but Chambers and McGruder were successful on the first of many attempts in the facility.

Located on the east side of Bramlage Coliseum, the 50,000-square foot facility will be the central headquarters for K-State's men's and women's basketball teams with close proximity to game day activities and other facilities such as the Academic Learning Center. The building is equipped with two courts, coaches' offices, locker rooms for the teams and coaching staffs, player lounges, a theatre-style team film room, a 2,500 square foot weight room, a sports medicine center with a hydrotherapy facility and an atrium lobby with viewing deck. The facility was designed by Populous and constructed by MW Builders, and blends a modern glass and steel structure with the tradition of K-State limestone on the exterior.

■ 13 National TV Appearances in 2012-13

Kansas State will make 13 national television appearances in 2012-13, including Big Monday tilts with Kansas and West Virginia. The Wildcats will also make six appearances on ESPN2 and three more on ESPNU, while the Feb. 9 with Iowa State could appear on either ESPN or ESPN2.

During the non-conference season, K-State will play national television contests at George Washington (CBS Sports Network), Gonzaga (ESPN2) in the Battle of Seattle at KeyArena in Seattle, Wash., and Florida (ESPN2) in the Hy-Vee Wildcat Classic at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo. If the squad is able to advance to the championship game of the Midwest Regional of the Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off on Nov. 13, the contest will be seen on ESPN2. In addition, if the team wins the Midwest Regional of the NIT Season Tip-Off, they will advance to Madison Square Garden in New York City, where both the semifinal and/or consolation and championship game will be on either ESPN or ESPN2.

With its new third-tier rights contract with FOX Sports Kansas City, the team will once again enjoy a comprehensive television package with all 32 games being able to seen throughout the country on either cable or the internet. K-State could have as many as 16 nationally-televised games, including a combined 11 appearances on ESPN and ESPN2. The squad will also have eight regular-season games broadcast as apart of the Big 12 Network, which will be distributed to affiliates around the nation as well as on ESPN Full Court and ESPN3.com

■ K-State To Host NIT Midwest Regional

Kansas State will host Alabama-Huntsville, Lamar and North Texas in the Midwest Region of the Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off on November 12-13. The third-seeded Wildcats will open the event against reigning Southland Conference champion Lamar at 7 p.m. on Nov. 12 in the first game of a doubleheader, with Division II Elite Eight participant Alabama-Huntsville and Sun Belt Conference Tournament runner-up North Texas following at 9:30 p.m. CT. The two first-round winners will square off at 9 p.m. CT Nov. 13 on ESPN2 with a berth in the semifinals on the line following a consolation game that will tip at 6 p.m. CT.

K-State is one of the tournament's four highest-seeded teams, along with Michigan, Pittsburgh and Virginia, which will host first- and second-round doubleheaders on their respective campuses on Nov. 12-13. The winners of the preliminary rounds advance to the semifinals on Nov. 21 at Madison Square Garden in New York City. The consolation and championship games will be played Nov. 23. The 12 teams that don't make it to the semifinals will play doubleheaders Nov. 19 and 20 on the campuses of the highest remaining seeds.

The Wildcats will play a Lamar team that won 23 games and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2011-12 under first-year head coach Pat Knight. The Cardinals return five lettermen, including one starter, to go with eight newcomers in 2012-13. Led by veteran head coach Lennie Acuff, UAH returns eight lettermen, including three starters, from a squad that won 29 games and advanced to the Division II Elite Eight in 2011-12. North Texas, which will be under first-year head coach Tony Benford, returns all five starters from a team that won 18 games and advanced to the Sun Belt Conference Tournament final a year ago. The Mean Green squad includes preseason All-American Tony Mitchell.

■ K-State Picked Fifth in Preseason Poll

Kansas State was selected to finish fifth in the preseason 2012-13 Big 12 Conference coaches' poll released by the league office on October 11. The Wildcats received 54 points to earn fifth place in the second-year of the 10-team conference configuration, just four points behind fourth-place Texas (58) and six behind third-place Oklahoma State (60). Kansas was the overwhelming pick to win the league, earning 81 points and nine of the 10 first-place votes. It marks the 11th time in Big 12 history that the Jayhawks have been the preseason favorite after winning their eighth consecutive regular season title a year ago.

Baylor was chosen second with 63 points and received the other first-place vote. After the top 5, the rest of the poll included newcomer West Virginia (45), Oklahoma (34), Iowa State (28), Texas Tech (18) and TCU (9). Coaches are not allowed to vote for their own teams.

The fifth-place prediction is one spot better than last season's pick of sixth place, which was the lowest for Kansas State since 2008-09. The Wildcats, who finished in fifth place in the Big 12 a year ago, are one of only two teams to finish in the league's top-5 and receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship each of the past six seasons. With only 10 teams, the top-6 will earn a bye in the 2013 event with the lower four seeds playing on the first day.

■ McGruder Named Preseason All-Big 12

Senior Rodney McGruder was a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Big 12 team released by the league office on October 4. An All-Big 12 Third Team selection in 2010-11 and a Second Team pick in 2011-12, McGruder was one of three unanimous picks by the league's head coaches, joining Kansas' Jeff Withey and Oklahoma State's Le'Bryan Nash. The final two spots went to Baylor's Pierre Jackson and Texas' Myck Kabongo. Jackson was voted as the Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year, while Oklahoma's Amath M'Baye and Oklahoma State's Marcus Smart were the Preseason Newcomer and Freshman of the Year. Coaches are not permitted to vote for their own student-athletes.

McGruder is the first player named to the Preseason All-Big 12 Team since Jacob Pullen was named to the squad along with garnering Preseason Big 12 Player of the Year honors in 2010-11. It marks just the fourth time that a Wildcat (Manny Dies in 1998-99, Pullen and Curtis Kelly in 2010-11) has been selected to the preseason team.

One of only three returning Big 12 players to have ranked in the Top 20 in both scoring and rebounding in 2011-12, McGruder led the Wildcats in 11 categories as a junior, including scoring (15.8 ppg.), double-figure scoring (28), field goals (188), 3-point field goals (50) and free throws (97). He already ranks 21st in school history with 1,029 points.

Weber Era Begins

The 'Cats return four starters for first-year coach Bruce Weber in 2012-13

A new chapter in Kansas State men's basketball history begins in 2012-13, as the Wildcats welcome a new head coach in Bruce Weber, who brings more than 300 career wins and eight NCAA Tournament appearances to the helm as the 24th head coach in school history. Named to the position on March 31, 2012, Weber has been apart of more than 700 wins and 28 postseason appearances in his 33-year coaching career, which includes 23 trips to the NCAA Tournament as an assistant to K-State alumnus Gene Keady at both Western Kentucky (1979-80) and Purdue (1981-98) before head coaching stints at Southern Illinois (1998-2003) and Illinois (2003-12).

Unlike most head coaches in their first year, Weber inherited a nearly full cupboard with return of 12 lettermen, including seven players who earned at least one start and six with double-digit starts in 2011-12. The Wildcats have won 20 or more games in a school-record six consecutive seasons and advanced to the postseason in each of those six seasons. A year ago, the squad posted a 22-11 overall record and a fifth-place finish in the Big 12 with a 10-8 mark to earn their fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament (2008, 2010, 2011 and 2012) in five seasons. The team returns more than 90 percent of its 3-point field goals (90.2) and assists (90.8) from 2011-12 to go with more than 80 percent of its scoring (85.9), rebounding (80.5), field goals (86.8), free throws (81.5), steals (84.5), blocks (83.3) and minutes played (85.1). The Wildcats return eight of their top nine scorers and rebounders.

Among the seven returning with starting experience are seniors Jordan Henriquez, Martavious Irving, Rodney McGruder, juniors Shane Southwell and Will Spradling and sophomores Thomas Gipson and Angel Rodriguez. A unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Big 12 team, McGruder is one of three returning players (along with Gipson and Spradling) who played in all 33 games a season ago, while he and Spradling started all 33 contests in 2011-12. McGruder enters his senior season with more 1,000 points after pacing the squad in 11 categories as a junior, including scoring (15.8 ppg.), double-figure scoring (28), field goals (188), 3-point field goals (50) and free throws (97). A Big 12 Second Team selection in 2011-12, McGruder was named to the league's All-Defensive team, along with fellow returnee Jordan Henriquez. The school's leader in single-season (77) and career (146) blocked shots, Henriquez was a force down the stretch for the Wildcats last year. He posted double-doubles in three of his last six games, a span in which, he averaged 15 points on 57.4 percent shooting with 10.8 rebounds and 3.5 blocks in 31.7 minutes per game. The team's other senior - Martavious Irving - returns in 2012-13 with more than 100 games of experience. He averaged 5.5 points on 45 percent shooting in just under 20 minutes per game. Spradling, who ranked third in scoring a season ago at 9.3 points per game to go with a 2.8 assists average, has seen action in all 67 games of his career. Fellow junior Shane Southwell played in 32 of 33 games and averaged 3.2 points, 2.2 rebounds and 2.0 assists in 16.8 minutes per game. Gipson and Rodriguez both saw significant time as freshmen last season. The Phillips 66 Big 12 Rookie of the Week on Dec. 12, 2011, Gipson led all rookie in both games played (33) and started (22), as he averaged 7.0 points on 49.1 percent shooting and 4.7 rebounds in 17.5 minutes per game. A starter in the last 17 games, Rodriguez became the first freshman to pace the team in both assists and steals since Steve Henson in 1986-87.

K-State received a big boost to its preparations for the 2012-13 season as well as a new head coach with its first international tour since 2004, as the Wildcats spent 10 days in August playing games in Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The team played four games during the trip, posting a 2-2 record as the squad had to adjust to international rules (four, eight-minute quarters among other differences with NCAA rules) playing various professional teams. The Wildcats averaged 70 points on 41.9 percent shooting, including 31.4 percent from 3-point range, to go with 37.5 rebounds, 17.5 turnovers, 15.8 assists, 4.8 blocks and 9.8 blocks per game.

Angel Rodriguez paced all scorers with a 10.3 points per game average on 40 percent shooting with team-bests in assists (4.8 apg.) and steals (2.3 spg.). Nino Williams, Rodney McGruder and Adrian Diaz averaged 9.0 points per game, while Will Spradling and Jordan Henriquez added 8.5 and 7.3 points per game, respectively. Williams led the team in rebounding (6.0 rpg.), 3-point field goal percentage (40.0) and free throw percentage (83.3), while Diaz was tops in field goals (14), field goal percentage (58.3) and blocks (2.5 bpg.).

"We are much further along because of that," said Weber. "We've learned that we have some nice pieces, but now we need to find out if they can figure out their roles, and accept those roles. We, as coaches, know the roles we want them to fill, but the question is do they understand those roles."

Backcourt

Kansas State returns significant experience at both guard spots with the return of starting point guard Angel Rodriguez and shooting guard Will Spradling as well as two other players - Martavious Irving and Shane Southwell - with starting experience. The group will be also boasted by junior Omari Lawrence, freshman Michael Orris and walk-ons Shawn Meyer and Ryan Schultz.

Rodriguez will begin the season as the starter at the point after finishing his freshman season as the starter in the last 17 games, including both NCAA Tournament contests. He won 10 of his 17 starts, including road wins over NCAA Tournament teams Baylor and Missouri. For the season, he averaged 8.3 points on 36 percent shooting to go with team-highs in both assists (3.2 apg.) and steals (1.3 spg.) in 21.7 minutes per game. He scored in 28 of 32 appearances with 14 double-digit efforts. He was the one of only two Big 12 freshmen (along with Texas' Myck Kabongo) to rank in the league's Top 15 in assists, steals and assist-to-turnover ratio.

Spradling and Irving will both spell Rodriguez at point guard. A starter in all 33 games a season ago, Spradling ranked among the top 5 in 10 categories, including first in 3-point field goal attempts and free throw percentage, second in field goals, field goal attempts, 3-pointers, assists and minutes and third in scoring and double-figure scoring games. Irving, who has more than 100 games of experience in his Wildcat career, saw time in 31 games last year with 14 starts. He averaged 5.5 points, 1.6 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.0 steals in 19 minutes per game.

Southwell is considered the team's best passer with boasts a 1.3 assist-to-turnover ratio in his career, including a team-best 1.6 ratio in 2011-12. He has played in 62 games in his two-year career, which includes 17 starts as a true freshman in 2010-11. He averaged 3.2 points on 37.3 percent shooting a season ago with 2.2 rebounds and 2.0 assists in just under 17 minutes per game. He led the team in assists in seven games. Lawrence should receive more time as a junior after playing in just nine games last season. A transfer from St. John's, he averaged 2.5 points and 1.5 rebounds as a true freshman for the Red Storm in 2009-10.

Orris signed with Weber at Illinois last Fall, and after receiving his release, followed him to K-State in May. A two-time honorable mention all-state pick at Crete-Monee High School in Crete, Ill., he led the school to its first sectional title as a junior en route to a 25-4 record. Meyer and Schultz will also provide depth.

Frontcourt

Much like the backcourt, the frontcourt has plenty of talent and experience, but must offset the loss of starter Jamar Samuels, who earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors after averaging 10 points and a team-best 6.6 rebounds as a senior in 2011-12. The Wildcats return three players with starting experience, including 2012 Preseason All-Big 12 selection Rodney McGruder, Big 12 All-Defensive team pick Jordan Henriquez and sophomore Thomas Gipson. The group also includes the return of sophomores Adrian Diaz and Nino Williams, freshman D.J. Johnson and walk-on Brian Rohleder.

The team leader in 11 categories as a junior, McGruder is one of only three returning Big 12 players to have ranked in the Top 20 in scoring and rebounding in 2011-12. In all, he ranked in the Top 20 in eight categories in the league a season ago, including seventh in scoring and field goal percentage, ninth in free throw percentage and minutes and 10th in 3-point field goal percentage. He enters the 2012-13 season 21st in school history with 1,029 points, as he produced 28 double-digit scoring efforts, including 17 in Big 12 play, a season ago which included 10 20-point outings and three 30-point performances.

Henriquez should again be an anchor down low after breaking the school's career (146) and single-season (77) marks for blocked shots. He ranked among the top 5 in 10 categories, including blocks and field goal percentage, second in defensive rebounds, total rebounds, rebounds per game and third in offensive rebounds. He tallied three double-doubles during the season - all of which came in the last six games. He averaged 15 points and 10.8 rebounds during that span, which included a 22-point, 14-rebound effort against Baylor and a 14-point, 17-rebound performance against Syracuse in the NCAA Tournament.

Gipson earned valuable experience as a true freshman in 2011-12, as he was one of just three players to start all 33 games while adding 22 starts. A Big 12 Rookie of the Week, he averaged 7.0 points on 49.1 percent shooting with 4.7 rebounds in 17.5 minutes per game. He ranked among the top 5 in six categories, including fourth in offensive rebounds, defensive rebounds, overall rebounds, rebounds per game and blocks. He scored in 27 games, including eight double-digit efforts, while he collected three double-doubles.

Diaz and Williams may be ready to take that next step as sophomore after impressive performances during the team's trip to Brazil in August. Williams averaged 9.0 points on 57.1 percent shooting with a team-high 6.0 rebounds during the 10-day tour, while Diaz was the leader in field goals, field goal percentage and blocked shots. Williams played in 12 games last season after receiving a medical redshirt in 2010-11. Diaz played in 23 games as a true freshman with averages of 3.2 points and 2.3 rebounds per game.

Johnson also enjoyed a solid trip to Brazil, ranking second on the squad in rebounding (5.3 rpg.). He was a three-year starter at Parkway North High School in St. Louis, where he averaged 16.3 points on 64.6 percent shooting with 11.9 rebounds and 5.0 blocks per game as senior en route to earning second team All-Class 5 honors in 2011-12. Rohleder saw action in eight games as a true freshman a season ago.

Schedule

K-State will again face a daunting slate in 2012-13, as the Wildcats could play as many as 16 games against teams that advanced to the postseason in 2011-12, including 10 that earned invites to the NCAA Tournament. In addition to year two of the 18-game round-robin Big 12 schedule, the team will face non-conference tests with the Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off, George Washington (Dec. 8), Gonzaga in the Battle in Seattle at KeyArena (Dec. 15) and Florida (Dec. 22) in the Hy-Vee Wildcat Classic at Kansas City's Sprint Center.

The Wildcats have posted a strength of schedule in the Top 10 nationally in two of the past three seasons, which has enabled the squad to earn single-digits seed to the NCAA Tournament for three consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. The season begins with six consecutive home games, including the Midwest Regional of the NIT Season Tip-Off, which includes three other teams that won 18 or more games last season. By winning the Regional, the Wildcats would advance to the semifinals at New York City's Madison Square Garden on Nov. 21 and 23, where they could face NCAA Tournament squads in Michigan, Pittsburgh and Virginia.

The Big 12 will again be one of the nation's top conferences with six teams advancing to the postseason a year ago to go with the additions of West Virginia and TCU in 2012-13. The league schedule starts on Saturday, Jan. 5 with a home game against Oklahoma State and includes visits by NCAA Tournament participants Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Texas and West Virginia led by former head coach Bob Huggins. For the sixth consecutive season, the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship will be played at the Sprint Center.

K-State returns more than 80 percent of its scoring and rebounding in 2012-13

Championship Tradition

Kansas State has one of the most tradition-rich men's basketball programs in the nation.

From famed players such as Bob Boozer, Rolando Blackman, Mitch Richmond and Michael Beasley to legendary head coaches Jack Gardner, Fred 'Tex' Winter, Lowell 'Cotton' Fitzsimmons and Jack Hartman, Kansas State has one of the nation's proudest traditions in men's basketball. The program was rated among top 30 all-time by two groups, including 22nd by Street & Smith's in its publication titled the "100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All-Time" and 27th by ESPN in its college basketball encyclopedia, which chronicles the complete history of men's basketball. The Wildcats have been playing the game since 1902 and have racked up over 1,500 victories, 26 NCAA Tournament appearances and 19 conference championships. The program has advanced to the Sweet 16 on 16 occasions, while making 11 trips to the Elite Eight and four ventures to the game's ultimate destination, the Final Four. Along the way, K-State has captured the passion of its fans, as the Wildcats have played before hundreds of sellouts crowds at its legendary home venues - Nichols Gym, Ahearn Field House and now, Bramlage Coliseum.

Legendary Coaches

Kansas State has a rich coaching heritage that includes some of the game's greatest tacticians.

Through the years, K-State's coaching ledger has read like a who's who of great basketball minds. Naismith Hall of Fame inductee Jack Gardner was one of the school's first great coaches, guiding the Wildcats to 147 wins, two NCAA Final Four appearances, including the NCAA title game in 1951, and three conference titles. Fellow Naismith Hall of Fame inductee Tex Winter followed him in 1954 and would win 261 games in his 15-year tenure en route to two Final Fours and eight league titles. Cotton Fitzsimmons took the reins in 1968 and guided the 'Cats to a Big Eight title before embarking on a 21-year NBA coaching career. Jack Hartman became coach in 1970 and guided the Wildcats to a school-record 295 wins, seven NCAA Tournaments and four league titles. Others to follow include 400+ game winners Lon Kruger (1986-90) and Dana Altman (1990-94) and future Hall of Famer and 700-game winner Bob Huggins (2006-07).

Kansas State's 19 overall conference titles (17 regular season and two tournament titles) rank as the third-most among all current Big 12 schools. Only Kansas (54, Big 6/7/8) and Texas (24, SWC/Big 12) own more titles among the 10 institutions.

Kansas State has seen six players earn distinction as the Conference Player of the Year. Two of those players - Lon Kruger and Mike Evans - won the award twice in their careers. Michael Beasley became the latest to join the club in 2008.

11

Kansas State has produced 11 first team All-Americans in its history, including two consensus selections (Bob Boozer in 1959 and Michael Beasley in 2008). Three players - Bob Boozer, Rolando Blackman and Chuckie Williams - did it twice in their careers.

16

Kansas State is one of just 16 schools in the nation to have more than one NBA No. 1 Draft pick since the Draft was instituted in 1947. Among the headliners of this prestigious list include Duke, Georgetown, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, North Carolina and UCLA.

41

Kansas State became the 41st school in Division I history to tally 1,500 wins in 2011-12. The Wildcats became the sixth Big 12 Conference school to do so, joining Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and conference newcomer West Virginia.

'Cats at the Big Dance

Kansas State made its fourth NCAA Tournament trip in five years with its appearance in 2012.

Faced with the loss of All-American Jacob Pullen, K-State used a mixture of youth and experience to post its unprecedented sixth consecutive trip to the postseason, including its fourth in the last five seasons in the NCAA Tournament, to cap a 22-win campaign in 2011-12. The Wildcats earned a No. 8 seed to the "Big Dance," just its third single-digit seed since 1989, and was sent to the East Regional at the CONSOL Energy Center in Pittsburgh, Pa. Once there, the team defeated 9-seed Southern Mississippi, 70-64, in the second round before falling to top-seed and No. 2-ranked Syracuse, 75-59, in the third round to conclude its 26th trip to the NCAA Tournament. It marked the sixth consecutive season that the team won at least one postseason contest (NCAA or NIT) after losing eight in a row from 1994 to 2007. The team recorded its school-record sixth consecutive 20-win season (and 25th in school history) in 2011-12, including at least 10 conference wins for the fifth time in the last six years (joining Kansas as the only Big 12 schools to do so in the last three years) and receiving its sixth straight bye to the Big 12 Championship.

Kansas State advanced to the postseason for the sixth straight season in 2011-12, including its fourth trip to the "Big Dance" in the last five seasons. It marked the first time in school history that the Wildcats have gone to six consecutive postseasons.

K-State earned a single-digit seed in the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive season in 2011-12, as the Wildcats were selected as the No. 8 seed in the East Region. The No. 8 seed was just the ninth single-digit seed in school history, including the third in a row.

22

K-State has finished the season ranked in the Top 25 of at least one major poll (The Associated Press or ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls) 22 times in school history, including twice (No. 7 in 2009-10 and No. 21 in 2010-11) in the last three seasons.

26

K-State made its 33rd all-time postseason appearance when it received its at-large bid to the 2012 NCAA Tournament. It marked the 26th appearance in the "Big Dance" for the Wildcats in school history and the fourth since 2008. The other seven have come in the NIT.

33

K-State's win against Southern Miss in the NCAA Tournament second round marked its 33rd win in the tournament. It was the sixth NCAA Tournament win in the last five years and marked the sixth consecutive year with at least one win in the postseason.

An Experienced Staff

Led by one of the nation's top veteran coaches, K-State has a talented and experienced staff.

Head coach Bruce Weber has assembled a coaching staff that is not only talented and experienced but the perfect fit for how he wants to build K-State into one of the top programs in the country. The group is led by three talented assistant coaches - Chris Lowery, Alvin Brooks III and Chester Frazier - who have a combined 26 years of coaching experience at the Division I and junior college levels. Lowery has Division I head coaching experience and is a two-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, having won 145 games during a stint at Southern Illinois (2004-12), which included three NCAA Tournament appearances and two Missouri Valley Conference titles. Brooks has helped win junior college national titles at both Arkansas-Fort Smith (2005-06) and Midland College (2006-07), while Frazier is considered one of the top point guards in Illinois history, leading the Fighting Illini to three trips to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, there are a number of key support personnel, including director of operations Brad Korn, director of development Wayne McClain, strength and conditioning coach Jimmy Price and video coordinator Drew Speraw.

Kansas State fans are known to be some of the most passionate in all of college sports.

Fans have helped make Bramlage Coliseum one of the most intimidating environments in all of college basketball. K-State has won nearly 73 percent of its home games in its history, including 75 percent since moving to Bramlage Coliseum, dubbed "The Octagon of Doom," in 1988-89. The school has ranked among the top 30 nationally in attendance in five of the past six seasons, including finishing 25th in 2011-12 and third in the Big 12 with an average of 12,783 fans. K-State is one of just 14 schools nationally to draw over 12,000 in paid attendance for every regular season home game over the last two years. The 12,783 average ranks second in school history behind the 12,978 averaged in the inaugural season of Bramlage in 1988-89, while four of the school's top 5 attendance averages have come in the last six years. K-State drew a total of 204,527 fans to its 16 home games in 2011-12, which marked the fifth time in the last six seasons that the school has drawn 200,000+ fans. The Wildcats will play a regular season game at Kansas City's Sprint Center for the sixth year in a row in 2012 after drawing 16,685 fans last year.

Kansas State is one of just 14 schools nationally to draw over 12,000 in paid attendance for every regular season home game over the last two seasons (2010-12). Bramlage Coliseum has been sold out each of the past two seasons, a streak of 32 games.

22

Kansas State has posted 22 wins over ranked opponents in the 24-year history of Bramlage Coliseum. In 2010-11, the Wildcats knocked off the No. 1 team in the country (Kansas) for the second straight season (Texas in 2009-10) and third time overall at home.

66

Kansas State has enjoyed 66 straight seasons with a winning record on its home courts. The streak has spanned four arenas and 10 head coaches. Since the streak began in 1946 at Nichols Gym, the program has an impressive 700-187 (.789) mark at home.

85

Kansas State tallied its highest winning percentage (16-1; .941) in Bramlage Coliseum history in 2010-11, while the Wildcats tied the 2008-09 squad for the most wins (16). The Wildcats have posted a 85-16 (.842) mark at home over the past six years.

285

Kansas State has posted a 285-96 (.746) overall record at Bramlage Coliseum, as the arena celebrates its 25th year in 2012-13. The team has won 10 or more home games 19 times in 24 seasons, including at least 11 each of the past 11 seasons.

Success in the classroom is just as important as the success on the court at K-State.

Kansas State, which has led the Big 12 in graduation rate in four of the last five years, scored record-high marks across the board and for the first time since the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) guidelines were established eight years ago, all teams bettered the standard. The school had the league's top graduation rate in five sports -- baseball (83%), football (71%), men's golf (100%), women's golf (100%) and men's track and field (83%) in the latest report. The Academic Progress Rate measures the eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes competing on every Division I sports team and also serves as a predictor of graduation success. The Division I Board of Directors set cut scores of 930 (multi-year) and 900 (out of 1,000) as a threshold for teams to meet or face possible immediate and historical sanctions. The men's basketball team scored a 960 to soar past the 930 mark after raising its multi-year score by a total of 80 points over the last five seasons. During this span, K-State has seen 13 of 14 student-athletes earn their degrees from K-State, including Victor Ojeleye and Jamar Samuels in 2012.

This place is special and is up there with some of the best facilities in the country. It has all the bells and whistles and the people who built it didn't skip anything. I think our players will appreciate it, because a lot of people have sacrificed by donating money or playing through the years, at Ahearn Fieldhouse or Bramlage Coliseum toughing it out. Kansas State got a jump start on its preparations for the 2012-13 men's basketball season with a 10-day trip to Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil from August 8-17, 2012. It was the program's first international trip since 2004 and the first to the continent of South America. The Wildcats played four games during the trip, posting a 2-2 record against professional teams in both Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro utilizing international rules. The first three days of the trip (August 9-11) were spent in Sao Paulo, which at just over 11 million people is the largest city in Brazil and the largest in the southern hemisphere. The squad then spent the last half of the trip (August 13-16) in Rio de Janeiro, which is Brazil's second largest city and the site of the 2014 World Cup and 2016 Summer Olympic games. # A Big Time Conference

Kansas State is apart of the nation's best athletic conference - the Big 12 Conference

The Big 12 has established a consistent level of national success on the field and in the classroom as it enters its 17th season in 2012-13. Since it began play in 1996-97, the Conference can boast 47 national championships and 517 individual NCAA titles. The success continued during the 2011-12 season, as Baylor won its second NCAA women's basketball crown since 2005 and Texas won its third men's golf title and the first since 1972 while two Baylor student-athletes - Robert Griffin III and Brittany Griner - brought national acclaim to the Big 12 by being named the winners of the Heisman and the Naismith/Wade Trophies as the National Players of the Years. All but one sport the Big 12 sponsored last year had at least one team ranked in the Top 5 in the national polls with eight sports boasting the No. 1 team.

Over the past eight seasons, a total of 23 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Big 12, including each of the past 15 seasons. In basketball, the Big 12 has had seven men's teams advance to the Final Four in the past seven years, which places the league second nationally behind the Big East. In 2011-12, six men's teams (Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, K-State, Missouri and Texas) advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

The Big 12 has posted two teams in the Elite Eight in four of the past five seasons (2008, 2009, 2010 and 2012), the most of any conference in that span. Ten times in the last 11 years at least one Big 12 team has advanced to the Elite Eight, including K-State in 2010.

18

The Big 12 continues to be only one of the six major conferences where every school plays everyone home and away. The conference will again employ an 18-game schedule in 2012-13, as it welcomes new additions TCU and West Virginia.

30

In the last five years, the Big 12 has been among the national leaders in earning NCAA bids, including six in 2011-12. In fact, only the BIG EAST (with six more teams) can boast more NCAA appearances than schools in the Big 12 during that span.

129

The Big 12 went 129-38 (.772) at home in 2011-12, which is the best winning percentage and fewest losses at home of the six major conferences. League teams posted a .948 (73-4) home winning percentage in non-conference play in 2011-12.

Bruce Weber

First Year | Wisconsin-Milwaukee '78

One of the winningest active Division I coaches with over 300 career wins and eight NCAA Tournament appearances to his credit, Bruce Weber was named the 24th head men's basketball coach at Kansas State on March 31, 2012 by Director of Athletics John Currie. A longtime assistant to K-State alumnus Gene Keady at first, Western Kentucky (1979-80), then Purdue (1981-98) before a successful head coach career at both Southern Illinois (1998-2003) and Illinois (2003-12), Weber has been apart of more than 700 wins and 28 postseason appearances in his 33-year coaching career, which includes 23 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

"I could not be more excited about the opportunity that has presented itself here at K-State," said Weber. "I'm excited and happy to come to a place that has great tradition. When I've talked with people over the last couple of weeks, the main thing they emphasize to me — my mentors and peers — that I just don't take any job. So I'm very fortunate to take a job where there is already something built. Frank (Martin) has created a positive culture, along with Bob Huggins. It makes it easier as a coach when you go to a place that has tradition. You understand you don't have to recreate, you don't have to re-energize and, obviously, there's some pretty good players here that have had success in both the Big 12 and even in the NCAA Tournament. This is a tremendous job for me."

Weber agreed to a 5-year contract, which was approved by the K-State Athletics, Inc., Board of Directors and President Kirk Schulz, and runs through the 2016-17 season. Weber will be paid $1.5 million in 2012-13 and will receive a $100,000 base salary increase each year remaining on the contract ($1.6 million in 2013-14, $1.7 million in 2014-15, $1.8 million in 2015-16 and $1.9 million in 2016-17).

Weber, 56, has compiled a 313-155 (.669) in his 14 seasons as a head coach, which includes stints at Southern Illinois (1998-2003) and Illinois (2003-12). His .669 winning percentage ranks 28th among active Division I head coaches, including third among head coaches in the Big 12 Conference, while his 313 wins are the 11th-most by a head coach in his first 14 seasons in NCAA history. His teams have participated in postseason play in 10 of his 14 seasons, including eight NCAA Tournament appearances. He has won 11 NCAA Tournament games, including trips to the Sweet 16 in 2002, 2004 and 2005, while his 2004-05 Illinois squad played North Carolina for the NCAA title.

Weber's teams have won a combined five conference regular season and tournament championships, including the 2002 and 2003 Missouri Valley Conference and 2004 and 2005 Big Ten Conference regular season titles. He has won 20 or more games in all but four of his 14 campaigns, including an Illinois school-record 37 wins in 2004-05, and he has averaged 22.4 victories a season in his head coaching career.

"We couldn't be more pleased to welcome Bruce, Megan and the entire Weber family to our K-State family," said Currie. "Bruce Weber exemplifies everything that we were looking for in our next coach, and I look forward to Wildcat Nation having the opportunity to get to know him and his family. His success as a head coach speaks for itself, which includes eight trips to the NCAA Tournament and a national championship game appearance in 2005. But what impresses me even more about Coach Weber are his core values and belief in the advancement of his players not only on the court but also as model student-athletes and citizens. Our intent at the beginning of this process was focus our search on candidates whose personal values and integrity reflect those of our university and citizens of the state and who appreciate the unique opportunity of being part of a strong basketball heritage, and we are confident that Bruce Weber is that person."

→ Bruce Weber has a .669 career winning percentage in 14 years as a Division I head coach, which ranks 28th among active coaches. He has averaged 22.4 victories a season in his career.

→ The Weber Family

Weber has won numerous Coach of the Year honors in his career, including consensus National Coach of the Year accolades in 2005 en route to guiding Illinois to the National Championship game. Among the National Coach of the Year awards earned by Weber in 2005 were the Naismith Award, The Associated Press, Adolph F. Rupp Cup, U.S. Basketball Writers Association's Henry Iba Award, National Association of Basketball Coaches, Chevrolet/CBS, The Sporting News and Basketball Times. He was also selected as the 2003 Missouri Valley Conference and 2005 Big Ten Coach of the Year.

In all, Weber has 33 years of college coaching experience, which includes 19 seasons as an assistant coach for coaching legend Gene Keady, a native of Garden City, Kan., and 1958 Kansas State graduate. Weber spent his entire assistant coaching career with Keady, first at Western Kentucky (1979-80) and then Purdue (1981-98). The coaching duo helped the Hilltoppers to the Ohio Valley Conference regular season and tournament titles and a trip to NCAA Tournament in 1980 before moving to West Lafayette and the Purdue Boilermakers the following season. In Weber's 18 years at Purdue, the Boilermakers won six Big Ten titles, played in 14 NCAA Tournaments and made three NIT appearances.

All told, Weber has been a part of more than 700 victories, 23 NCAA Tournament appearances and 11 conference championships in his coaching career, which has included stops at Western Kentucky, Purdue, Southern Illinois and Illinois.

"Bruce Weber, in my opinion, is one of the Top 5 coaches in the nation," said Keady, currently a special assistant to St. John's head coach Steve Lavin. "I am so happy for Bruce and his family, and I feel proud and lucky as a K-State alum to have him as the coach of my alma mater."

■ The Illinois Years (2003-12)

Weber arrives at K-State after a nine-year stint (2004-12) as the head coach at Illinois, where he posted a 210-101 (.675) overall record with six NCAA Tournament appearances, two Big Ten Championships (2004, 2005) and one Big Ten Tournament title (2005). He also had two runner-up finishes (2006, 2009) and seven upper-division finishes in his tenure. Through his nine years at the helm of the Fighting Illini program, Illinois was the 15th winningest program in the nation. Seven times in his tenure his teams reached the coveted 20-win mark, including a school-record 37 wins in 2004-05 en route to the NCAA Championship game.

Weber's 210 wins rank third in school history behind Lou Henson (423; 1976-96) and Harry Combes (316; 1948-67), while his nine-year stint was the longest since Henson retired in 1996 and represents the fifth-longest in school history. In addition, his win total is the second-most in Big Ten history by a coach after his first nine years, while his .675 winning percentage ranks as the seventh-highest of any head coach in Big Ten history who coached at least nine seasons in the conference. His winning percentage is higher than mentor Gene Keady (.611) as well as other Big Ten icons Branch McCracken (Indiana), Tom Davis (Iowa), Lou Henson (Illinois), Johnny Orr (Michigan) and Jud Heathcote (Michigan State). In addition, his 89 Big Ten wins rank 26th all-time in the league's history.

Weber had five players taken in the NBA Draft during his stint at Illinois, as Deron Williams (No. 3, Utah Jazz) and Luther Head (No. 24, Houston Rockets) were taken in the first round of the 2005 Draft, James Augustine (No. 41, Orlando Magic) and Dee Brown (No. 46, Utah Jazz) were chosen in the second round of the 2006 Draft and Meyers Leonard (No. 11, Portland Trail Blazers) was selected in the first round of the 2012 Draft. Utah's selection of Williams at No. 3 overall in the 2005 lottery made him the highest-drafted players in Illinois history. A current Brooklyn Net and three-time NBA All-Star (2010, 2011, 2012), Williams recently helped Team USA win gold at the 2012 London Olympic Games for the second consecutive Games.

Weber coached five All-Americans at Illinois, including three during the run to the Final Four in 2004-05, while Dee Brown became the first Fighting Illini player in more than 50 years to earn consensus first team All-American status in 2005. Brown was also selected as The Sporting News National Player of the Year in 2005 to go along with Big Ten Player of the Year and Big Ten Defensive of the Year honors. Weber also coached three consensus second team All-Americans in Luther Head (2005), Deron Williams (2005) and Brown (2006). In addition, Brown earned the Bob Cousy Award, as the nation's top point guard, and the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award, as the nation's top player as a senior in 2006.

In total, Weber coached 27 All-Big Ten selections, including seven first team honorees, during his time at Illinois to go with one Big Ten Player of the Year (Dee Brown, 2005), one Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (Dee Brown, 2005) and one Big Ten Freshman of the Year (D.J. Richardson, 2010). He also helped coach three to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and three to the Big Ten All-Defensive Team, including two-time selection and current assistant coach Chester Frazier. In addition, 20 players earned recognition to the Academic All-Big Ten team during Weber's tenure.

Hired as the 16th head coach in Illinois history on April 30, 2003, Weber saw immediate success in his first season in Champaign, as he led the Fighting Illini to 26-7 overall record and the school's first outright Big Ten title in 52 years with a 13-3 league mark in 2003-04. He became just the third coach in Big Ten history to win a conference title in his first year in the league. The squad won 10 consecutive games to end the regular season, including six straight road wins, to clinch the title. Armed with a balanced team with four players in double figures, Illinois knocked off Murray State, 72-53, and Cincinnati, 92-68, in the NCAA Atlanta First/Second Rounds in Columbus, Ohio before losing to top-seed Duke, 72-62, in Georgia Dome.

The following year, Weber guided the team to 29 consecutive victories to open the 2004-05 campaign. It marked the best start in school history and 12th-best start in NCAA Division I history. During the 100th season of Illinois basketball, Weber would take the Fighting Illini all the way to the championship game of the NCAA Tournament. Illinois closed the year with a 37-2 record (then tying the NCAA record for wins in a season), claiming both the Big Ten regular season title and tournament title. Weber's team won the Big Ten regular-season title with a 15-1 record, becoming the first head coach in Big Ten history to win outright conference titles in his first two years in the league. The Fighting Illini were ranked No. 1 in the nation for 15 consecutive weeks, including a first-ever No. 1 ranking in the final The Associated Press poll.

Weber's Illinois squad defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 67-55, and Nevada, 71-59, in the NCAA Chicago First/Second Round in Indianapolis, Ind., before dispatching of Milwaukee, 77-63, and Arizona, 90-89, in overtime in Rosemont, Ill., to earn the school's first Final Four in 16 years. Led by National Player of the Year and consensus All-American Dee Brown as well as All-Americans Luther Head and Deron Williams and , the Fighting Illini knocked off fourth-ranked Louisville, 72-57, in the first national semifinal to reach the championship game for the first time in school history. In a battle of the nation's two best teams, No. 2 North Carolina used a late rally to earn a 75-70 victory and deny top-ranked Illinois its first NCAA title. Head and Williams were both selected to the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament teams.

The Big Ten Coach of the Year, Weber swept the 2005 National Coach of the Year awards, claiming the Naismith Award (the most prestigious coaching award in college basketball); the Henry Iba Award, presented by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association; and the Adolph F. Rupp Cup. He was also National Coach of the Year by National Association of Basketball Coaches, Associated Press, The Sporting News, Basketball Times, CBS/Chevrolet, Victor Awards and Nike Championship Basketball Clinic.

Despite losing three starters and 63 percent of its scoring from the 2004-05 NCAA runner-up team, Weber helped the Fighting Illini to a third consecutive 25-win season, a runner-up finish in the Big Ten and the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06. The team spent the majority of the season in the Top 10 and recorded 26 wins on the year to tie for the fourth-winningest season in school history. Led by All-American Dee Brown, the team defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 78-69, in the first round of the NCAA Washington, D.C. Regional in San Diego, Calif., before losing to 17th-ranked Nevada in round two.

With a depleted roster that had six different players combine to miss a total of 58 games due to injury during the 2006-07 season, Illinois still advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth consecutive season under Weber en route to fourth straight 20-win season at 23-12 overall and a tie for fourth place in the Big Ten with a 9-7 record. Three players were named to the All-Big Ten team.

Weber suffered his first and only losing season as a head coach in 2007-08, as the Fighting Illini fell to a 16-19 overall record and a tie for ninth in the Big Ten with a 5-13 mark. After losing eight games by less than seven points at one point in the season, the squad came on strong to win four of its last five and five of its final seven games, culminating with a runner-up finish at the Big Ten Tournament. Weber's Illinois squad became the first No. 10 seed in the tournament's history to advance to the title game, winning three games in three days with victories over Penn State, No. 17 Purdue and Minnesota to reach the championship game vs. No. 8 Wisconsin.

Weber's 2008-09 squad was one of the most improved teams in the country, as the Fighting Illini posted a 24-10 overall record, including a tie for second place in the Big Ten with an 11-7 mark, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in six seasons. With 10 more regular season victories than it achieved the year before, Illinois tallied the third-biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I and the second-largest turnaround among BCS programs on the year. The team earned a No. 5 seed in the NCAA West Regional in Portland, Ore., where they lost to upstart Western Kentucky, 76-72, before finishing the year ranked 24th in the Pomeroy rankings.

The 2008-09 Illinois team was best known for its team-first style of play, as they led the nation in assist rate, recording assists on an impressive 69.3 percent of its field goals on the season. The team also led the Big Ten and ranked seventh nationally in assists, averaging 17.5 assists per game.

Weber's teams have a tradition of playing strong defense. The 2008-09 season sparked a run of three consecutive years Illinois led the Big Ten in field goal percentage defense in conference games. In 2011, Illinois' conference foes shot just 39.6 percent from the field and 29.9 percent from 3-point range. That followed the 2010 season that saw opponents shoot just 39 percent overall. Weber's team led the Big Ten and ranked third nationally in scoring defense in 2009, holding foes to an average of 57.2 points a game.

Weber's seventh Illini squad in 2009-10 tallied 21 victories - including six wins over Top 25 opponents - a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten with a 10-8 mark and a trip to the quarterfinals of the NIT. Led by junior Demetri McCamey and Big Ten Freshman of the Year D.J. Richardson, the team knocked off No. 5 Michigan State and No. 11 Wisconsin in back-to-back games during the regular season before earning the team's sixth postseason appearances in seven years under Weber and the first in the NIT.

Weber recorded his seventh 20-win season at Illinois in 2010-11 with a 20-14 record, as the squad spent more than of the season in the Top 25 and finished a tie for fourth place in a competitive Big Ten race that resulted in the conference having a record-tying seven teams in the NCAA Tournament. With its NCAA second-round victory over UNLV (and current Oklahoma coach Lon Kruger), Illinois defeated a higher-seeded team for the second time in school history and recorded its first tournament win since 2006 before falling to top-seed Kansas in the second round. The team finished the year ranked 18th in the Ken Pomeroy's rankings and 25th in Jeff Sagarin's ratings.

A team loaded with six freshmen, Weber guided the Fighting Illini to a 17-15 overall record in 2011-12, including a tie for ninth in the Big Ten with a 6-12 mark. The squad jumped out to a 15-3 record, which included wins over NCAA Tournament teams Gonzaga, St. Bonaventure, UNLV and No. 5 Ohio State, before the youthful Illini dropped 12 of their last 14 games. Two players were named to the All-Big Ten team, including sophomore Meyers Leonard, who opted to forgo his final two college season for the NBA Draft and was selected with the No. 11 pick by the Portland Trail Blazers.

Weber has earned a solid reputation in the college ranks as a coach who stresses player development and fosters an unselfish brand of basketball where the most important facet is team chemistry. His teams strive for up-tempo motion offense coupled with hard-nosed man-to-man defense.

Offensively, Weber's teams have proven to be efficient with the ball in averaging 70 or more points in five of his nine seasons with Illinois. The Illini led the Big Ten in scoring in 2004 (72.8 ppg.) and ranked second in 2005 (77.0 ppg.). His teams at Southern Illinois also scored the ball well with averages of 75.5 ppg. (2002) and 74.5 ppg. (2003) in his final two seasons. In 2009, Weber's Illini led the nation in assist rate with an impressive 69.3 percent of Illinois' baskets scored off of an assist. Illinois also led the Big Ten and ranked seventh nationally with 17.5 assists per game that season.

A trademark of Weber-led teams are its fundamentally sound defense, holding opponents to less than 43 percent shooting each of the last 11 seasons, led by 39.5 percent field goal percentage defense in 2008-09, 40 percent seven times (2002-03, 2006-07, 2007-08, 2010-11), 41 percent in 2004-05 and 42 percent in 2003-04. Illinois led the Big Ten in field goal percentage defense during conference play three of his last four seasons and topped the league in 3-point field goal percentage defense two of the last four years.

In 2010-11, Illinois' Big Ten opponents shot just 39.6 percent from the field and 29.9 percent from 3-point range. That came on the heels of a 2009-10 conference season when the squad allowed opponents to shoot just 39 percent overall. Illinois led the Big Ten and ranked third in the nation in scoring defense in 2009, holding opponents to an average of 57.2 points per game. The team was 19th nationally in field goal percentage defense and led the Big Ten in all three major categories during conference play, including scoring defense, field goal percentage defense and 3-point field goal percentage defense.

In 2008, Weber's Illini were 19th in the NCAA in scoring defense and 24th in field goal percentage defense. The team led the Big Ten and ranked fourth in the nation in scoring defense in 2007, allowing just 57.1 points per game. The squad also paced the conference and ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense in 2006, giving up an average of 58.7 points per game.

■ Southern Illinois Years (1998-2003)

Prior to his time at Illinois, Weber spent five seasons as the head coach at Southern Illinois, where he led the Salukis to the top of the Missouri Valley Conference, including league titles in 2002 and 2003, while collecting a 103-54 (.656) overall record from 1998 to 2003. Weber posted a combined 52-15 (.776) overall in his last two seasons, including consecutive Missouri Valley Conference regular-season titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. His 2001-02 squad collected 28 wins, including 14 in league play, and made a run to the Sweet 16 with wins over Texas Tech and Georgia at the United Center in Chicago, Ill. He once again led SIU to the NCAA Tournament in 2002-03, where his Saluki team tallied 24 wins, including an impressive 16-2 mark in MVC play, before losing in the first round of the "Big Dance" to No. 23 Missouri, 72-71, in Indianapolis, Ind. He was named 2003 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year. His .689 (62-28) winning percentage in MVC play still ranks 12th all-time in the long history of the league.

Named head coach at Southern Illinois in April 1998, Weber led the Salukis to its first winning season in four years with a 15-12 overall record in 1998-99, including a tie for fifth-place in the Missouri Valley. He followed with the school's first 20-win season since 1994-95 in year two, which included a trip to the 2000 NIT. He led the school to its first postseason victory since 1990-91 with a 94-92 win at Colorado in the first round before losing at BYU in the second round. Weber is the second K-State head coach with SIU ties, as all-time wins leader Jack Hartman posted a 142-64 (.689) record as the Salukis' head coach from 1962-70.

■ Western Kentucky and Purdue Years (1980-98)

Weber has a long association with Gene Keady for whom he spent 19 years as an assistant coach, first at Western Kentucky (1979-80) and then at Purdue (1980-98). After helping the Hilltoppers to a 21-8 overall record, an Ohio Valley Conference title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 1979-80, Weber followed Keady to West Lafayette, Ind., where for the next 18 seasons, he helped build the Boilermaker programs into one of the best in the nation. During his stint, Purdue advanced to the postseason play 17 times, including 14 trips to the NCAA Tournament and three appearances in the NIT. The squad averaged nearly 22 wins with Keady-Weber at the controls, including six Big Ten titles, and a 394-168 (.701) overall record.

■ USA Basketball Experience

Weber is also actively involved in USA Basketball, where he serves on the Men's Junior National Committee with Syracuse's Jim Boeheim, North Carolina's Roy Williams and Washington's Lorenzo Romar, which selects coaches and athletes for USA Basketball college-aged competitions, including the World University Games, FIBA U19 World Championships, FIBA Americas U18 Championships and Pan American Games. He also served as an assistant coach for the USA Team at the World University Games in 1989 and head court coach for the Pan American team trials in 1991. Weber assisted Gene Keady in preparation for the Jones Cup, World University Game and Pan American Games while an assistant at Purdue.

■ Coaches vs. Cancer

Weber is involved in a number of charities, most notably Coaches vs. Cancer. He has been one of the nation's most active coaches in the program, currently serving on the organization's Council, and was the recipient of the 2007 Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award.

■ Personal

Weber began his coaching career in his hometown of Milwaukee, where he started as a volunteer assistant at Madison (Wis.) High School before becoming a varsity assistant at Marquette University (Wis.) High School. Weber, 55, earned his bachelor's degree in education from Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1978 and a master's degree in education administration and physical education from Western Kentucky in 1981.

Weber and his wife, Megan, of 32 years, have three daughters: Hannah, Christy and Emily.

Chris Lowery

Associate Head Coach

First Year | Southern Illinois '95

Former Southern Illinois head coach Chris Lowery is in his first season as associate head coach at Kansas State after being the first hire by first-year head coach Bruce Weber on April 5, 2012. He was promoted to associate head coach on October 2.

"We are very fortunate to have someone like Chris on staff," said Weber. "He has not only been a Division I head coach before at SIU, but also a very successful one. It is very important to have someone like that on staff and essential to the players to have a veteran voice like his when I'm not around."

Lowery has 17 years of coaching experience, which includes assistant coaching stints at Rend Lake College (1995-97), Missouri Southern (1997-2000), Southeast Missouri State (2000-01), Southern Illinois and Illinois. He has been a part of teams that have won more than 300 games and advanced to the postseason on eight occasions.

Lowery is reunited with Weber for the third time after serving as his assistant coach at Southern Illinois (2001-03) and Illinois (2003-04). During that three-year period, the duo helped the Salukis and Fighting Illini to a combined 78-22 (.780) record, including a 43-9 (.827) mark in conference play, with three NCAA Tournament appearances, including trips to the Sweet 16 in 2002 and 2004.

Lowery arrives at K-State after an eight-year stint (2004-12) as the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Illinois, where he posted a 145-116 (.556) record with four postseason appearances, two Missouri Valley Conference Championships and one State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title. His teams averaged 18.1 wins over his tenure, including three 20-win seasons, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament on three occasions (2005, 2006, 2007), including a 2007 trip to the Sweet 16. Lowery was twice named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year (2005, 2007). He finished his tenure with the fourth-most wins in school history.

Lowery coached two Associated Press honorable mention All-Americans at Southern Illinois, including Darren Brooks in 2005 and Jamaal Tatum in 2007. In addition, his players earned numerous Missouri Valley Conference honors, including two Players of the Year (Brooks and Tatum), four Defensive Players of the Year (Brooks, Randal Falker, Bryan Mullins twice), two Freshmen of the Year (Mullins and Kevin Dillard) and one Sixth Man Award (Tony Young). He saw 12 players earn all-conference honors, including five first-team selections. He also coached 10 players to the MVC All-Defense Team, six to the All-Tournament Team, five to the All-Freshman and All-Bench Teams and four to All-Newcomer and Most Improved Teams.

Lowery began his coaching career at Rend Lake College in Ina, Ill., in 1995, where he helped the Warriors to a 20-win season. He moved to Missouri Southern in 1997, where he worked three seasons for legendary head coach Robert Corn. After winning 13 and 11 games in his first two seasons, the Lions posted a school-record 30 wins in 1999-2000, including 16 in conference play, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight for the first time. He moved to SE Missouri State as an assistant to Gary Garner in 2000-01, helping the RedHawks to an 18-12 record before moving to SIU. He returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach to Weber in 2002, helping the Salukis to a 52-15 (.776) record from 2001-03 with back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference titles and consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. He followed Weber to Illinois in 2003-04, where he helped the Illini to a 26-7 record and a trip to the Sweet 16. Illinois also captured its first outright Big Ten regular season title in more than 52 years, as Lowery helped coach current NBA players Deron Williams, Dee Brown, Roger Powell and Luther Head.

After a one-year stint at Illinois, Lowery returned to his alma mater as the 12th head coach at Southern Illinois on April 9, 2004. In his first year, SIU posted a 27-8 record, including a 15-3 mark in MVC play, and Lowery became the youngest coach, at the age 32, to ever win Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Salukis won the MVC regular season crown and beat Saint Mary's in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2006-07, he helped SIU to its greatest season in school history, as the team won a school-record 29 games and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2006-07. The squad finished with a No. 11 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and earned its highest NCAA Tournament seed (No. 4).

Lowery was a standout player for legendary Saluki coach Rich Herrin from 1990-94. Known as a scrappy, hustling player, he helped lead a basketball renaissance at SIU, guiding the Salukis to consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 1993 and 1994. He helped the school to an 86-37 mark during his playing career, including four postseason appearances and two Missouri Valley Conference titles. He scored 1,225 points and dished out 391 assists in his career. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from the university in 1995.

Lowery also has some international coaching experience with USA Basketball, serving as an assistant with the U-19 team who won the gold medal at the 2009 World Championships. He coached alongside Pittsburgh's Jamie Dixon and Purdue's Matt Painter for a squad that included current NBA players Gordon Heyward, Shelvin Mack, Trey Thompkins, Klay Thompson, Tyshawn Taylor and Kemba Walker.

A native of Evansville, Ind., Lowery, 39, was born on July 7, 1972 and attended Harrison (Ind.) High School. He and wife, Erika, have four children, Lexis, C.J., Kahari and Jazmyn.

Alvin Brooks III

Assistant Coach

First Year | Idaho State '02

A second generation basketball coach and native Texan, Alvin Brooks III is in his first season at Kansas State as an assistant coach to head coach Bruce Weber. He was hired to the staff on April 30, 2012 after a stint at Sam Houston State.

"I'm very excited to add Alvin to the staff," said Weber. "One of my top priorities was to get someone with strong ties to the state of Texas and Alvin gives us that. He has developed great relationships with the high school and AAU coaches in the state as a recruiter the past eight years. He also has great bloodlines with his father (Alvin Brooks II) being a very well-known coach in Texas."

Brooks has more than eight years of college coaching experience, including stints at Arkansas-Fort Smith (2004-06), Midland College (2006-07), Bradley (2007-10) and Sam Houston State (2010-12).

Twice he was part of a staff that won national championships, including back-to-back NJCAA titles at Arkansas-Fort Smith (2005-06) and Midland (2006-07), while he helped Bradley advance to the finals of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in 2007-08 and CollegiateInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) in 2008-09.

"I got to know Alvin when he was an assistant to Jim Les at Bradley," said Weber. "He has really worked his way up the coaching ladder, working for some really good coaches. He has also the unique experience of having helped two programs win national championships at Arkansas-Fort Smith and Midland."

Brooks comes to K-State after spending two seasons as an assistant at Sam Houston State (2010-12) for head coach Jason Hooten. The Bearkats won 31 games the past two seasons, including an 18-win campaign and the Southland Conference West Division title in 2010-11. He helped coach Gilberto Clavell, who was the Southland Conference Player of the Year and a first team all-conference selection in 2010-11.

Prior to Sam Houston State, Brooks spent three years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Bradley (2007-09) for head coach Jim Les (currently the head coach at UC Davis). The Braves posted a 58-47 (.552) overall record during his stint with the team winning 20 or more games twice in his three seasons. Bradley also advanced to the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) Championship Series (losing a three-game series to Tulsa) in 2007-08 and to the finals of the CollegiateInsider.com Postseason Tournament (losing to Old Dominion in the championship game) in 2008-09. He also helped three players earn All-Missouri Valley Conference honors, including a pair of first team selections.

Brooks broke into the coaching ranks at the junior college level, spending two years as an assistant coach to Jeremy Cox (currently an assistant coach at Texas Tech) at Arkansas-Fort Smith (2004-06) and one year as an assistant to Grant McCasland (currently an assistant coach at Baylor) at Midland College (2006-07). He helped the Lions to a 62-7 (.899) mark from 2004-06, including the NJCAA Division I Championship in his final season in 2005-06. He helped coach NJCAA third team All-American Sonny Weems while at Arkansas-Fort Smith, who was the 39th pick of the 2008 NBA Draft by the Chicago Bulls. In his lone season at Midland, the Chaparrals posted a 29-8 overall record and won the Western Junior College Athletic Conference and Region V titles en route to the NJCAA Division I Championship in 2006-07. Six players on the squad went on to sign scholarships with Division I schools, including Nathan Jawai, who went on to be selected 41st overall in the 2008 NBA Draft by the Indiana Pacers.

Brooks played two seasons at Midland College (1998-2000), where he helped the Chaparrals to a sixth-place finish in the 2000 NJCAA national tournament before transferring to Idaho State. He played two years for the Bengals and head coach Doug Oliver, earning Academic All-Big Sky honors as a senior in 2002. He earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2002 and his master's degree in athletics administration in 2003 from the school.

Brooks served as an aide to former Idaho State athletics director Jim Senter for one year before beginning his coaching career at Arkansas-Fort Smith in 2004.

Brooks is the son of former Houston head coach, Alvin Brooks II, who has been a college basketball coach for over 30 years. He was the Cougars' first African-American head coach, leading the school to 54 wins from 1993-98. After stints with Billy Gillispie at UTEP, Texas A&M and Kentucky, the elder Brooks returned to Houston in 2010 to serve as associate head coach under former Texas Tech head coach James Dickey.

A native of Houston, Brooks, 33, was born on September 11, 1979. He married the former Tiffany Wafer in August 2012. Tiffany is a teacher in the Manhattan area.

Chester Frazier

Assistant Coach

First Year | Illinois '09

A former collegiate point guard at Illinois, Chester Frazier is in his first season at Kansas State as an assistant coach to former coach Bruce Weber.

"I'm really excited about the addition of Chester to the staff," said Weber. "He's another former player of mine who I think is going to be an outstanding coach. He's sort of in the same mold as (current Vanderbilt head coach) Kevin Stallings and (Purdue head coach) Matt Painter, where I always knew he was going to be a coach. Chester is young (26) and has ties to the East Coast (Baltimore), which were goals for my final assistant spot. He's a real student of the game and someone who I think will be able to develop strong relationships with our players."

Frazier comes to K-State after playing professionally for two years in Germany, first for Goettingen (2009-10) and then for S. Oliver Baskets Wuerzburg Basketball Club (2011-12).

As the starting point guard for head coach John Patrick, Frazier helped Wuerzburg to a 20-14 record and trip to the semifinals of the German Bundesliga playoffs. He averaged 7.7 points on 37.7 percent shooting, including 28.9 percent from 3-point range, with 3.7 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.1 steals in 24.4 minutes per game. He ranked first on the team in assists, while he was second in steals and fourth in both minutes and rebounds. He was one of seven former college players on the Wuerzburg roster, including Chris Kramer (Purdue), Ricky Harris (Massachusetts), Ben Jacobson (Northern Iowa) and Ivan Elliott (UC Santa Barbara).

Frazier helped Goettingen to the 2010 EuroChallenge title, averaging 20.4 minutes in 31 games played. He averaged 5.9 points on 50.6 percent shooting, including 34.2 percent from 3-point range, with 3.4 rebounds and 1.5 assists per game. In helping Goettingen to the EuroChallenge title, he averaged 3.8 points, 3.1 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.0 steals per game. He played along a number of former college players with Goettingen, including Dwayne Anderson (Villanova), Jason Boone (NYU), Chris Oliver (Radford) and Taylor Rochestie (Washington State).

"I am incredibly excited to become a part of the Kansas State family," said Frazier. "Coaching is my passion and I am looking forward to getting to work and to help build a winning culture here at K-State, along with the rest of the staff."

Prior to his stint in Germany, Frazier served as a graduate assistant and video coordinator for Weber at Illinois from 2010-11. He helped the Fighting Illini to a 20-win season and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2010-11. He resigned midway through his second year to resume his playing career in Germany.

Frazier was a four-year letterman and two-time captain for the Fighting Illini from 2005-09, playing all four seasons for Weber. Known for being a hard-nose point guard, he helped Illinois to 89 wins, including three 20-win seasons, and three trips to the NCAA Tournament during his career. He played 125 games with 88 starts in his career, averaging 4.9 points on 35.9 percent shooting with 4.1 rebounds, 3.9 assists and 1.0 steals in 28.5 minutes per game. Frazier still ranks seventh all-time at Illinois in career assists (484) and ninth in career assists per game (3.9 avg.). He ranks just outside the Top 10 in minutes played (3,566).

As a senior, Frazier led Illinois to 24 wins and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2008-09. He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten as well as Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors and was selected as the team's most valuable player. He led the Big Ten in assists (5.3 avg.) and held a 2.4 assist-to-turnover ratio as a senior. He also averaged 5.7 points on 44.8 percent shooting and was one of the best rebounding point guards nationally, averaging 4.8 per game. He was also named to the Big Ten All-Defensive Team as a sophomore in 2006-07 after averaging 7.2 points and 4.5 rebounds in 31.5 minutes per game.

Frazier prepped at Lake Clifton-Eastern High School in Baltimore, Md., for head coach Herman Harried, where he earned first team All-Baltimore City/County honors and second team All-Metro accolades by the Baltimore Sun as a senior after averaging 16 points, eight assists, six rebounds and two steals in 2003-04. He helped lead Lake Clifton-Eastern to a 19-5 record as a senior and a final ranking of 10th by the Baltimore Sun. He also played for the Cecil-Kirk AAU program, where he was coached by former Wildcat Ronald Lucas (1992-94).

Frazier also spent one postgraduate year at Notre Dame Preparatory School in Fitchburg, Mass., averaging 16 points and seven assists in 2004-05, playing for head coach Bill Barton (current assistant coach at Pittsburgh). He was a second team All-Prep selection by Scout.com and a Top 50 Prep player by Hoop Scoop.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Frazier, 26, earned a bachelor's degree in recreation management from Illinois in 2009. He also took courses towards a master's degree in educational policy studies from Illinois.

Frazier and his wife, Sarah, were married in July.

Brad Korn

Director of Men's Basketball Operations
First Year | Southern Illinois '04

Former Southern Illinois player and assistant coach Brad Korn is in his first year as the director of operations for former coach Bruce Weber.

"Brad is terrific young coach and a great addition to the staff," said Weber on the announcement of Korn's hiring. "Brad played for Matt Painter and me at Southern Illinois and then got his start in coaching as an assistant to Chris (Lowery)," said Weber. "He was part of one of the winningest senior classes in SIU history, winning 93 games and advancing to three straight NCAA Tournaments. He has really worked his way up the coaching ranks. This experience will be pivotal in handling all the various administrative roles for the program."

Much like Lowery, Korn has ties to Weber after playing his first four years (1999-2003) for him at Southern Illinois. He redshirted his first season in 1999-2000 before playing the next three years for Weber. He concluded his playing career for current Purdue head coach Matt Painter in 2003-04 before spending the next eight years (2004-12) as first a graduate assistant (2004-06) then a full-time assistant coach (2006-12) for Lowery at SIU.

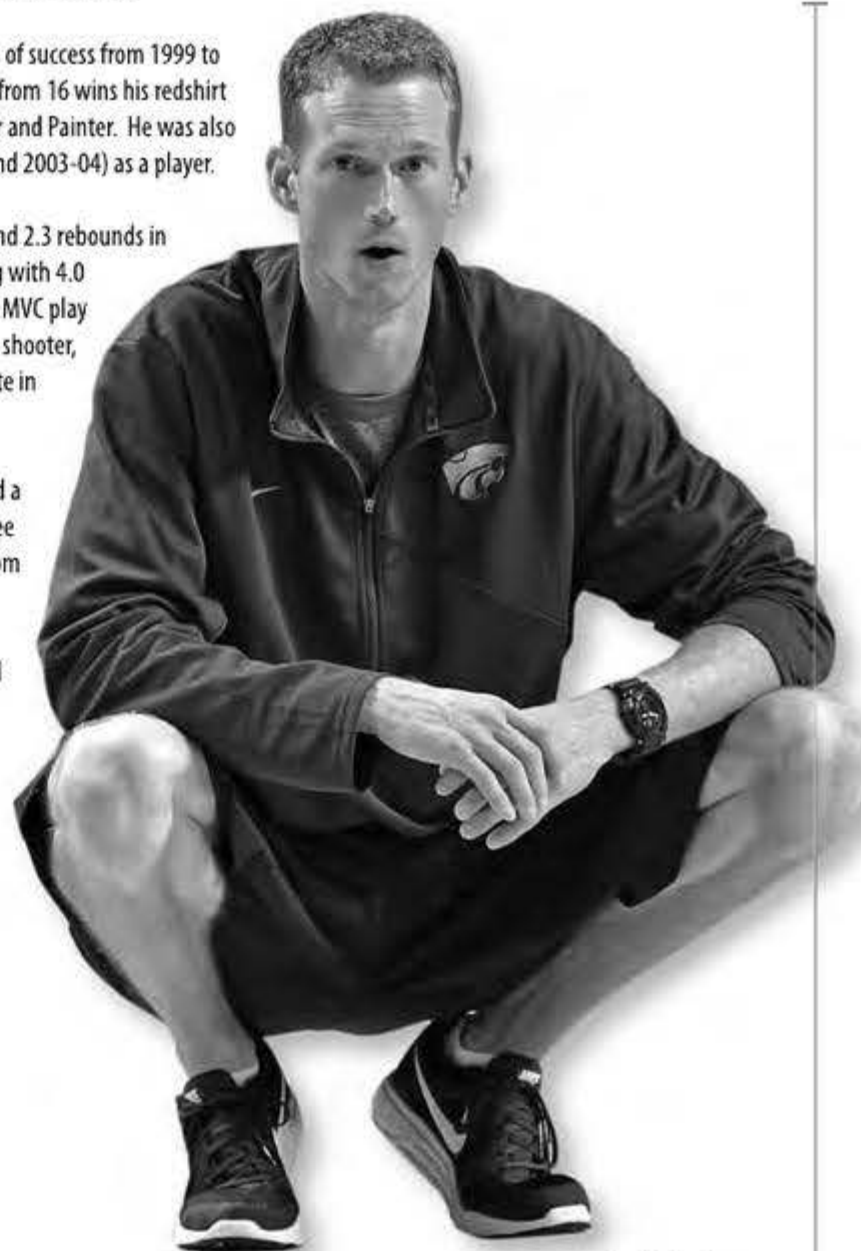

Korn arrives at K-State after an eight-year stint at Southern Illinois (2004-12), including the last six years as a full-time assistant for Chris Lowery. He helped the Salukis post a 145-116 (.556) overall record with four postseason appearances, two Missouri Valley Conference Championships (2004-05 and 2006-07) and one State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title (2005-06). The squad won 20 or more games and advanced to the NCAA Tournament on three occasions (2005, 2006, 2007) during his tenure as an assistant coach, including a 2007 trip to the Sweet 16. He was a graduate assistant at SIU his first two years before being elevated to a full-time assistant coach on Jan. 31, 2006.

"I'm excited about the opportunity to join the staff at K-State," said Korn. "I have known Coach Weber since I was 16, so nearly half my life," said Korn. "He has been a big influence in my life and I'm excited about this opportunity to work for him for the first time. He's the same, genuine person that I met in 1998 and I can't wait to help him in this next chapter of his coaching life. I want to do all I can to make sure he and the other coaches have all they need to make K-State has successful as possible."

A native of Plano, Ill., Korn helped the Salukis through one of their greatest periods of success from 1999 to 2004, playing for head coaches Bruce Weber and Matt Painter. The team went from 16 wins his redshirt freshman season to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances under Weber and Painter. He was also a part of three Missouri Valley regular season Championships (2000-01, 2001-02 and 2003-04) as a player.

The 6-foot-9 forward saw action in 121 games in his career, averaging 5.2 points and 2.3 rebounds in 14.5 minutes per game. As a senior, he averaged 9.7 points on 41 percent shooting with 4.0 rebounds and 1.9 assists in helping Southern Illinois to 25 wins and a 17-1 mark in MVC play in 2003-04. He was named to the league's Most Improved Team. A prolific 3-point shooter, he scored a career-high 17 points versus Bradley, Jacksonville State and Wright State in 2003-04.

Korn, 31, earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from Southern Illinois in 2004, while he earned credits towards a Master's in Sports Studies. He and wife, Kristin, have a daughter, Brielyn.

Wayne McClain

Director of Student-Athlete Development
First Year | Illinois State '82

Veteran high school and college coach Wayne McClain is in his first season as the director of student-athlete development at Kansas State for head coach Bruce Weber.

McClain comes to K-State after spending the last 11 years coaching at Illinois, including the last nine under Weber. During his time, the Fighting Illini posted 235 wins on a .685 winning percentage and advanced to the NCAA Tournament nine times, including a trip to the national championship game in 2005. He was the longest tenured assistant coach in the Big Ten until he left the school this past year. He was the school's associate head coach the last three seasons.

In his position as director of student-athlete development, McClain will be responsible for a variety of areas, including basketball-related matters, handling special projects for the coaching staff and assisting with personnel development and recruiting. In addition, he will be involved in the Life Skills program and counseling student-athletes in career planning and goal setting.

McClain joined the staff at Illinois under then head coach Bill Self in 2002 after a distinguished 25-year coaching stint (1977-2001) at Manual High School in Peoria, Ill., including seven years (1995-2001) as head coach. The 1997 USA Today National High School Coach of the Year, McClain led the Rams to a 94-5 (.950) record and three consecutive AA state championships (1995, 1996 and 1997) in his first three years as head coach.

His 1997 squad, which was led by son Sergio McClain and future Illinois players Marcus Griffin and Frank Williams, was named the National High School Champions by USA Today after posting a 31-1 overall record. A three-time all-state selection, the younger McClain was named the 1997 Illinois Mr. Basketball and, in 2007, was elected as one of the 100 Legends of the IHSA Boys' Basketball Tournament. In addition to his three state titles, the elder McClain also guided the Rams to Sweet 16 appearances in the AA state tournament in 1998 and 1999 as well as Midstate Six Conference titles in each of his first five years. He was named the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Coach of the Year in 1995, 1996 and 1997.

McClain coached a number of Manual players who went onto play collegiately, including four who played at Illinois. His son, Sergio, who helped the Illini to two Big Ten titles from 1998 to 2001, played on all four state championship squads (1994, 1995, 1996, 1997). Griffin, Williams and Jerry Hester also played for Illinois.

McClain began his high school coaching career at Manual in 1977, serving as an assistant to the legendary Dick Van Scyoc for 18 years until being named head coach in 1995. McClain helped the Rams to the first of four consecutive state titles in 1994. His teaching career included teaching at the sixth grade level, teaching high school physical education and as Manual High School Dean of Students.

McClain earned a master's degree in physical education from Illinois State University in 1982 while teaching at Manual. In addition to his son, he has a daughter, Brindeshie, a two-time Illinois graduate. He also has a grandson, Sergio, Jr.

Jimmy Price

Strength and Conditioning Coach
First Year | Texas Tech '01

One of the first people hired by head coach Bruce Weber, Jimmy Price was hired as the strength and conditioning coach for the Kansas State men's basketball team on April 23, 2012.

Price comes to K-State after spending the last nine seasons at Illinois, where he coordinated the strength and conditioning program for the men's and women's basketball teams as well as serving as a sports nutritionist. Overall, he has over 10 years of experience training basketball teams at both Texas Tech and Illinois.

Price is reunited with Weber for the second time after serving as his strength coach during his entire tenure at Illinois (2003-12). He helped coach a Fighting Illini program that posted a 210-101 (.685) record the past nine years with one Final Four, six NCAA Tournament appearances, two Big Ten regular-season championships and one Big Ten Tournament title. Seven times the squad reached the 20-win plateau, while the 2004-05 team won a school-record 37 games.

Price trained five All-Americans at Illinois, including consensus first team selection Dee Brown (2005), while four players went on to be selected in the NBA Draft, including first round picks Deron Williams and Luther Head in 2005. In all, he helped coach 27 All-Big Ten selections, including seven first team honorees, one Big Ten Player, Defensive Player and Freshman of the Year and three Big Ten All-Freshman and All-Defensive Team members.

In addition to his experience in men's basketball, Price worked with Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Theresa Greutz (2003-07) and Jolette Law (2007-12) during his time at Illinois. While training the women's team, the Fighting Illini made five trips to the postseason and won at least 16 games in five seasons. He also helped coach one honorable mention All-American (Jenna Smith, 2007-08) and 16 All-Big Ten selections, including four first team picks, along with five All-Freshmen Team and three All-Defensive Team honorees.

Prior to Illinois, Price spent two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater Texas Tech, where he worked with legendary head coach Bob Knight from 2001-03. He helped train a Red Raider program, which posted a 45-22 (.672) overall record and earned back-to-back postseason appearances, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2002. It marked the school's first NCAA Tournament in six seasons. He coached three All-Big 12 picks, including two-time first team selection and all-time leading scorer Andre Emmett. In addition to men's basketball, he also worked with Texas Tech football, men's and women's tennis and track and field teams.

A Texas native, Price, 34, served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1996-2004. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise sports science with an emphasis in fitness, wellness and nutrition from Texas Tech in 2001. He currently holds certifications as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and Specialist in Performance Nutrition.

Drew Speraw

Video Coordinator
First Year | UCF '09

Drew Speraw (pronounced SPEAR-awe), a former administrative assistant at Iowa, is in his first season at Kansas State as the video coordinator for head coach Bruce Weber.

Speraw arrives at K-State after spending the past two years at Iowa as first, a graduate student manager (2010-11), and then as an administrative assistant (2011-12) for head coach Fran McCaffery. He took on the added responsibility as the team's video coordinator during the 2011-12 season after the departure of another staff member. Speraw was part of a coaching staff that improved the Hawkeyes' win total by seven in 2011-12 from the previous season and helped the team earn its first postseason win since 2003. In all, he helped Iowa win 39 games in two years, including 18 victories and a trip to the second round of the NIT in 2011-12.

The son of former University of Central Florida head coach Kirk Speraw, he played for his father from 2005-10. A team captain as a senior, he played in 66 career games as a Golden Knight. The younger Speraw connected on 39 percent from 3-point range during his college career. The elder Speraw, an assistant coach at Iowa, is the all-time winningest coach in UCF history with 279 victories to go with four NCAA Tournament appearances from 1993-2010.

Speraw earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2009 from UCF. He also fulfilled requirements for a master's degree in sports and fitness with a concentration in sport leadership and coaching from UCF in 2010. He added a second master's degree in business administration from Iowa in 2012. A native of Lakeland, Fla., he attended Oviedo High School in Orlando, Fla., where he was two-year basketball letterman, helping the Lions to a 24-5 record as a senior en route to the Class 6A Elite Eight. Speraw, 26, has a wife, Jamie.

Liane Fowler

Program Director/Specialized Learning
12th Year | Emporia State '83

Liane Fowler is in her 12th year at Kansas State as the director for specialized learning services and academic counselor for the men's basketball team. She is responsible for assisting and continuing eligibility and academic progress towards degree completion. She also provides academic assistance to all student-athletes with a documented disability and/or deemed at-risk academically. In addition, she provides tutorial and advising assistance to the men's basketball team.

Fowler has been a key figure in helping transform the team's Academic Progress Rate (APR) from one of the worst in the Big 12 Conference to one of the best. The team's APR score has increased by more than 80 points in the last five years, as she has seen 13 of 14 student-athletes earn their degrees. In addition, she has helped K-State post the highest overall student-athlete graduation rate in the Big 12 four times in the past five years, including the highest in men's basketball in 2009-10.

Fowler came to K-State from Butler County Community College in El Dorado, Kan., where she served as the director of special needs/ADA compliance and an athletic academic advisor for eight years. In this role, she provided academic assistance to any student enrolled at Butler County with a documented disability, while also providing tutorial and advising assistance to all student-athletes.

Fowler received her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Emporia State in 1983 and her master's in counseling and school psychology from Wichita State in 1988.

Fowler and her husband of 25 years, D.A., have three children: Jeremy, Justin and Amber.

K-State Again Scores High Marks in Latest APR Report

Kansas State, which has led the Big 12 in graduation rate four times in the last five years, scored record-high marks across the board and for the second time since the APR guidelines were established eight years ago, all teams exceeded the standard. Also, the women's golf, women's basketball and men's cross country programs were awarded APR Public Recognition distinction for posting multi-year APRs in the top 10 percent of all squads in each sport.

The Academic Progress Rate (APR) measures the eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes competing on every Division I sports team and also serves as a predictor of graduation success. The Division I Board of Directors set cut scores of 930 (multi-year) and 900 (out of 1,000) as a threshold for teams to meet or face possible immediate and historical sanctions.

The men's basketball scored a 960 to soar past the 930 mark after raising its multi-year score by a total of 80 points over the last five seasons. During that time, 13 of 14 student-athletes earned their degrees from K-State, including Victor Ojeleye and Jamar Samuels this past Spring.

Casey Scott

Senior Associate Athletics Director
11th Year | Kansas State '77

Now in his 28th season in collegiate athletics administration, Casey Scott has been a member of the K-State staff since 2002. A 1977 graduate of Kansas State University from Wichita, Kan., he directs the Athletics Operations unit overseeing the facilities maintenance, game management and special event operations and supervises the departments of communications, sports medicine and strength and conditioning. He also serves as the primary administrator for men's basketball, baseball, men's and women's golf. He was recently promoted to Senior Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Event Management in 2012.

During his time at K-State, Scott has helped successfully direct two NCAA women's basketball tournaments, three NCAA volleyball tournaments, two National Invitation Tournaments (NIT), the pre- and postseason WNIT, three football games at Arrowhead Stadium, two Big 12 Conference outdoor track and field championships, cross country championships, equestrian championship and men's golf championship. He also has been instrumental in the negotiation and staging of what has become an annual men's basketball game in the Sprint Center in Kansas City and the 2011 Wichita Wildcat Classic game in INTRUST Bank Arena.

Prior to K-State, he served as Associate Athletics Director for External Operations at Colorado State, where he oversaw the marketing, development, ticketing and special-event operations. He began his athletics career in 1985 as Sports Information Director at Wichita State. During his more than 12 years at WSU, he served in roles as Assistant Athletics Director for External Operations, Facilities and Events, and Associate Athletics Director until leaving for CSU in 1998.

Scott earned a B.S. in journalism and mass communication from Kansas State in 1977. He and his wife, Christy, have a son, Brett, and a daughter, Shannon.

Brandon Yoder

Athletic Trainer
Fourth Year | Graceland College '03

Brandon Yoder begins his eighth year as an assistant athletic trainer at K-State, including his fourth as the primary trainer for the men's basketball team. In addition to his duties as men's basketball trainer, he assists in the care of student-athletes for the women's equestrian team.

Yoder joined the men's basketball staff after spending three years with the Wildcat baseball and women's equestrian teams. The baseball team earned its first bid to the NCAA Tournament in his final season in 2009. Prior to this stint, he spent the 2006 spring season as the primary athletic trainer with the track and field program.

Before coming to Manhattan, Yoder worked at the University of Cincinnati covering Bearcat football and baseball for one year. Prior to Cincinnati, he received his master's degree in Liberal Arts from Southern Methodist University. While a graduate assistant at SMU, Yoder was the primary care provider for both the men's and women's tennis teams, while assisting with the Mustangs' football team for two years under NATA Hall of Fame member Cash Birdwell.

Yoder earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in athletic training and a second in physical education from Graceland University in Lamoni, Iowa, in 2003. While attending Graceland, he was a four-year letterwinner for the Yellowjacket baseball team.

He and his wife, Kelly, who is the Office Manager for the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office, reside in Manhattan with their two daughters, Peyton and Kamryn.

Bailey Borck

Administrative Assistant
First Year | Kansas State '11

Bailey Borck is in her first year as an administrative assistant for the K-State men's basketball program in 2012-13.

Hired July 12, Borck is responsible for a number of administrative duties, including coordinating coaches' travel, organizing the office, maintaining coaches' calendars and monitoring the budget. She also handles the personal schedule of head coach Bruce Weber. In addition, Borck is responsible for all aspects of the annual men's basketball banquet each April.

Borck joined the staff after spending four months as an inside spirit sales representative at GTM Sportswear. She had athletics experience as an undergraduate, serving four years as a student assistant in the football office, where she assisted in the recruiting process. She also spent a summer as a cheerleading marketing intern with the Kansas City Chiefs.

A native of Manhattan, Kan., and graduate of Manhattan High, she earned her bachelor's degree in marketing from Kansas State in 2011. She is engaged to former Wildcat wide receiver Cole Bachamp.

Eric Rodriguez*Graduate Student Manager
Second Year | NYIT '11

Eric Rodriguez enters his second year at K-State as a graduate student manager for head coach Bruce Weber. His primary duties are to assist in the initial breakdown of game video, aid in gathering scouting information as well as help coordinate film exchange. He also assists the staff with its recruiting database and travel.

Rodriguez came to K-State in 2011 after a two-year playing career at New York Institute of Technology (NYIT) in Old Westbury, N.Y. He saw action in all 58 games in his career, pacing the Bears in assists as both a junior (73) and senior (69).

A native of Miami, Fla., Rodriguez, the son of legendary Florida High School basketball coach Marcos "Shakey" Rodriguez, graduated from NYIT in May 2011 with a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies with a minor in business. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in College Student Personnel and Intercollegiate Athletics.

Dustin Yoder*Graduate Student Manager
First Year | Illinois '11

A former manager for Bruce Weber at Illinois, Dustin Yoder enters his first year as a graduate student manager at K-State for his old boss. Like fellow graduate manager Eric Rodriguez, his primary duties are to assist in the initial breakdown of game video, aid in gathering scouting information as well as help coordinate film exchange. He also assists with recruiting database and travel.

Yoder arrives at K-State after a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Parkland College in Champaign, Ill., during the 2011-12 season. He helped the Cobras to a 19-13 record and a trip to the finals of the Region 24 Tournament. He spent three years (2008-11) as a team manager for Weber at Illinois, including serving as head manager as a senior in 2010-11. He transferred to Illinois after playing point guard for two years (2006-08) at Lake Land College in Mattoon, Ill.

The all-time leading scorer (1,517) at Okaw Valley High School in his hometown of Bethany, Ill., Yoder graduated from Illinois in May 2011 with a degree in kinesiology. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in College Student Personnel and Intercollegiate Athletics.

Shortly after being hired as the university's Athletics Director, John Currie, in May 2009, he announced the "K-State Pledge," a series of accountability measures and core values that serve as the foundation for the university's vision for a model intercollegiate athletics program.

Five goals for the university's vision of a model athletics program:

- A world-class student-athlete experience.
- Value to our University, community and state.
- Integrity and transparency in matters of ethics, NCAA compliance and finance.
- Championship-level athletic performances.
- The best fan experience in the Big 12 Conference.

Dr. Kirk Schulz

University President*Fourth Year | Virginia Tech '86*→ The Schulz Family

Kirk H. Schulz was selected as the 13th president of Kansas State University in February 2009 by the Kansas Board of Regents.

A dynamic leader, he is spearheading a visionary effort to move K-State forward, with the goal of being recognized as a Top 50 Public Research University by 2025. During his first two years Schulz has generated considerable momentum toward the goal, including campus-wide involvement in developing a strategic plan.

Among recent university highlights:

- For the second consecutive year, the Kansas State Foundation set a new fundraising record with gifts totaling $121 million for the fiscal year 2012. The mark, the largest in the 68-year history of the KSU Foundation, surpassed the previous record of $107 million in 2011. The Foundation also established 92 new scholarships and four professorships.
- Faculty researchers brought in a record high $124.7 million in funding.
- Athletics has made more than $100 million in facility improvements, including the new $75 million West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium slated to open in the Fall of 2013 and the recently-completed $18 million Basketball Training Facility. The department has also had the Big 12's best student-athlete graduation rate in four of the last five years.
- With more than 38,000 members, K-State was ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 for the 17th consecutive year for percentage of graduates who are members of the Alumni Association.
- The Kansas Congressional Delegation, the Office of Governor Sam Brownback, and the Kansas Legislature worked with university administrators to secure funding for the construction of the $650 million National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility (NBAF).
- K-State continues as the top choice among Kansas high school seniors for Fall 2012.

Prior to his appointment as president, Schulz served as vice president for research and economic development at Mississippi State University. He has also served on the faculty at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota.

Schulz is active in several professional societies including the American Institute for Chemical Engineers and the American Society for Engineering Education. In recognition of achievements in the field of Chemical Engineering, Schulz was selected as a Fellow in both the American Society of Engineering Education and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Schulz is also active in the Boy Scouts of America, and serves on the Executive Board of the Coronado Council. He also serves various roles on the boards of Cereal Food Processors, the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation, the Kansas Bioscience Authority, and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz, who serves as the Paslay Professor of Electrical Engineering at Kansas State University. They have two sons - Timothy - a senior at Mississippi State University and Andrew - a senior at Manhattan High School.

Since John Currie's introduction as director of athletics in May 2009, K-State's athletics program has experienced a tremendous turnaround and enjoyed an unprecedented combination of athletic, academic and administrative accomplishments and national attention. With the vision of president Kirk Schulz, the re-earned trust of Wildcat fans nation-wide and the efforts of K-State's stellar coaching staffs, Currie's rebuilt senior leadership team has turned an inherited deficit into national acclaim as the NCAA's most financially solvent program, initiated $100 million in comprehensive athletics facility improvements and launched the No. 1 premium digital network all while navigating the tumultuous waters of conference realignment and helping the Big 12 Conference emerge ready for a new era of excellence.

Athletically Currie's tenure has been marked by across the board success. This past year, K-State advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in volleyball, finished No. 8 in the final BCS football rankings, earned an AT&T Cotton Bowl berth and went on to become the lone Big 12 school and one of only four in the nation to advance to a bowl and win games in the NCAA volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball tournaments, while high jumper Erik Kynard won his second consecutive NCAA Outdoor Championship and won the silver medal at the London Olympic games.

K-State's fundraising efforts have been completely overhauled in Currie's tenure with a new emphasis on personal interaction and communication for Ahearn Fund donors of all levels. Supporters immediately responded by increasing gifts more than 50 percent versus the previous year, while fiscal year 2012's 25.8 million total means that cash giving has doubled since Currie's arrival in 2009. Donors have stepped up with 11 private gifts in excess of $1 million since fall 2009, enabling the athletics department to construct the $18 million Basketball Training Facility and building momentum towards the department's new comprehensive facility improvement benefitting all 444 Wildcat student-athletes, which includes the new $75 million West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and new facilities for the women's tennis and rowing programs.

Fiscal integrity is another key pillar of the K-State Pledge. Despite inheriting a $2 million projected budget deficit on arrival in June 2009, Currie's staff instead achieved a first-year surplus of $5 million, thanks to new measures promoting efficiency and cost containment, coupled with tremendous fundraising success. In May 2011 USA Today recognized K-State as one of just 22 athletic departments in the nation to operate in a surplus in 2009-10 and one of only five to do so while decreasing expenses from the previous year. And, in May 2012, ESPN.com recognized K-State's FY 2011 final budget margin as the nation's leader, ahead of traditional stalwarts Texas, Florida and Michigan. Currie's award-winning Fan Experience staff has created new ticket initiatives that have led to the two largest home-opening football crowds in school history and 14 sellout crowds at Bill Snyder Family Stadium under his tenure that rank among the school's Top 20. The Wildcats have also set new season total and average attendance records in baseball, sold a record number of tickets for volleyball and placed in the Top 35 in average attendance in men's basketball each year while ranking in the Top 25 the past two seasons in women's basketball attendance.

In August 2011, K-State capitalized on the Big 12's unique retained rights opportunities when it launched an exclusive, high-definition digital television network known as K-StateHD.TV, ensuring that all Wildcat volleyball, baseball, men's and women's basketball home contests are produced and distributed in HD format. The network provides a world-wide connection for K-State fans and alumni and has established the university as an international leader in programming, accessibility and exposure. In fact, K-State took over the No. 1 spot in total subscriptions across the CBS College Sports network, K-State's online network provider, and remains No. 1 almost one year later.

Currie received a signal national honor as one of only two athletics directors named to SportsBusiness Journal's 2011 prestigious "Forty Under 40" list of national sports leaders. A member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Cabinet and the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors, he also serves the Big 12 as a member of the Game Management/Officiating Subcommittee as well as the Championship and Awards committee.

Currie began his duties at K-State after 10 years at Tennessee, most recently serving as Executive Associate Athletics Director. A native of Chapel Hill, N.C., he earned his master's in sports management from Tennessee in 2003 and is a 1993 Wake Forest graduate. He and his wife, Mary Lawrence, have three children, Jack, Virginia and Mary-Dell.

Postcards from Brazil

Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil | August 8-17, 2012

Kansas State got a jump start on its preparations for the 2012-13 men's basketball season with its 10-day trip to Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil from August 8-17, 2012. The NCAA allows teams to make a foreign trip once every four years, but this was the first by the men's basketball program since playing four games in and around Vancouver, British Columbia in October 2004. Overall, it was the program's fourth trip outside the country, which includes excursions to Japan in 1981 and Finland, the Netherlands and Sweden in 1993.

K-State played four games during the trip, posting a 2-2 record as the squad had to adjust to international rules (four, eight-minute quarters among other differences with NCAA rules). The Wildcats averaged 70 points on 41.9 percent shooting (99-of-236), including 31.4 percent (22-of-70) from the 3-point range, while connecting on 75.9 percent (60-of-79) from the free throw line. The team averaged 37.5 rebounds, 15.8 assists, 17.5 turnovers, 4.8 blocks and 9.8 blocks per game.

Sophomore guard Angel Rodriguez paced all scorers with a 10.3 points per game average on 40 percent shooting, including 35.7 percent from 3-point range, with a team-best 4.8 assists and 2.3 steals per game. Three others - Nino Williams, Rodney McGruder and Adrian Diaz - all averaged 9.0 points per game, while junior Will Spradling and senior Jordan Henriquez added 8.5 points and 7.3 points per game averages. Williams led the Wildcats in rebounding (6.0 rpg.), 3-point field goal percentage (40.0) and free throw percentage (83.3), while Diaz was tops in field goals (14), field goal percentage (58.3) and blocked shots (2.5 bpg.). Freshman D.J. Johnson was second in rebounding at 5.3 boards per game, while Diaz and Henriquez were third at 4.8 rebounds per game.

The Wildcats spent its first three days (August 9-11) in Sao Paulo, which at just over 11 million people is the largest city in Brazil and the largest in the southern hemisphere. The squad split two games while in Sao Paulo, which included an 81-67 loss to Sao Jose dos Campos, one of the top professional teams in the National Brazilian Basketball League (NBBL) and the national runner-up in 2012, and a 79-72 win over Mogi Das Cruzes, a first-year professional team in the NBBL.

K-State jumped out to a 12-2 lead against Sao Jose dos Campos in the first quarter en route to a 22-10 advantage after the first quarter. Sao Jose clawed its way back to within 33-32 at halftime before dominating the third and fourth quarter in an 81-67 win. Rodriguez and Williams led the way for the Wildcats with 15 and 11 points, respectively, while Henriquez added a team-high nine rebounds to go with eight points.

Rodriguez ignited a 20-4 run with a 3-pointer midway through the fourth quarter, as K-State earned its first win of the Brazil trip with a 79-72 win over Mogi Das Cruze Club on August 11. The back-and-forth contest was tied at 59-all when Rodriguez hit a big 3-pointer from the top of the key to start the pivotal run. The Wildcats scored 11 quick points, including a 3-pointer from Spradling, as the team led 72-63 with under five minutes to play. The lead ballooned to 16 points after another Rodriguez 3 with 2:20 to play before Mogi Daz Cruzes closed out the game with nine in a row.

Four players scored in double figures led by 13 points each by Diaz and Rodriguez. Spradling and Shane Southwell added 12 and 10 points, respectively. Diaz finished with a near double-double with a team-tying nine rebounds and two blocks, while Rodriguez added five assists.

During halftime of the game, K-State was able to honor one of its former players in Eduardo (Galvao) Agra, a native Brazilian who played for head coach Jack Hartman's Wildcats from 1979-83. He played on several Brazilian National Team and was a member of the 1984 Olympic team. He has become well-known in Brazil as analyst for ESPN Brasil for Brazilian Professional and international basketball.

The Wildcats added a second win en route to Rio de Janeiro with a 59-46 victory over Pindamonhangaba Club on August 12. Henriquez scored 13 points on 5-of-5 field goals, including a rare 3-pointer. All 14 players saw significant action in the game, including both freshmen and walk-ons. McGruder added nine points, four rebounds, one steal and one block, while Diaz and Williams each posted eight points.

K-State spent its last four days (August 13-16) in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil's second-largest city at just over six million people and the site of the 2014 World Cup and 2016 Summer Olympic games. Between games, the team was able to visit various attractions in Rio, including Sugarloaf Mountain, Ipanema Beach and Christ the Redeemer Statue.

The Wildcats lost its last game on August 13, as Tijuca Club hit a 3-pointer from the corner with 45 seconds left to win physically-contested game, 74-72. The teams combined to shoot 78 free throws in the game, including 47 by the home squad. McGruder led four players in double figures with 16 points, along with three assists and two rebounds. Spradling added 12, while Diaz chipped in 11 points, seven rebounds and four blocks. Rodriguez was also in double figures with 10 to go with six assists, while Johnson led all players with nine rebounds.

Faced with replacing the school's all-time leading scorer in Jacob Pullen and one other starter, Kansas State got production from a variety of options to post its unprecedented sixth consecutive trip to the postseason, including its fourth in the last five seasons in the NCAA Tournament, to cap a 22-win campaign in 2011-12. The four trips to the NCAA Tournament in the last five years is the best five-year stretch in school history and the best since the Wildcats advanced to four straight tournaments from 1987-90. K-State, which earned a No. 8 seed at the 'Big Dance,' defeated 9-seed and Conference USA representative Southern Mississippi, 70-64, in the second round before falling to two-seed Syracuse, 75-59, in the third round of the East Regional at the CONSOL Energy Center in Pittsburgh, Pa. It marked the sixth consecutive season that the Wildcats have won at least one postseason contest (NCAA or NIT) after losing eight in a row between 1994 and 2007. K-State received votes in both major polls after finishing in the Top 25 (2009-10 and 2010-11) in consecutive years for the first time in nearly 40 years. The team also ranked No. 44 in the final NCAA RPI, which combines wins and losses with strength of schedule.

Overall, K-State finished the 2011-12 season with a 22-11 record, including a fifth place finish at 10-8 in the Big 12 standings. The 22 wins ties for the eighth-most in a single season in school history, while it marks the fifth time in the last six seasons that the squad has tallied 10 or more league victories in a single season. It also marked the school's sixth consecutive 20-win season - a first in school history. The Wildcats are one of just two Big 12 teams (Kansas) to receive a bye at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship each of the past six seasons.

Following is a list of accomplishments from the 2011-12 season:

- Advanced to the postseason for the unprecedented sixth straight season, including the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in the last five seasons. The squad also won a postseason contest for the sixth straight season. The four trips to the NCAA Tournament are the most in a five-year span in school history and best since the school advanced to four consecutive tournaments between 1987-90.
- Tallied an unprecedented sixth consecutive 20-win season for the first time in school history.
- Earned seven wins against teams rated in the Top 100 of the RPI, including four vs. squads in the Top 25. K-State was one of five schools (Duke, Indiana, Kansas and Missouri) to have at least three wins (Baylor and Missouri twice) over RPI Top 10 teams (using NCAA RPI) and the only one to have two of those wins on the road (Baylor and Missouri). The win at Missouri was the only loss suffered by the Tigers at home in 2011-12.
- Captured the 2011 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic by defeating Southern Illinois, UTEP and Long Beach State in Honolulu, Hawaii.... It marked the 15th regular-season tournament championship in school history and the first since the Wildcats won the Las Vegas Holiday Classic on Dec. 22-23, 2006... Junior Rodney McGruder was named the tournament's most valuable player after scoring 28 points vs. Long Beach State in the final, while senior Jamar Samuels was named to the all-tournament team.
- Tallied its sixth consecutive season of at least 10 non-conference wins after posting an 11-1 mark in 2011-12... The Wildcats have registered a 58-12 (.829) record in non-conference play over the past five years, which is the most over a five-year span in non-conference play in school history.
- Recorded sellouts in 14 of 15 games played at Bramlage Coliseum, including all nine in Big 12 play. The team drew 200,000 or more fans for the fifth time in the last six seasons, while they ranked fourth in school history for home attendance (204,527). K-State is one of 14 schools nationally to draw over 12,000 in paid attendance for every home game over the last two seasons, which includes Kentucky, Syracuse, Louisville, North Carolina, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Kansas, Illinois, Michigan State, New Mexico, Vanderbilt and Creighton.
- Scored 2,000 or more points for the sixth consecutive season with an average of 71.0 points per game... The team also posted at least 175 3-pointers for the sixth year in a row... The 2,343 points scored ranks ninth on the school's single-season chart, while the 183 3-pointers places eighth... The team also ranked in the Top 5 in five other categories, including blocked shots (2nd, 156), offensive rebounds (5th, 471), free throws made (9th, 536), free throws attempted (9th, 799) and defensive rebounds (9th, 756).
- Junior Rodney McGruder and senior Jamar Samuels both earned recognition to the Coaches' All-Big 12 team with McGruder collecting second team honors and Samuels registering honorable mention accolades. It marks the ninth consecutive season that at least one K-State player has been named to the Big 12's first, second or third team. McGruder earned recognition to the All-Big 12 second team after being a third team pick in 2010-11, while Samuels tallied all-conference honors for the first time in his career.
- Junior Jordan Henriquez and Rodney McGruder were named to the five-member Big 12 All-Defensive Team in 2011-12, marking the first time that two K-State players were selected to the all-defensive team in the same season and the third straight season that at least one Wildcat has been named to the team.

Wildcats Advance to NCAA Tournament... Again

Kansas State made its 33rd postseason appearance in 2011-12 and its 26th in the NCAA Tournament. It marked the first time in school history that the Wildcats have advanced to six consecutive postseason tournaments, while it marked the first time that the team has earned three straight trips to the NCAA Tournament since the 1987-88, 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons. The squad is now 39-38 all-time in postseason play, including 33-30 in NCAA Tournament. K-State's 26 NCAA Tournament appearances tie Oklahoma for the third-most among Big 12 teams all-time, trailing just Kansas (41) and Texas (30), and one ahead of West Virginia (25).

Another 20-win Season

Kansas State posted its 24th 20-win season in school history in 2011-12 and the 17th posted during the regular season. The team has now won 20 or more games in six consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. The 22 wins tie for the eighth-most in school history, but tie the 2008-09 squad for the fourth-most in the last 25 seasons. Only the 1981-82 (23), 1987-88 (25), 2009-10 (29) and 2010-11 (23) have more wins in that span.

Martin Era Ends

The 2011-12 season marked the end of the five-year tenure of head coach Frank Martin, who resigned to accept the same position at South Carolina on March 27, 2012. Martin, who was promoted to head coach on April 6, 2007 after spending one season as an assistant to then head coach Bob Huggins, posted a 117-54 (.684) record during his tenure (2007-12), which included five postseason appearances and four trips to the NCAA Tournament. His 117 wins rank fourth all-time in school history behind coaching legends Jack Hartman (295), Tex Winter (261) and Jack Gardner (127). The 2009-10 Big 12 Coach of the Year, Martin ranks second in school history with five 20-win seasons, 20 Top 25 wins and eight Top 10 wins, third in NCAA Tournament appearances (four) and NCAA Tournament wins (six) and fourth in winning percentage (.684). He led the Wildcats to a school-record 29 wins in 2009-10, a tie for second place in the Big 12 and its first trip to the Elite Eight in more than 22 seasons.

→ Rodney McGruder

McGruder, Samuels Named to All-Big 12 Teams

Junior Rodney McGruder was selected to the All-Big 12 second team and senior Jamar Samuels was chosen to the honorable mention squad, as the league office announced its annual postseason awards on March 4. McGruder earned recognition to the All-Big 12 second team after being a third team selection in 2010-11. The team leader in eight categories, he is the seventh Wildcat in the Big 12 era to earn all-league honors at least twice in a career. It also marks the ninth consecutive season that at least one K-State player has been named to the Big 12's first, second or third team. McGruder led the squad in scoring (15.8 ppg.), double-digit scoring (28), 20-point games (10), field goals (188), 3-pointers (50), free throws (97). Samuels collected all-conference honors for the first time in his career with honorable mention accolades after pacing the squad in rebounding (6.6 rpg.) and double-doubles (eight). In addition to the all-league honors, McGruder and fellow junior Jordan Henriquez were named to the five-member Big 12 All-Defensive Team. It marked the first time that two K-State players have been selected to the all-defensive team in the same season and the third straight season that at least one Wildcat has been named to the squad, following Jacob Pullen's selection in both 2010 and 2011.

Ojeleye Wins of Arthur Ashe Jr., Sports Scholar Award

Senior Victor Ojeleye was named the male winner of the 2012 Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Award on May 24 in a joint announcement by Diverse: Issues in Higher Education magazine and the NCAA. Ojeleye was selected as the winner from over 600 minority candidates nominated by their respective institutions, including 10 finalists. He was one of five Big 12 student-athletes named as finalists for the award. The award was established in 1992 by Black Issues in Higher Education, now Diverse, to honor college students of color who exemplify the standards set by tennis great Arthur Ashe, Jr. To be nominated, student-athletes must compete in a sport, maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.2 and be active on their campuses or their communities.

A native of Ottawa, Kan., Ojeleye was a leader on and off the court during his playing career (2008-12). A four-year letterman and two-time captain for the Wildcat basketball team, he was a part of the winningest senior class in school history with 96 victories. He helped the school to four consecutive postseason appearances, including three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 2010, 2011 and 2012. He is one of just seven players in school history to earn first team academic all-conference honors three times in a career and the first since Josh Reid (1997-2000). He was named to the Fall and Spring Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Rolls each of the past four years. During the 2010-11 athletics season, he earned the inaugural Dr. Gerald Lage Award from the Big 12, which is given to student-athletes who have earned 100 or more hours of credit with a cumulative 3.8 GPA. In addition, he was elected by his conference peers to serve as Vice-Chair of the Big 12's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) during the 2011-12 athletics season. He graduated from K-State in 2012 with a dual degree in accounting and finance. Past winners of the Sports Scholar Award include Heisman Trophy winner Robert Griffin III (2011), ESPN analyst Kara Lawson (2003) and NFL Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk (1993).

Unique Company

K-State was one of just 11 schools in the country, including four in the Big 12 (which ties the Big Ten for the most by one league), to have its football team in a bowl game (Cotton Bowl) and to advance its men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball teams to the NCAA Tournament in 2011-12. It marked the second consecutive season that the football team has gone to a bowl game and the men's and women's basketball teams have advanced to the "Big Dance". The group is narrowed down even further when accounting for the school's success in the NCAA Tournament, which made K-State one of just four to advance to a bowl game and win games in the NCAA volleyball, men's and women's basketball tournaments.

Balanced Attack

K-State proved to be a balanced team in 2011-12 with seven players averaging five or more points, including two in double figures, and four averaging four or more rebounds per game. The Wildcats had eight different leading scorers (with Rodney McGruder leading the way 16 times) and six leading rebounders (Jamar Samuels leading 12 times), while nine players led or tied for the team lead in assists. Nine players collected double-figure assists this year, including 60 or more assists by Angel Rodriguez (101), Will Spradling (91) and Shane Southwell (65) and six players had double-figure steals (including five with 20 or more steals) led by Rodriguez's 41. Overall, the 11 players collected 104 double-digit scoring games with McGruder posting a team-leading 28 such games, while Samuels and Spradling were not far behind with 18 and 16 double-figure games, respectively.

On the Defensive

K-State was a solid defensive team in 2011-12, allowing opponents 64.1 points (the third-lowest by an opponent in the shot clock era and lowest since 2005-06) on 40.9 percent shooting, including 32.5 percent from 3-point range, to go with 37.2 rebounds, 6.1 steals and 4.7 blocks per game. The Wildcats held 19 foes to 65 points or less, including 14 to 60 points or less and three under 50 points. The team was 16-3 when holding an opponent 65 points or less, including 12-1 when they scored fewer than 60. In Big 12 play, K-State held foes to 64.1 points on 42.8 percent shooting, including 33.6 percent from 3-point range, to go with 30.9 rebounds, 7.9 steals and 3.3 blocks per game. The Wildcats held 11 opponents to 65 points or less in league play. It marks just the fourth time (1949-50, 1950-51, 1981-82) in school history that the team has held at least 14 opponents to 60 points or less, including eight in conference play, and the first time since 1981-82.

Points Off Turnovers

A trademark of K-State over the past five years was its ability to score points off of opponent's mistakes. Since 2007, the Wildcats have scored 3,113 points off of 2,787 turnovers in 171 games - an average of 18.2 points per game. Nearly 25 percent of the points scored in the past five years have come off of offense generated from turnovers, including in 2011-12, in which the team outscored its foes, 577-488. It marks the sixth straight season that the Wildcats have scored 500 or more points off opponent turnovers. The team pressured its foes into an average of 15.9 turnovers, including a season-high 25 by Texas Tech on Jan. 25, while opponents averaged 16.0 turnovers in Big 12 play. For season, K-State averaged 17.5 points off these mistakes, including 17.2 points in league play. The Wildcats scored 20 or more points off of turnovers in 13 games, including seven times in Big 12 play (21 vs. Missouri, 26 vs. Baylor, 20 vs. Oklahoma, 21 vs. Texas, 27 and 21 vs. Texas Tech, 24 vs. Oklahoma State). The 27 points scored vs. Texas Tech were the most scored off of turnovers in a Big 12 game since totaling 29 vs. Nebraska on Feb. 17, 2010.

Block Party

K-State took advantage of its size in the paint to post 51 more blocked shots (156-105) than its opponents in 2011-12, averaging 4.7 blocks per game. The Wildcats tallied at least five blocks in 17 games, including a season-best 11 blocked shots against North Florida on Dec. 11. Most of these blocks came by way of Jordan Henriquez, who finished second in the Big 12 with 2.4 per game. He tallied a school single-season record 77 blocks in 2011-12, which represents almost half of the team's total. After becoming the school's all-time blocks leader (146) vs. No. 3/3 Missouri on Feb. 21, he set a career-best with seven swats vs. Iowa State on Feb. 25. His seven blocks against the Cyclones are the second-most in a single-game in school history and the most-ever in a conference game. He posted 34 blocks in the last nine games, including a swat of the game-winning shot in the win over No. 9/10 Baylor. He tallied six blocks vs. Southern Miss in the NCAA Tournament.

Bonus Points

K-State took advantage of its opportunities from the free throw line in 2011-12 with nearly 25 percent of their points (536) coming from the line. The Wildcats were 17th nationally and second in the Big 12 in free throw attempts per game (24.2). The Wildcats attempted at least 22 free throws in 22 games, including 20 or more attempts in nine Big 12 games. The team combined for 79 attempts in consecutive games against Texas and Oklahoma State on Jan. 18 and 21, including a season-best 40 vs. the Cowboys. The squad matched that total with 40 attempts vs. Texas Tech on Feb. 7. In addition, K-State has also converted on at least 20 free throws in eight games, including a season-best 30 vs. Texas Tech, also on Feb. 7.

Samuels Twice Big 12 Player of the Week

Senior Jamar Samuels twice earned Phillips 66 Big 12 Player of the Week honors in 2011-12, first on Dec. 5, 2011 after wins over George Washington and Virginia Tech and, on March 4, 2012 after victories over Texas A&M and Oklahoma State.

He averaged 17.0 points on 61.9 percent shooting (13-of-21) in wins against the Aggies and Cowboys to go with 11.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 32.0 minutes per game. He had back-to-back double-doubles for the second time. After posting a 17-point, 11-rebound effort in just K-State's third win at Texas A&M in the Big 12 era, he added 17 points and a game-high 12 rebounds in helping the Wildcats sweep the season series from Oklahoma State for the first time since 1988. He earned Big 12 weekly honors for the first time on Dec. 5 after averaging 13.5 points on 64.7 percent shooting in wins over the Colonials and Hokies to go with 12.0 rebounds per game. He recorded double-doubles in each contest, marking the first time in his career he has done that in back-to-back games. He grabbed 10 points and 10 rebounds in the win over George Washington before adding 17 points and 14 rebounds at Virginia Tech. He had 15 points and 13 rebounds in the second half.

Samuels is apart of the winningest senior classes in school history with 96 wins, which included four trips to the postseason. He is one of three players in K-State history to collect 1,200 points and 700 rebounds in a career, joining the late Bob Boozer (1956-59) and Ed Nealy (1978-82). He ranked first on the squad in 2011-12 in double-doubles (eight) and rebounding (6.6 rpg.), while he was second in scoring (10.0 ppg.) and blocks (0.7 bpg.) and third in minutes (26.5 mpg.).

In addition to Samuels, two other Wildcats claimed Big 12 weekly honors during the 2011-12 season, as freshman Thomas Gipson was selected as the league's Rookie of the Week on Dec. 12, 2011, while junior Rodney McGruder was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 27, 2011.

Among Attendance Leaders Again

In 2011-12, Kansas State ranked among the Top 35 in men's basketball attendance for the fifth time in the last six seasons. The Wildcats attracted 12,783 fans per game to 16 home games to rank 25th nationally and third in the Big 12. Kansas led all league schools with an average of 16,445 fans, which placed 10th in the nation, while Iowa State (13,015) ranked just ahead of K-State in 24th place. All 10 Big 12 schools ranked among the nation's Top 75, including seven in the Top 50.

It was K-State's highest attendance ranking since also placing 25th in 2007-08 with an average of 12,529 fans per game. The school placed 26th in both 2006-07 (12,301) and 2010-11 (12,652), while it was 31st in 2009-10 (11,884). The 12,783 average ranks second in school history behind the 12,978 in the inaugural season of Bramlage Coliseum in 1988-89. Four of the school's top-5 attendance averages have come in the last six years. Overall, K-State drew 204,527 fans to its 16 home games in 2011-12, which marked the fifth time in the last six seasons that the school has drawn 200,000 or more fans. The total attendance figure included the Dec. 17 game against Alabama, which drew 16,685 fans for the Hy-Vee Wildcat Classic at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo., since the department controlled all the ticket operations. The 204,527 attendance total is fourth-best in school history. Although not included in the home attendance, the squad also played before a capacity-crowd of 15,004 at Wichita's INTRUST Bank Arena vs. West Virginia on Dec. 8.

'Cats Capture Diamond Head Classic

K-State earned its first regular-season tournament title since 2006, as the Wildcats captured the 2011 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic with victories over Southern Illinois (83-58), UTEP (78-70) and Long Beach State (77-60). It was the first title since winning the 2006 Las Vegas Holiday Classic. The squad averaged nearly 80 points (79.3 ppg.) during the three-game tournament on 49.7 percent shooting (78-of-157), including 51.3 percent (20-of-39) from 3-point range, while holding its opponents to just 62.7 points on 36.6 percent shooting (59-of-161). Rodney McGruder was named the tournament MVP after averaging 15.0 points on 64 percent shooting, including a 28-point outburst in the final against LBSU. Jamar Samuels was also named to the all-tournament team after averaging 11.7 points and a team-best 8.3 rebounds per game.

(a) Includes a 82-84 overtime loss to Kansas on March 9, 1960 in an NCAA playoff game.

(b) Lost 80-81 at Colorado on Feb. 13, 1961, but Colorado later forfeited the contest.

(c) Jack Hartman coached the first 13 games before sitting out the remainder of the year recovering from heart bypass surgery. He returned to coach one last season in 1985-86.

Assistant Darryl Winston served as interim coach (5-10) for the final 15 games from January to March 1985.

(d) Jim Wooldridge coached the first 19 games before undergoing neck surgery; returned to coach the final seven games.

Assistant Jimmy Elgas served as interim coach (1-1) for two games in February 2006.

Big Eight Conference Holiday Tournament (1946-78)

For 33 years, the Big Eight Conference sponsored one of the most successful basketball tournaments in the nation - the Big Eight Holiday Basketball Tournament. The four-day tournament included eight teams, each guaranteed three games with consolation and winner brackets.

The event began in 1946 when the Big Six Conference invited SMU and Arkansas to complete the field of eight. In 1947, the Big Seven invited Missouri Valley Conference member Oklahoma A&M (now Oklahoma State) to participate. Completing the field until it became the Big Eight in 1958 were: Harvard (1948); Michigan (1949); Minnesota (1950); Stanford (1951); Yale (1952); Washington (1953); California (1954); Cornell (1955); Michigan State (1956); Princeton (1957).

The 1946 and 1947 tournament were conducted prior to Christmas, being held on the second weekend of December. For the remainder of the event, it was held following Christmas, either December 26-29 or 27-30. Pairings were based on the previous year's conference standings until 1964, but beginning in 1965 the first-round match-ups were based on a set rotation.

The tournament was held at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo., from 1946-73. Beginning with the 1974 tourney, Kemper Arena became the home to the event. The last Holiday Tournament was in 1978, and cancelled because the league also conducted a postseason tournament for automatic NCAA Tournament qualification. The two tournaments were conducted in the same year three times: 1976-77; 1977-78; 1978-79.

A Championship Tradition

Kansas State's rich coaching heritage

K-State's coaching ledger reads like a who's who of basketball's greatest minds. The 10 coaches listed coached the Wildcats to some of their most successful seasons, including nearly 1,200 wins, 4 trips to the Final Fours, 26 NCAA Tournaments and 15 league titles.

Jack Gardner

1939-42, 1946-53

147-81

Jack Gardner had great numbers, great teams and great results. That is why he is enshrined in the Naismith Hall of Fame, basketball's highest reward. It's also the reason that he is often credited with beginning the great basketball tradition that exists at Kansas State today.

Simply stated, he got it all started. Interestingly, he is the only head coach in school history to hold the top position on two different occasions. His second stint at the school resulted in some of the best basketball ever played in Manhattan.

Entering the 1946-47 season, the team hadn't finished above the .500 mark for 15 years, but Gardner, renowned for his tactical prowess, rallied the Wildcats to a 14-10 season in the initial season of his second go-around. The 1950-51 team would soar to a 25-4 record and a second place finish in the NCAA Tournament. Gardner's teams won a total of three conference crowns in seven years and captured two Big Eight Holiday Tournament titles, in addition to finishing the year ranked in the Top 20 on two occasions.

Aside from his on-the-court achievements, Gardner is remembered as the force behind the construction of Ahearn Field House in 1950. His successful teams of the late 1940s drove basketball fans in the state of Kansas into a frenzy, and tickets were as rare as the losses. After nearly a decade of trying to persuade state legislators for a new facility, the new arena became a reality in December 1950.

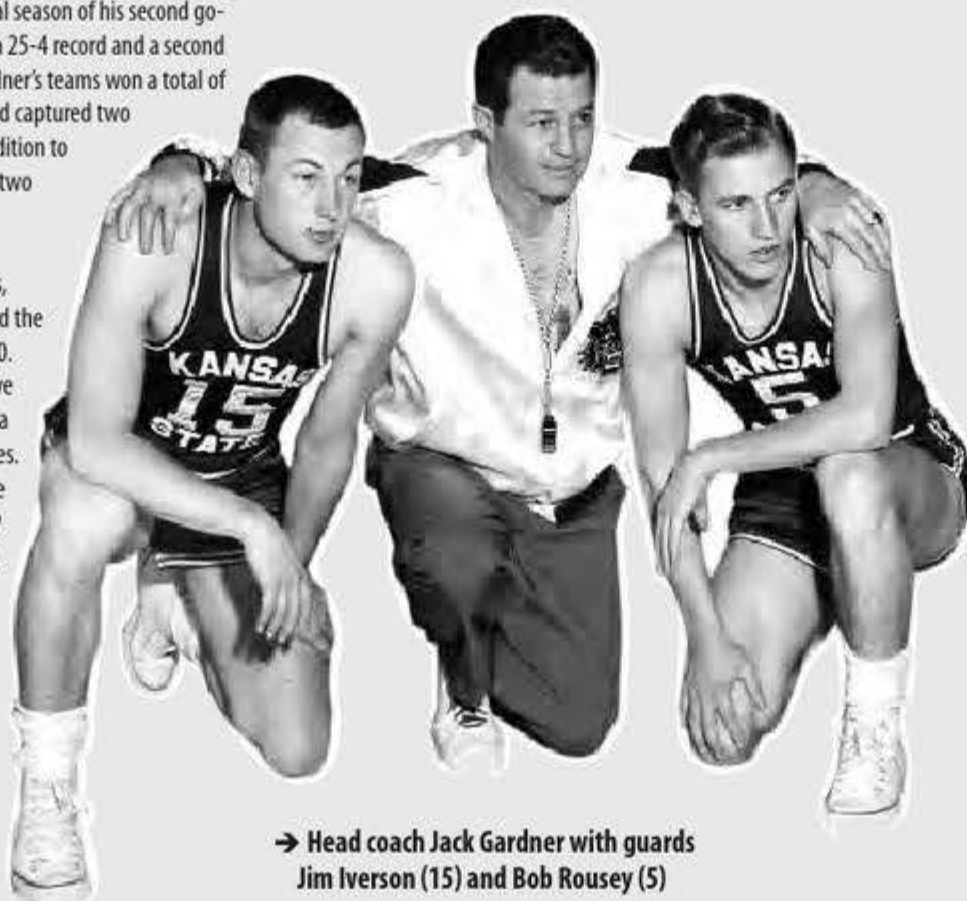

Gardner, a native of New Mexico and a graduate of the University of Southern California, responded with the 1950-51 team which was arguably the best in school history and one of two that would go to the Final Four during his tenure (the other was in 1947-48).

The 1950-51 squad led by All-American Ernie Barrett is still the only team in school history to advance to the NCAA title game.

Gardner left Manhattan in 1953 to take over the head coaching reins at the University of Utah, where he remained for 18 years. He led the Utes to six NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips to the Final Four. He finished his career in Salt Lake City with a 339-154 record while winning seven conference titles. Between 1959-62, his Utah teams posted a 72-14 record.

Gardner, who was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2000, has been inducted into 10 different Hall of Fames. He is also a member of the Southern Utah Hall of Fame, Utah All-Sports Hall of Fame, State of Utah Basketball Hall of Fame, Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, Helms Foundation Hall of Fame, the Crimson Club (University of Utah), the Modesto (Calif.) Junior College Hall of Fame and the Redlands (Calif.) High School Hall of Fame. He was also the recipient of the National Association of Basketball Coaches' Golden Anniversary Award.

Gardner worked as a consultant for the NBA's Utah Jazz from 1979 until 1991. Gardner, who passed away on April 9, 2000, is credited with discovering Gonzaga's John Stockton while working for the Jazz.

Fred "Tex" Winter

1953-68

261-118

Morice Fredrick "Tex" Winter was an assistant coach during Jack Gardner's glory years. He was a natural to succeed his mentor, although the early years were tough. So tough, in fact, that at one point signs sprouted saying, "Spring is here, Winter must go." Fortunately, Winter stayed, and it was a "long, hard Winter" for K-State foes for 15 years. An innovator of the "triangle offense," he earned a reputation as one of the most creative offensive coaches in the land and in 1962, published a book on the offense entitled The Triple-Post Offense.

Winter owns the second-most wins (261) of any Kansas State coach, and laid claim to more league titles (eight) than any other Wildcat coach. He would lead the school to postseason play seven times, including six trips to the NCAA Tournament. K-State won the Big Eight Holiday Tournament four times under his leadership, and achieved top 20 finishes on four occasions. Eleven Wildcats achieved all-league honors under Winter, and two (Jack Parr and Bob Boozer) were All-Americans. He was also named the United Press International (UPI) National Coach of the Year in 1959.

There were several outstanding teams under Winter, two of which made trips to the Final Four. Spearheaded by the play of Bob Boozer, the 1958-59 team was ranked among the nation's top-5 for most of the season and spent numerous weeks as the nation's No. 1 ranked team before falling in the Midwest Regional Finals to No. 5 Cincinnati. Then, in 1964, the Wildcats charged back to the Final Four, finally being eliminated by eventual champion UCLA, 90-84.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif., Winter began his coaching career as the first full-time assistant at K-State for Jack Gardner from 1947-51. Like Gardner, he graduated from Southern California [in 1947], where he learned the triangle offense from Sam Barry. An All-American pole vaulter for the Trojans, he became the youngest coach in the nation at Marquette in 1951, guiding the Warriors to the National Catholic Championship in his first season. After his second season he replaced Gardner (who left for Utah) as coach in 1953.

Following his departure in 1968, Winter served shorter stints as head coach at Washington (1969-72), the NBA's Houston Rockets (1972-74), Northwestern (1975-78) and Long Beach State (1978-83). In total, he won 454 games at the collegiate level. Winter went 51-78 during his two-year stint with the Rockets.

In 1985, Winter started another chapter of his life, serving as an assistant coach with the NBA's Chicago Bulls under famed 11-time championship coach and fellow Hall of Fame inductee Phil Jackson, and teaching the triangle offense to Michael Jordan. He was hired to the position by Chicago general manager Jerry Krause, an old friend he had met while at K-State. As an assistant to Jackson, who took over as the Bulls' coach in 1989, Winter was an integral part of the Bulls' NBA championships in 1991, 1992, 1993, 1996, 1997, and 1998. Winter followed Jackson to the Los Angeles Lakers, where he collected four additional championship rings in 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2009.

A member of both the state of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame as well as the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame, Winter earned perhaps his greatest accolades the past two years when he was selected to both the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (2010) and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (2011). He is the third person with K-State ties named to the Naismith Hall, following Jack Gardner, who was elected in 1984, and former player, Bob Boozer, who was a part of the 1960 U.S. Olympic Team elected in 2010. This was his second honor from the Naismith Hall of Fame, as he was named the 1998 winner of the John Bunn Award for lifetime achievement.

The only person to be affiliated with all four of K-State's Final Four teams, Winter, is now retired and lives back in Manhattan. He is a regular at many men's basketball games. In fact, the university recently honored him on his 90th birthday on Jan. 28, 2012.

Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons

1968-70

Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons and Tex Winter had at least three things in common.

Neither used their given first name, both took over the head coaching job at Kansas State after serving as an assistant coach and both are remembered for a coaching style marked by personality and winning ways.

Fitzsimmons was a menace in the Big Eight Conference in his two years. He finished second in his initial campaign in 1968-69, then won the league crown in his second and final season in 1969-70. His second team eclipsed the 20-win mark, made a trip to the NCAA Tournament and earned Fitzsimmons Big Eight Coach of the Year honors. It was the school's first 20-win season and first trip to the NCAA Tournament in six seasons since it advanced to the Final Four in 1964. He saw three players earn All-Big Eight honors, including Steve Honeycutt in 1969 and Jerry Venable and Bob Zender in 1970.

Fitzsimmons was colorful, literally. He became the first coach to ever add a third color to the uniforms, when he attached a gold trim during his stay. Of a less literal, Fitzsimmons' style drew attention, too. His first team finished 14-12, but that 1968-69 squad averaged more fans (12,166 per game) than any team in the history of Ahearn Field House.

A native of Hannibal, Mo., he began his coaching career at Moberly (Mo.) Junior College, where he compiled a 224-58 (.794) record in 11 years and won national titles in 1966 and 1967. He was twice named the National Junior College Coach of the Year.

Fitzsimmons left K-State in 1970 to become head coach of Phoenix Suns, the first of three coaching stints with the franchise. He went on to coach 21 seasons in the NBA, compiling the 13th-most victories in the league's history with an 832-775 (.518) record with five teams - Phoenix (1970-72; 1988-92; 1996-97), Atlanta Hawks (1972-76), Buffalo Braves (1977-78), Kansas City Kings (1978-84) and San Antonio Spurs (1984-86).

A two-time NBA Coach of the Year, Fitzsimmons was Senior Executive Vice President for the Phoenix Suns before his passing at the age of 72 in July 2004 due to complications from lung cancer.

→ Cotton Fitzsimmons

Jack Hartman

1970-86

295-169

Shrewd, calculating and intense all describe the winningest coach in Kansas State history.

Jack Hartman endeared himself to K-Staters for a number of reasons, but none more memorable than his ability to take seemingly less talented teams and consistently come out on the winning side of the ledger.

Hartman led Kansas State to three Big Eight titles, two Big Eight Tournament championships and nine postseason appearances during his 16 seasons as coach. He saw the Wildcats register 20 or more wins seven times, including 24 wins in both 1976-77 and 1980-81. He also guided the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament seven times (1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1980, 1981, 1982), including four trips (1972, 1973, 1975, 1981) to the Elite Eight. His teams finished the season ranked among the Top 20 five times, including the No. 7 (UPI) and No. 9 (AP) rankings in 1972-73.

Hartman was honored as National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches after a storied 1980-81 season. Led by All-American Rolando Blackman, the eight-seed Wildcats charged into the NCAA West Regional Finals on the strength of upset wins over San Francisco, No. 2 Oregon State and No. 19 Illinois. The squad was denied its first Final Four in 17 years by North Carolina in the finals.

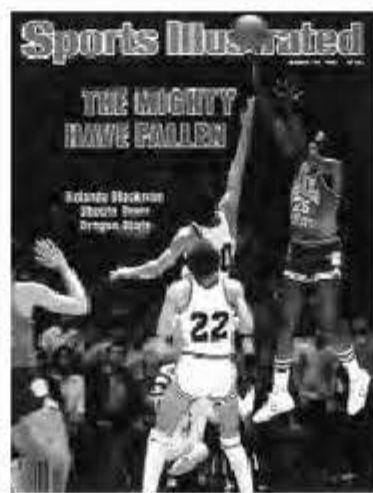

In 23 years of coaching at the Division I level (the other seven at Southern Illinois), Hartman posted a 439-233 (.653) record. Throw in seven years of junior college coaching at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College and you get a stellar record of 589-279 (.679). During his stint at Coffeyville, he was one of the few coaches to take a junior college team through a season undefeated, including the national title, as his 1962 squad went 32-0. In addition, he was the head coach for the United States at the 1983 Pan American Games, and led the Americans to the gold medal.

Hartman coached a number of future pros. While at Southern Illinois, he tutored Walt Frazier, and at Kansas State, he produced players like Rolando Blackman, Mike Evans, Lon Kruger, Ed Nealy and Chuckie Williams. In all, he coached 10 All-Americans, five Big Eight Players of the year and 16 first team All-Big Eight selections.

Prior to his stint at K-State, Hartman led Southern Illinois to a 144-64 (.692) record from 1962-70, guiding the Salukis to the 1967 NIT title with a 24-2 overall record. The title helped Hartman gain The Sporting News Coach of the Year honors at end of the season.

A two-sport star while in college at Oklahoma State, Hartman actually played professionally on the gridiron. After garnering All-Missouri Valley Conference honors as OSU's quarterback, he played for Saskatchewan in the CFL. He was also an outstanding basketball player, and played for the incomparable Henry Iba.

Hartman retired from coaching after the 1985-86 season. He served as a color analyst for the Wildcat Television Network as well as the Big Eight television package following his retirement. He served as interim coach of the women's basketball team during the 1995-96 season, guiding the squad to a 3-4 record. He remained active in K-State Athletics until his death in November 1998.

Lon Kruger

1986-90

81-46

A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year for K-State in 1973 and 1974, Lon Kruger is remembered for many accomplishments.

At the top of that list, one will find four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Despite K-State's lofty reputation with 26 NCAA Tournament appearances, no coach had been able to secure four straight trips to the prestigious event. Kruger changed all that by taking the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament in each of his four years at the helm, and became the first coach in school history to win 20 games in his initial season as head coach.

His best team was the 1987-88 club, which featured All-American Mitch Richmond. That squad tied the school record for wins at 25-9 and advanced all the way to the Midwest Regional title game at Pontiac, Mich., where the Wildcats lost to eventual NCAA champion Kansas. Following that season, he was named National Association of Basketball Coaches District Coach of the Year.

With a coaching style marked by calculated precision and calm under pressure, Kruger led the Wildcats to several triumphs that will be recalled for many years to come. His upsets of some of the nation's highest-ranked teams became almost routine as his trips to the NCAA Tournament.

A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Kruger was a three-year letterman for head coach Jack Hartman from 1971-74, winning Big Eight Player of the Year accolades in both 1973 and 1974. He scored 1,063 points in his career, including a 17.6-point average his senior year.

Kruger served as an assistant to Hartman for four years from 1978 to 1981 before accepting the head coaching position at Texas-Pan American in 1982. He spent five years at UTPA before following his mentor as head coach at Kansas State in 1986.

Following his stint at K-State, Kruger moved onto Florida for six seasons (1990-96) where he led the Gators to the 1994 Final Four. He left Florida in 1996 to become head coach at Illinois for four years (1996-2000). After guiding the Illini to three NCAA Tournaments and a Big Ten crown, he left to take over as head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks in May 2000. He compiled a 69-122 record with the Hawks from 2000-02 before being replaced on Dec. 26, 2002.

Kruger returned to the college game in March 2004 when he was named head coach at Nevada-Las Vegas (UNLV). In 2006-07, he became just the fifth coach in NCAA history to take four different schools to the NCAA Tournament when he guided the Runnin' Rebels to a 30-win season and the Sweet 16. He joins Jim Harrick as the only head coaches to lead four different schools to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, while he is one of just three coaches to win an NCAA Tournament game with four different schools.

Kruger led UNLV to 161 wins and six postseason appearances in seven years before taking the Oklahoma job in 2010. After guiding the Sooners to a 15-16 record in his first season, he enters the 2012-13 season with a 494-320 (.607) overall record (just six shy of 500 wins) in 26 years to go with 13 NCAA Tournament appearances.

→ Lon Kruger with Steve Henson

Dana Altman

1990-94

68-54

Although his four-year tenure as head coach only produced one NCAA Tournament appearance, Dana Altman's tenure at K-State will be remembered most for his uncanny ability to win close ball games, and for pulling off some of the biggest upsets in school history, including top-ranked Kansas in 1994.

Altman's teams were a remarkable 28-13 in games decided by six points or less, which included a 6-1 mark in one-point games. His 1992-93 club perpetuated a K-State tradition. Picked to finish last in the Big Eight, Altman's Cardiac Cats won 11 games in the final minute, earned the school's first Top 25 ranking in five seasons, finished 19-11, reached the championship game of the Big Eight Tournament and returned K-State to the NCAA Tournament for the 21st time. Altman's peers named him Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1993 and he capped the season by upsetting No. 6 Kansas, 74-67, in the Big Eight Tournament semifinals.

The following season, Altman made it two in a row over Kansas when he upset the top-ranked Jayhawks 68-64 at Allen Fieldhouse. The 1993-94 squad finished the year with a 20-14 record and advanced to the NIT Final Four in New York City.

Altman left K-State in 1994 to become head coach at Creighton, where he spent 16 years building the Bluejays into one of the top mid-major programs in the country. He led the school to 327 wins, which ranks third all-time in Missouri Valley Conference history, to go with three conference regular season and six tournament titles. His teams made 13 consecutive postseason appearances (1999-2010), including seven trips to the NCAA Tournament. He left the school in 2010 to take the job at Oregon.

Tom Asbury

1994-2000

85-88

Tom Asbury continued the rich tradition of Kansas State basketball, guiding the Wildcats to 85 wins from 1994 to 2000 to go with three postseason appearances, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 1996.

Asbury was hired after an impressive six-year stint at Pepperdine, where he guided the Waves to 125-59 (.679) record from 1989-94 and three West Coast Conference regular-season and tournament titles. He also led the Waves to five trips to the postseason, including three NCAA Tournaments (1991, 1992 and 1994). Known for developing tough defensive teams, Asbury guided the Cats to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in three seasons in just his second season at the helm, as his 1995-96 squad advanced to the East Region where they lost to No. 23 New Mexico.

Asbury helped the team to back-to-back trips to the Postseason NIT in 1997-98 and 1998-99. His 1998-99 team led the nation in field goal percentage defense, as it held opponents to just 37.1 percent shooting from the field. That squad also posted the 19th 20-win season in school history and the first in five years.

Upon leaving K-State, Asbury entered private business before returning to bench in 2003 as an assistant coach to Mark Gottfried at Alabama. After a brief retirement, he returned to the sidelines in 2008 for his second stint at Pepperdine, guiding the Waves for two seasons before handing the reins to assistant Marty Wilson in 2010. He retired with a 226-194 (.538) record in 14 seasons.

Jim Wooldridge

2000-06

83-90

When Jim Wooldridge was hired as the 21st head coach in 2000, he brought with him the reputation as a master of building programs. After all, he spent 16 years mastering the art at places as varied as Central Missouri, Texas State and Louisiana Tech.

Hired after a two-year stint with Tim Floyd at the NBA's Chicago Bulls, Wooldridge rebuilt a program that had won just nine games the year before he arrived to double-digit wins each of his six seasons at the helm. His 83 wins ranks seventh on the school's all-time coaching wins list.

After slowing but steadily improving the K-State program, Wooldridge guided the Wildcats to its first winning season in six years in 2004-05 with a 17-12 record. The team started the year with eight wins in a row, which represented the best start by a squad since the 1979-80 team also started 8-0 en route to the school's best non-league record (10-1) since 1993-94. The Wildcats went on to tally six wins over teams that advanced to the postseason. The squad had a number of near misses, as seven of their Big 12 losses came by 10 points or less, including two on last second shots and two in overtime. Despite 17 wins, including its first sweep of Missouri since 1983-84, the team did not advance to the postseason.

Wooldridge again had the Wildcats off to quick start in 2005-06, as the team won seven of its first eight games and ended non-league play with a 9-2 mark. However, his tough luck continued as the Wildcats set a school-record by losing nine games (including seven in Big 12 play) by five points or less. Two of these defeats came in overtime and two came in back-to-back one-point losses to No. 7 Texas and No. 20 Oklahoma.

Wooldridge worked as the Director of Major Gifts at Texas State before returning to the coaching ranks as head coach at UC Riverside in 2007. He enters the 2012-13 season with a 376-324 in 24 seasons as a head coach.

Bob Huggins

2006-07

Although his tenure as K-State's head coach lasted just one season, legend Bob Huggins left an indelible mark upon the program.

Hired as the 22nd head coach on March 23, 2006, Huggins came to K-State as one of the most successful coaches in the country with over 500 career wins and 15 trips to the NCAA Tournament to his credit, including the 1992 Final Four.

Huggins helped guide Kansas State to its first 20-win season and first postseason appearance in eight seasons, as his Wildcats posted a 23-12 record and advanced to the second round of the Mastercard NIT. The 23 wins were the most-ever by a first-year coach in school history and the most since the 1987-88 squad tied the school record with 25 victories.

In addition, Huggins also helped the program to its greatest ever season in the Big 12 era, as the Wildcats earned their first bye in the league tournament with a fourth place finish and a 10-6 record. In the process, K-State snapped nationally-ranked Texas' 22-game home court winning streak (its only home loss of the season), swept the series from rivals Missouri (just second time since 1982), Iowa State and Colorado.

One of only four active Division I coaches with 700 wins, Huggins left K-State in 2007 when he was named head coach at his alma mater, West Virginia. He has led the school to five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the 2010 Final Four. He enters the 2012-13 season with a 709-266 (.727) in 30 seasons as a head coach.

Frank Martin

2007-12

117-54

Just like it had done twice before when it elevated assistants Tex Winter (1953) and Cotton Fitzsimmons (1968) to the head coaching spot, K-State tapped Bob Huggins' top assistant Frank Martin as his replacement in 2007.

The fiery Martin, a native of Miami, Fla., took the baton from Huggins and led the school to arguably its greatest stretch in its long and storied history. He helped the Wildcats to a 117-54 (.684) overall record, including a 50-32 (.610) mark in Big 12 play, and the team advanced to the postseason each of his five seasons, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament (2008, 2010, 2011 and 2012). He is the first head coach in school history to post five consecutive 20-win seasons and the first to guide the team to the postseason in each of his first five years. His 117 wins rank fourth all-time in school history behind Jack Hartman (295), Tex Winter (261) and Jack Gardner (147).

Hired as the 23rd head coach on April 6, 2007, Martin posted one of the most successful inaugural campaigns in school history. He guided the Wildcats to a 21-12 record in 2007-08, including a third-place finish in the Big 12, and broke a 12-year drought in the NCAA Tournament. He became just the second rookie head coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament and the first since Lon Kruger in 1986-87. Under his tutelage, Michael Beasley posted one of the greatest seasons ever by a college freshman, averaging 26.2 points and 12.4 rebounds en route to earning consensus National Freshman of the Year honors and National Player of the Year honors from a number of outlets. Beasley became the first consensus first team All-American since 1959.

After an NIT finish in year two, Martin helped K-State to its first Elite Eight appearance in 22 seasons in 2009-10. Led by All-Americans Denis Clemente and Jacob Pullen, the Wildcats won a school-record 29 games and finished in a tie for second in the rugged Big 12. In all, the team set 23 team and individual school records, including the mark for scoring (2,949). For his effort, Martin was the Phillips 66 Big 12 Coach of the Year and a runner-up for the AP's National Coach of the Year.

Ernie Barrett

wellington, kan.

Ernie Barrett enjoyed a storybook All-American season in 1951. The team finished second in the nation and had the honor of opening one of the most spectacular basketball arenas in America, fabled Ahearn Field House.

Barrett captained the 1950-51 club that posted a 25-4 mark and eventually lost to Kentucky in the NCAA title game. He was suffering from a shoulder injury in that NCAA game, and the Wildcats might have escaped with the championship had the long-range bomber been healthy. That's right, at a school where long-range shooters hold special significance, Barrett may have been the best. His career scoring average was 8.8 per game, although he averaged in double digits in each of his final two seasons.

After playing professionally with the Boston Celtics, and after coaching stints at the university, Barrett served as athletics director at Kansas State from 1969-75 before returning as the Director of Development for the athletics department in 1991. He earned the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1976, which is given to former student-athletes who distinguish themselves later in life. He retired from that position in the spring of 2007 after nearly 60 years in service to the university as a student-athlete, coach and administrator.

Blessed with a glowing personality, he will always be "Mr. K-State."

Bob Boozer

6-8 ■ 220 ■ forward
omaha, neb.

His stats have withstood the test of time. Bob Boozer simply changed the game, proving that beyond all doubt a big, strong man could play with the finesse associated with the more graceful 6-foot-2 types. As long as the game is played at Kansas State, the historian will have to keep Boozer's name on the checklist.

It was common knowledge that when K-State was in trouble, the Wildcats would clear one side and provide a double pick for a 20-foot Boozer jump shot. Even the cheerleaders were aware of the strategy, but nobody stopped it. As one rival head coach said, "I knew he would shoot, my players knew he would shoot, the good Father above knew he was going to shoot, but we couldn't do anything about it."

Boozer, who still holds many school records, helped K-State to a pair of league crowns and NCAA appearances. He was all-conference three times and was named consensus first team All-American in both his junior and senior seasons, becoming the first and only Wildcat to earn the honor twice. He was a member of the 1960 Olympic basketball team and played 11 seasons in the NBA with Chicago, Seattle, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, New York and Los Angeles. He became the second K-State basketball player/coach to enter the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010 when he was enshrined with the record-setting 1960 U.S. Olympic squad. He was a charter member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame in 1990. He passed away at the age of 75 in May 2012.

Rolando Blackman

6-6 ■ 190 ■ guard
brooklyn, n.y.

One of just two players to earn first team All-America honors in consecutive seasons, Rolando Blackman lettered four years for head coach Jack Hartman from 1977-81. He guided the squad to an 80-41 (.661) record, including a pair of postseason appearances and the 1980 Big Eight tournament title.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Blackman is one of just three players (joining fellow jersey retirees Mike Evans and Lon Kruger) in K-State history to be named Big Eight Player of the Year (1980). He is also just one of three players to earn first team all-conference honors three times (joining Bob Boozer and Mike Evans) in the program's history. In addition, Blackman was named the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year on three occasions (1978, 1979, 1980).

The school's No. 3 all-time scorer with 1,844 points, Blackman was selected as a first team All-American as a senior in 1980-81 when he was selected to the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and John R. Wooden Award All-American squads. He was also chosen first team All-America by the Helms Foundation and The Sporting News as a junior in 1979-80.

Blackman still ranks among the Top 10 in 13 season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including second in career double-digit scoring games (100), career field goals made (755) and consecutive starts (102). He also ranks in the career Top 10 in games started (116, 3rd), field goals attempted (1,460, 4th), assists (320, 5th), games played (121, 6th), free throws attempted (466, 7th) and 20-point games (27, 9th). For his career, he averaged 15.2 points on 51.7 percent shooting with 5.0 rebounds and 2.6 assists per game in 121 career games.

One of six Wildcats to be selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, Blackman was originally selected by the Dallas Mavericks with the ninth overall pick in 1981. He went on to play 13 seasons in the NBA — 11 with the Mavericks and two with the New York Knicks. The four-time NBA All-Star played with Dallas from 1981-92 and ranks second on the team's all-time scoring list (16,643). He still appears in the Top 10 of 18 statistical categories in franchise history. Among Maverick leaders, he is second behind Dirk Nowitzki in field goals (6,487), field goals attempted (13,061) and starts (781). He owns several regular season, playoff and rookie records, including consecutive games without fouling out (865). He had his number 22 retired on March 11, 2000.

Blackman has spent 11 seasons with the Mavericks' organization, including the last four as the team's director of basketball development, where he has a range of duties from global scouting, sponsor relations, community representation and player development. He spent the 2005-06 season as an assistant coach to NBA Coach of the Year Avery Johnson and helped the Mavericks to their first NBA Finals and a then franchise-best 60 wins. He has international experience as an assistant coach with the German and Turkish National Teams. In 2010, he helped Turkey earn a silver medal at the FIBA World Championships. The squad won eight contests, including a victory over two-time FIBA World Champion Serbia, before falling to Team USA, 81-64, in the championship game.

Mike Evans

goldsboro, n.c.

One of just two players in school history with 2,000 career points, including the second-most with 2,115 points, Mike Evans was a four-year letterman for head coach Jack Hartman from 1974-78. He guided the Wildcats to 82 wins, three postseason appearances and the 1977 Big Eight regular season and tournament titles.

A native of Goldsboro, N.C., Evans is one of just two players (joining fellow jersey retiree Lon Kruger) in K-State history to be named Big Eight Player of the Year (1977, 1978) twice and one of just three players in school history to receive the honor. He is also one of three players to earn first team all-conference honors three times (joining Rolando Blackman and Bob Boozer) in the program's history. In addition, Evans was named the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year as a freshman in 1975. The Big Eight Conference's eighth all-time leading scorer, he was named to several All-America teams as a senior, including The Associated Press' third team and the Helms Foundation.

Evans still ranks among the Top 10 in 17 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including tops in career field goals made (890) and field goals attempted (1,810), second in career scoring and third in career double-digit scoring games (93) and career 20-point games (40). He is the first and only Wildcat to score 500 or more points in three separate seasons. For his career, he averaged 18.1 points on 49.2 percent shooting with 3.4 rebounds per game in 117 games.

One of six Wildcats to be selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, Evans was selected 21st by the Denver Nuggets in 1978. He went on to play nine seasons in the NBA, including stints with San Antonio (1978-80), Milwaukee (1980-82), Cleveland (1981-82) and Denver (1982-89).

A key player on two Midwest Division Championship teams with the Nuggets, he remains among the Top 5 on both the club's career 3-point field goals made and attempted lists and played on eight playoff teams. In his career, he averaged 7.7 points on 45.2 percent shooting.

After playing six seasons, Evans joined the Denver coaching staff in 1990-91 and remained on the sidelines until midway through the 1994-95 season when he was promoted to Director of Player Personnel. In addition to his scouting duties, he served as an analyst for the team's television broadcasts through 1996-97. Evans took over as interim head coach of the Nuggets on Dec. 26, 2001 and coached the team for the final 56 games of the 2001-02 season, compiling a 18-38 record. After serving stints as a scout in the NBA, he has been a head coach in the National Basketball League of Canada, including Halifax Rainmen (2010-11) and Moncton Miracles (2011-12).

Steve Henson

6-1 ■ 180 ■ guard
mcperson, kan.

Steve Henson was one of a handful of players who embodied the very spirit of Kansas State basketball. A tenacious competitor, he was once called "K-State's stick of dynamite." Yet, in the midst of all that, he was a brilliant student of the game.

The only K-State player to lead the school to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, he broke 21 school records and etched his name among the Top 10 in 41 statistical categories. He still owns school career marks in eight categories, including assists (582), assists per game (4.58), free throw percentage (.900; 361/401), minutes played (4,474), minutes per game (35.2), starts (118), consecutive games played (127) and consecutive starts (118). He also ranks in the Top 5 in seven other categories, including second in 3-point field goals made (240), third in 3-point field goals attempted (537) and assist-turnover ratio (1.98) and fourth in free throws made (361).

One of only 12 players with 80 or more wins in a career, Henson is remembered for shooting free throws like a machine (once making a school-record 48 in a row). He not only holds the career mark for free throw percentage at 90 percent (361-of-401), he owns three of the four single-season records, including connecting on a school-record (nation-leading) 92.5 percent (111-of-120) in 1987-88. Henson also holds the school's single-game mark by making all 17 attempts against Iowa State on Feb. 24, 1988.

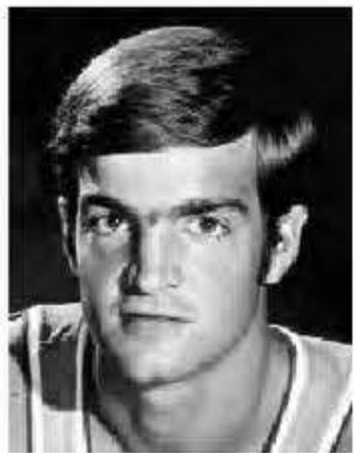

Just the second player in school history to capture the coveted Porky Morgan Most Inspirational Player Award three times, Henson was twice named to the All-Big Eight team, including earning first team honors as a junior in 1988-89. Following his graduation, he was taken in the second round of the NBA draft by the Milwaukee Bucks. He spent six years in the NBA, playing for the Bucks (1990-92), Atlanta Hawks (1992-93), Portland Trailblazers (1994-95) and Detroit Pistons (1997-99).

Following his stint in the NBA, Henson began his coaching career as an assistant to his mentor, Lon Kruger, at Illinois in 1999. He followed Kruger to the NBA's Atlanta Hawks, as first an assistant coach then as an advance scout, from 2000-03. After a one-year stint at South Florida as an assistant coach under Robert McCallum, he was reunited with Kruger at UNLV in 2004. He served seven years as an assistant coach with the Runnin' Rebels before again following Kruger to Oklahoma as an assistant coach in 2011.

Lon Kruger5-11 ■ 165 ■ guard silver lake, kan.

One of only two K-State cagers ever to be named the Big Eight Player of the Year twice, Lon Kruger lettered three years for head coach Jack Hartman from 1971-74. He guided the Wildcats to a 61-22 (.735) record, including a pair of NCAA Elite Eight appearances and two Big Eight regular season titles.

A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Kruger became the first Wildcat ever to be named conference player of the year when he earned the honor in 1973 and the first to earn the award twice when he repeated the distinction in 1974. He remains one of just three players in school history to ever receive the honor and one of just two (joining fellow retiree Mike Evans) to earn the accolade twice. He was also named first team All-Big Eight in 1973 and 1974 and also the conference's Newcomer of the Year in 1972.

Kruger earned Academic All-America and first team Academic All-Big Eight honors in both 1973 and 1974. He is one of only three Wildcat players to earn Academic All-America accolades twice in a career. One of just 24 players in school history to score 1,000 career points, he averaged 13.3 points on 46.8 percent shooting with 2.6 rebounds in 80 games.

Following graduation, Kruger was drafted by both the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and Major League Baseball's St. Louis Cardinals. He played pro basketball in Israel from 1974 to 1975.

Kruger moved into the coaching ranks at Pittsburg (Kan.) State in 1976 before becoming an assistant coach at his alma mater under Hartman in 1977. He helped the Wildcats to a 103-49 (.678) overall record from 1977-82, including three NCAA Tournament appearances and the 1980 Big Eight Tournament Championship. He left to become head coach and athletics director at Texas-Pan American in 1982, guiding the Broncs to a 52-59 record from 1982-86.

Following the retirement of Hartman, Kruger was named head coach at K-State in the spring of 1986. In leading the Wildcats to an 81-46 (.638) overall record, he became the first head coach in school history to guide four consecutive teams to the NCAA Tournament. His regular season conference winning percentage (34-22; .607) ranks fifth all-time among Big Eight Conference coaches, while his victory total ranks sixth among coaches in Kansas State history.

Kruger became the first coach in K-State history to win 20 games in his initial season, guiding the Wildcats to a 20-11 record and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. His best team was the 1987-88 squad, which featured first team All-American Mitch Richmond. The squad tied the school record for wins with its 25-9 mark and advanced all the way to the NCAA Midwest Regional title game in Pontiac, Mich. Following that season, he was named the NABC District Coach of the Year.

During his tenure, Kruger coached one All-American, four first team All-Big Eight selections, two Big Eight Newcomers of the Year and three first team Academic All-Big Eight honorees.

Following his head coaching stint in Manhattan, Kruger moved on to Florida for six seasons (1990-96) where he led the Gators to four postseason appearances, including the 1994 Final Four. He followed with a four-year stint at Illinois (1996-2000), guiding the Fighting Illini to three NCAA Tournament appearances and the 1997-98 Big Ten co-championship.

Kruger left Illinois in May 2000 to take over as head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks, where he compiled a 69-122 record in two and half years. After a stint as an assistant with the New York Knicks, he returned to the college game in March 2004 when he was named head coach at Nevada-Las Vegas (UNLV).

During his seven-year stint with the Runnin' Rebels, Kruger posted 161 wins and six postseason trips. In 2006-07, he became just the fifth coach in NCAA history to take four schools to the NCAA Tournament when he guided the squad to the Sweet 16. He joins Jim Harrick as the only head coaches to lead four different schools to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, while he is one of just three coaches to win a tournament game with four schools. He became coach at Oklahoma in April 2011 and enters the 2012-13 season with a 494-320 (.607) record in 26 years to go with 13 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Ed Nealy6-7 ■ 230 ■ forward bonner springs, kan.

Ed Nealy was the workhorse frontliner who every basketball coach dreams about, but with an added degree of basketball savvy. While he was at K-State, the Wildcats rarely lost the rebounding wars. In fact, they rarely lost - period. In his four-year career for head coach Jack Hartman, K-State totaled 85 wins, which ties him with Tyrone Adams as the eighth-most by a player in school history.

In addition, Nealy led the Wildcats to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the West Region Finals in 1981, and the 1980 Big Eight Conference Tournament championship.

Much of that success was due directly to the efforts of Nealy, who finished his K-State career with 1,069 rebounds - tops in school history. He stands as the third all-time career rebounder in Big Eight history and the second all-time career rebounder in Big Eight Tournament history (93). He is 10th on the Wildcats' career scoring list with 1,304 points. In fact, he is the only player in school history to total 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career. He ranks first in career double-digit rebounding games (45) and second in career double-doubles (36), while he is the only player to lead the team in rebounding four consecutive seasons.

Those numbers also paid off in postseason laurels. Following a stellar senior campaign, Nealy capped off two previous All-Big Eight selections by earning a spot on The Associated Press honorable mention All-America squad in 1982. He was named the conference's Newcomer of the Year in 1979.

Nealy's successes were hardly limited to the basketball court, though. He was twice named an Academic All-American in 1981 and 1982, along with teammate Tim Jankovich, while he was selected to the Big Eight Conference's All-Academic team three times, all while majoring in engineering technology.

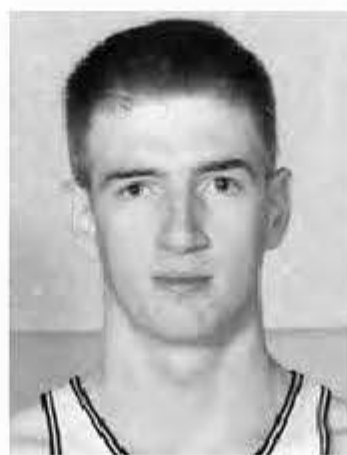

Nealy played 10 seasons in the NBA, including stints with the Kansas City (1982-85), San Antonio (1986-88), Chicago (1988-89; 1989-90; 1992-93), Phoenix (1988-89; 1990-92) and Golden State (1992-93). He was a member of the Chicago Bulls' NBA Championship teams in 1991 and 1993. He scored 1,451 points in his NBA career on 49.8 percent shooting with 1,799 rebounds.

Jack Parr6-9 ■ 212 ■ center richmond, va.

Jack Parr was not what you would call a picture player early in his career, but he was endowed with an intensity and inner drive that spearheaded him to All-America stature. Rugged and strong, he would literally sweep the boards. His assortment of shots included a hook and a soft "face the basket" jumper.

A three-year letterman for head coach Tex Winter, Parr helped the Wildcats to a 54-21 overall record from 1955-58 to go with two Big Seven Conference championships and a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament. In his final year, the squad posted a 22-5 record and advanced to the school's second Final Four in Louisville, Ky. The Wildcats finished in the top 5 in both polls.

His most thrilling game came against Kansas in 1958 when Parr made perhaps his greatest defensive play. With the final seconds ticking away, the Jayhawks went to Wilt Chamberlain under the basket for an assumed easy lay-in. Parr went straight up and batted the ball away, enabling K-State to take a thrilling 79-75 win.

Parr was twice named an All-American in his distinguished career, earning second team honors from the Helms Foundation and Converse Yearbook as a junior in 1957 and third team accolades as a senior in 1958 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He was also an All-Big Seven Conference selection three consecutive seasons from 1956 to 1958.

Parr still ranks among the top-10 in several K-State statistic categories, including first in both career (12.7 rpg.) and single-season rebounds per game (14.5 rpg.). He also holds both the sophomore and junior records for rebounding average, while he has the mark for most total rebounds by a sophomore. He is the first and only Wildcat to post four 20-point and 20-rebound games in his career, while only three other players (Michael Beasley, Bob Boozer and Nick Pino) have done it more than once. He ranks second in career (889) and single-season rebounds (340), while his 26 rebounds against Drake on Dec. 8, 1956 still place second all-time on the single-game chart. In addition, he ranks 13th on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,184 points.

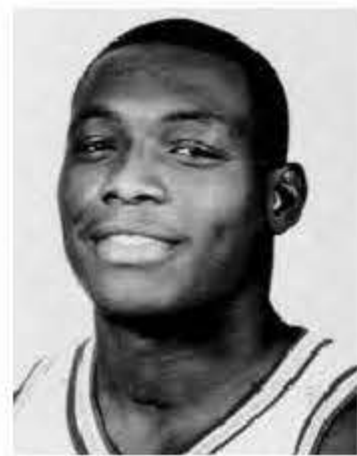

Parr played one season professionally with the Cincinnati Royals before turning to private business and becoming a Big Eight basketball official. He was elected to the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame on Sept. 3, 2004, while he was in the first class (along with Ernie Barrett and teammate Bob Boozer) to have his jersey retired by K-State on Feb. 5, 2005.

fort lauderdale, fla.

One of the most recognizable players in school history, Mitch Richmond was a two-year letterman for head coach Lon Kruger from 1986-88. He helped guide the Wildcats to a 45-20 (.692) record, including two NCAA Tournament appearances and a trip to the 1988 NCAA Midwest Regional Final. He also transferred to K-State after a distinguished junior college career at Mobley (Mo.) Community College from 1984-86.

The 6-foot-5 native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Richmond posted perhaps the greatest two-year playing career in school history. He is one of 24 players in school history to top 1,000 points, while he ranks ninth on the all-time scoring list with 1,327 points and fourth in career scoring average (20.7 ppg.). His 1,327 points are the most by a player in a two-year career, while his 786 points as a junior in 1987-88 are the second-most in a single-season at K-State. He still ranks among the top 10 in 21 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history.

He was a member of Kansas State's All-Century Basketball Team announced on March 1, 2003 and was a 1998 inductee into the K-State Sports Hall of Fame. His jersey was retired in 2009.

As a senior, Richmond led the Wildcats to a then school-record tying 25 wins, a second-place finish in the Big Eight and a rousing trip through the NCAA Tournament that led K-State to an appearance in the Elite Eight. He broke the then single-season scoring mark by pouring in 786 points. He averaged 22.6 points on 51.4 percent shooting in 1987-88 with 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists en route to earning second team All-America honors from UPI, Basketball Weekly, The Sporting News and U.S. Basketball Writers of America (USBWA). He was also named first team All-Big Eight and first team All-District by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

A highly-regarded junior college player, Richmond was the second-leading scorer in 1986-87, guiding the 'Cats to their first 20-win season and NCAA Tournament appearance in five years. He averaged 18.6 points on 44.7 percent shooting with 5.7 rebounds and 2.7 assists en route to earning recognition to both UPI's All-Junior College team and the All-Big Eight second team.

In all, Richmond still ranks in the top 10 in four career categories, including fourth in 20-point games (34), fifth in 30-point games (seven), sixth in minutes played (33.8 mpg.) and ninth in field goals made (465). He scored a career-high 41 points vs. Oklahoma on Feb. 13, 1988, which stands as the eighth-most points in school history, including the fifth-highest in a league game.

Following graduation, Richmond won a spot on the 1988 U.S. Olympic Basketball Team and was a first-round draft pick (fifth overall selection) by the Golden State Warriors. He became one of the premier shooting guards in the NBA during his 14-year career, appearing in six NBA All-Star games, and being named the most valuable player of the 1995 NBA All-Star game. He also earned second team All-NBA honors in 1994, 1995 and 1997 and third team honors in 1996 and 1998 with the Sacramento Kings. He is one of just 10 players in NBA history to average 21.0 or more points in each of his first 10 seasons, joining the likes of Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Allen Iverson, Michael Jordan, Shaquille O'Neal and Oscar Robertson.

Richmond was an immediate hit with Golden State, teaming with Chris Mullin and Tim Hardaway to form "Run TMC" (TMC for Tim, Mitch and Chris), a high-scoring trio that gave the Warriors the most potent offense from 1988-91. He was named the NBA's Rookie of the Year in 1989 after averaging 22.0 points per game. He later played seven seasons with the Kings, becoming the first player in the Sacramento era to have his jersey retired (No. 2) on Dec. 5, 2003. He scored over 20,000 points in his NBA career on 45.5 percent shooting, including 39 percent from 3-point range, with 3,801 rebounds, 3,398 assists, 1,211 steals and 254 blocks in 976 career games. He is just the second Wildcat (Rolando Blackman) to have his jersey retired by a NBA team.

Richmond played on two Olympic teams for the United States, winning the bronze medal at the 1988 Seoul Olympics and the gold medal at the 1996 Barcelona Olympics playing for the "Dream Team." He retired following his 14th season in the NBA after helping the Los Angeles Lakers win their third straight NBA title in 2002.

One of the school's most potent long-range shooters, Chuckie Williams was a four-year letterman for head coach Jack Hartman from 1972-76. He helped lead the Wildcats to an 82-30 (.732) overall record, including two NCAA Elite Eight appearances and the 1973 Big Eight regular season title.

After averaging just 5.3 points as a sophomore, Williams made one of the biggest scoring jumps in school history the following season as he paced the Wildcats in scoring at 22.1 points per game en route to guiding K-State to the 1975 Elite Eight. He was named first team

All-Big Eight and a Helms Foundation All-American. In 1975-76, he guided the squad to its second straight 20-win season en route to earning second team All-America honors from The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and Basketball Weekly. He also repeated his first team All-Big Eight honors as well as Helms All-America accolade.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Williams still ranks among the school's top 10 in 24 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including tops in field goals made (22) and attempted (42) in a game and season field goal attempts (594). He ranks eighth on the all-time scoring chart with 1,364 points.

Williams held the school single-game scoring mark for 19 years with 47 points against Holy Cross in 1975 before Askia Jones broke the mark with 62 vs. Fresno State on March 24, 1994. He shared the record for most points (35) in an NCAA Tournament game (with Steve Henson) before Jacob Pullen broke that mark in 2011. For his career, Williams averaged 16.2 points on 47.0 percent shooting.

Williams became just the second player in school history to be selected in the first round of the NBA Draft when he was picked 15th by the Cleveland Cavaliers in 1976.

Kansas State began the process of retiring player jerseys in 2005 with its inaugural class of Ernie Barrett, Bob Boozer and Jack Parr. Although the jersey is retired, the player's number is still available for use by future players. Below are the biographies of the 10 jersey retirees.

Ernie Barrett

6-3 ■ 175 ■ guard
wellington, kan.

Retired 2005

Affectionately known as "Mr. K-State," Ernie Barrett enjoyed a storybook senior season in 1950-51, as he led the Wildcats to the NCAA Championship game, earned first team All-America honors from Helms, The Sporting News and International News Service and played on the team that opened historic Ahearn Field House.

A 6-foot-3 shooting guard from Wellington, Kan., Barrett was the driving force behind K-State's only team to reach the NCAA title game. He led the Wildcats to the 1951 Big Seven title with an 11-1 conference mark and a 25-4 overall mark. On their way to the NCAA Championship game, Barrett and his teammates defeated No. 12 Arizona, No. 11 BYU and No. 24 Oklahoma A&M (State). He averaged 10.0 and 10.3 points per game as a junior and senior, respectively.

After a two-year playing career for Red Auerbach and the Boston Celtics, Barrett returned to K-State as an assistant basketball coach, beginning a long association with the athletics department, which included a term as athletics director from 1969-75. He retired from his position of the Director of Development in the spring of 2007 after nearly 60 years in service to the university as a student-athlete, coach and administrator.

Dick Knostman

6-6 ■ 205 ■ center
wellington, kan.

Retired 2007

Twice selected an All-American, Dick Knostman was a three-year letterman for head coach Jack Gardner from 1950-53. He helped guide the Wildcats to a 61-13 (.824) record, including three consecutive final top-10 finishes and runner-up finish at the 1951 NCAA Final Four.

The 6-foot-6 native of Wamego, Kan., Knostman is one of just 12 players in Kansas State history to be named a first team All-American. He earned his recognition from the Helms Foundation, Look magazine and the Newspaper Enterprises Association as a senior in 1953 after averaging 22.7 points in helping the 'Cats to a 17-4 overall record and a final ranking of No. 9 in the UPI and No. 12 in the AP polls. He first earned All-America accolades as a junior when he averaged 16.3 points in guiding K-State to a final ranking of No. 3 in the AP and No. 6 in UPI polls. He still ranks among the top 5 in 17 school single-game, season and/or career statistical categories.

Knostman became the second Kansas State player ever drafted in 1953 when he was selected by the Syracuse Nationals with their second pick.

Jack Parr

Known for his hook shot and a soft "face the basket" jumper, Jack Parr was a three-year letterman for the Wildcats from 1955-58 for coach Tex Winter. He helped guide the team to two conference titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 1958 Final Four.

A member of the 10-player All-Century Team, Parr still holds the top-2 single-season rebounding averages in school history, while his 12.7 career average is the highest all-time by a Wildcat. The 6-foot-9 center burst onto the scene in 1955-56 by averaging 17.4 points and 13.6 rebounds per game to help K-State win the Big Seven title and reach the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Tournament. As a junior, he dominated the Big Eight with 20.6 points and his school-record 14.5 rebounds to earn All-America honors for the second time and help the Wildcats to the Final Four. He was named all-conference all three years and finished his career with averages of 16.9 points and 12.7 rebounds.

Parr played one season professionally with the Cincinnati Royals before turning to private business and becoming a Big Eight official.

Bob Boozer

6-8 ■ 220 ■ forward
omaha, neb.

Retired 2005

Considered to be Kansas State's most decorated player, Bob Boozer was the landslide leading vote-getter for the school's All-Century Basketball Team in 2003. A first team All-American in both 1957-58 and 1958-59, he averaged a double-double for his 77-game career with 21.9 points on 44 percent shooting with 10.7 rebounds per game. He is one of only two players (Willie Murrell) to average 20 points and 10 rebounds in a career. In addition to his All-America honors, he is one of only a handful of players to earn first team all-conference honors three times.

A 6-foot-8 forward from Omaha, Neb., Boozer averaged a then school-record 25.6 points per game as a senior in 1958-59 en route to leading the school to the Big Eight regular season title with a perfect 14-0 mark and the No. 1 ranking in the final regular season poll. The mark stood for nearly 50 years until Michael Beasley, who also wore No. 30 on his jersey, averaged 26.2 points in 2007-08. Boozer remains the only player in school history to be a two-time consensus first team All-American, as he earned the honor as a junior in 1958 and as a senior in 1959.

Although he played nearly 50 years ago, Boozer still ranks among numerous Top 10 lists for single-game, single-season and career records at K-State, including first in career 20-point games (45), second in career scoring average (21.9 ppg.), career 30-point games (10) and fourth in career points scored (1,685) and rebounds (824). He still owns the all-time marks for free throws made (529) and attempted (702), while his 23 makes (on 26 attempts) against Purdue on Dec. 1, 1958 remains No. 1 on the chart for most free throws made in a game.

The first Wildcat to play on an Olympic team, Boozer was part of the gold-medal winning 1960 U.S. Olympic team that was enshrined into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010. Touted as the greatest basketball team in Olympic history, the 1960 U.S. squad went a perfect 8-0 in winning gold in Rome, averaging 101.9 points a game and posting an average margin of victory of 42.4 points. Boozer averaged 6.8 points per game in playing in all eight games. Coached by Pete Newell, 10 members of the 12-man roster went on to play in the NBA.

Boozer was the No. 1 pick of the 1959 NBA Draft by the Cincinnati Royals. He went on to play 11 seasons in the NBA for six different teams, including a four-year stint for the Royals from 1960-63 and again from 1963-64. He led the Milwaukee Bucks to the 1971 NBA title in his final season. Twice he averaged better than 20 points per game for the Chicago Bulls in 1967-68 and 1968-69. He scored 12,964 points (14.8 ppg.) on 46.2 percent shooting during his NBA career with 7,119 rebounds and 1,237 assists in 874 games.

Willie Murrell

Retired 2009

One of just 11 players to earn first team All-America honors, Willie Murrell was a two-year letterman for head coach Tex Winter from 1962-64. He guided the Wildcats to a 38-16 record, including a pair of Big Eight titles and a Final Four appearance in 1964. He transferred to K-State after two years at Eastern Oklahoma A&M (1960-62).

Murrell is one of just six players in school history to average a double-double for his career and one of just two (along with Bob Boozer) to average 20 points and 10 rebounds, averaging 20.6 points and 10.7 rebounds in 54 career games. He was twice named an All-American during his record-setting senior season in 1964 and was also a two-time first team All-Big Eight selection. His career averages in both scoring and rebounding still rank among the top-5 in school history, including third in rebounding (10.7 rpg.) and fifth in scoring (20.6 ppg.).

Murrell averaged 25.3 points during the Wildcats' run through the 1964 NCAA Tournament, including a 29-point, 13-rebound effort in the national semifinals against UCLA on March 20, en route to earning recognition to the All-Midwest Regional Tournament team and the All-Final Four squad. He is the only player to ever record a double-double in a Final Four game and the only one ever named to an All-Final Four team. His 29 points against the Bruins are the most by a Wildcat in a Final Four game in school history.

Murrell still ranks among the top 10 in 20 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history. He is one of just five players to average 20 points in a career, while he is one of just 11 players to score 1,000 points and collect 500 rebounds in a career. He ranks 14th on the all-time scoring list with 1,112 points.

Murrell was selected in the fourth round of the 1964 NBA Draft by the St. Louis Bombers. He went on to play three seasons of professional basketball, including stints with the ABA's Denver Nuggets (1967-68) and Miami Floridians (1968-70).

Lon Kruger

One of only two K-State players ever to be named the Big Eight Player of the Year twice, Lon Kruger was a three-year letterman for Jack Hartman from 1971-74, where he helped the Wildcats to a pair of NCAA Elite Eight appearances and two Big Eight regular season titles.

A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Kruger became the first Wildcat ever to be named conference player of the year when he earned the honor in 1973 and the first to earn the award twice when he repeated the distinction in 1974. He remains one of just three players in school history to ever receive the honor and one of just two (joining fellow retiree Mike Evans) to earn the accolade twice.

Kruger was named first team All-Big Eight in both 1973 and 1974 and also the Newcomer of the Year in 1972.

Kruger earned Academic All-America and first team Academic All-Big Eight honors as a junior and senior and remains as one of only three players to have earned Academic All-America accolades twice. One of 24 players in school history to score 1,000 career points, he averaged 13.3 points on 46.8 percent shooting with 2.6 rebounds in 80 career games. He was drafted by both the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and MLB's St. Louis Cardinals before playing professional basketball in Israel from 1974-75.

Kruger has gone on to a distinguished coaching career in college ranks, which has included over 450 wins and 13 NCAA Tournament appearances in 26 years as a head coach at Texas-Pan American (1982-86), Kansas State (1986-90), Florida (1990-96), Illinois (1996-2000), UNLV (2004-11) and Oklahoma (2011-present). He is one of only two head coaches in NCAA history to lead four different schools to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, while he is one of three to win a NCAA Tournament game with four different schools. He became the first head coach in K-State history to win 20 games in his initial season (1986-87) and remains the only one to guide the school to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

One of just two players in school history with 2,000 career points, including the second-most with 2,115 points, Mike Evans was a four-year letterman for head coach Jack Hartman from 1974-78. He guided the Wildcats to an 82 wins, three postseason appearances and the 1977 Big Eight regular season and tournament titles.

A native of Goldsboro, N.C., Evans is one of two players (along with fellow retiree Lon Kruger) in K-State history to be named Big Eight Player of the Year (1977, 1978) twice and one of just three players to receive the honor. He is also one of three players to earn first team all-league honors three times. He was named to several All-America teams as a senior in 1977-78, including The Associated Press third team and the Helms Foundation in 1978.

Evans still ranks among the top 10 in 17 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history, including tops in career field goals made (890) and career field goals attempted (1,810), second in career scoring, third in career double-digit scoring games (93) and career 20-point games (40). He is the first and only Wildcat to score 500 or more points in three separate seasons. For his career, he averaged 18.1 points on 49.2 percent shooting with 3.4 rebounds in 117 games.

One of six Wildcats to be selected in the first round of the NBA draft, Evans was selected 21st by the Denver Nuggets in 1978. He went on to play nine seasons in the NBA before retiring in 1989, including stint with San Antonio (1978-80), Milwaukee (1980-82), Cleveland (1981-82) and Denver (1982-89).

Rolando Blackman

brooklyn, n.y.

One of just two players to earn first team All-America honors in consecutive seasons, Rolando Blackman was a four-year letterman for Jack Hartman from 1977-81. He guided the Wildcats to 80 wins, including two postseason appearances and the 1980 Big Eight Tournament title.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Blackman is one of just three players (joining fellow jersey retirees Mike Evans and Lon Kruger) in K-State history to be named Big Eight Player of the Year (1980). He is also just one of just three players to earn first team all-conference honors three times in a career. In addition, he was named the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year on three occasions (1978, 1979, 1980).

The school's second all-time leading scorer with 1,844 points, Blackman was selected as a first team All-American a senior in 1980-81 when he was named to the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and John R. Wooden Award All-American teams. He was also chosen first team All-America by the Helms Foundation and The Sporting News as a junior in 1979-80. He ranks among the Top 10 in 13 season and/or career statistical categories at K-State, including second in career double-digit scoring games (100), career field goals made (755) and consecutive games started (102). He averaged 15.2 points on 51.7 percent shooting in 121 career games.

One of six Wildcats to be selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, Blackman played 13 seasons in the league, including 11 with the Dallas Mavericks. His number 22 jersey was retired by the Mavericks on March 11, 2000.

Mitch Richmond

6-5 ■ 220 ■ forward
fort lauderdale, fla.

One of the most recognizable players in school history, Mitch Richmond was a two-year letterman for head coach Lon Kruger from 1986-88. He helped guide the Wildcats to 45 wins, two NCAA Tournament appearances and a trip to the 1988 NCAA Midwest Regional Final.

The 6-foot-5 native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Richmond assembled perhaps the greatest two-year playing career in school history. He is one of just 24 players in school history to top 1,000 points, while he ranks ninth on the all-time scoring list with 1,327 points and fourth in career scoring average (20.7 ppg.). His 1,327 points are the most by a player in a two-year career, while his 786 points as a junior in 1987-88 are the second-most in a single-season at K-State. He still ranks among the top 10 in 21 single-game, season and/or career statistical categories in school history.

Richmond was a member of K-State's All-Century Basketball Team announced on March 1, 2003 and was a 1998 inductee into the K-State Sports Hall of Fame. His jersey was retired in 2009.

As a senior, Richmond led the Wildcats to a then school-record tying 25 wins, a second-place finish in the Big Eight and a rousing trip through the NCAA Tournament that led K-State to an appearance in the Elite Eight. He broke the then single-season scoring mark by pouring in 786 points. He averaged 22.6 points on 51.4 percent shooting in 1987-88 with 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists en route to earning second team All-America honors from UPI, Basketball Weekly, The Sporting News and U.S. Basketball Writers of America (USBWA).

In all, Richmond still ranks in the top 10 in four career categories, including fourth in 20-point games (34), fifth in 30-point games (seven), sixth in minutes played (33.8 mpg.) and ninth in field goals made (465). He scored a career-high 41 points against Oklahoma on Feb. 13, 1988, which stands as the eighth-most points in school history, including the fifth-highest in a league game.

Following graduation, Richmond won a spot on the 1988 U.S. Olympic Basketball Team and was a first-round draft pick (fifth overall selection) by the Golden State Warriors. He became one of the premier shooting guards in the NBA during his 14-year career, becoming one of just 10 players in NBA history to average 21.0 or more points in each of his first 10 seasons. He was also a six-time NBA All-Star and five times an All-NBA selection.

Bramlage Coliseum

Record vs. Opponents (285-96; .746)

Now in its 25th season of hosting Wildcat men's basketball, the Fred Bramlage Coliseum has carved its own niche in Kansas State's colorful history of basketball residence.

In keeping with the tradition established by Nichols Gymnasium (1910-50) and Ahearn Field House (1950-88), Bramlage Coliseum has given the team a deafening, winning environment.

Kansas State has posted a 285-96 (.746) all-time mark in its current home, including an emotional 81-77 win over Purdue (and alumnus Gene Keady and current head coach Bruce Weber) in the facility's debut on Nov. 26, 1988. The 285 victories are the second-most at a home venue for the Wildcats, trailing just the 378 wins during the 38-year reign of Ahearn Field House.

K-State tallied its highest winning percentage (16-1; .941) in Bramlage Coliseum history in 2010-11, while the Wildcats tied the 2008-09 squad for the most wins in a single season (16). The team has collected a 85-16 (.842) record at home over the past six seasons, including a 35-14 (.714) mark in Big 12 play. The 85 wins rank fifth among all Big 12 schools in that span, while the 35 conference victories are only surpassed by Kansas and Texas. In all, the program has earned double-digit victories in 19 of its 24 seasons in the arena, including a current streak of 11 consecutive seasons. The squad has an 145-39 record at home, including a 88-7 mark in non-conference action, since the 2001-02 season for an average of just over 13 home wins (13.2) per season.

Victories over ranked teams have also been a regular occurrence at Bramlage Coliseum since its opening with 22 ranked foes falling to Kansas State, including 11 Top 10 opponents. Three No. 1 teams have been defeated during the arena's history, including No. 1 Missouri in 1990, No. 1 Texas in 2010 and No. 1 Kansas in 2011.

Among the Top 10 teams to fall on the Bramlage hardwood include No. 7 Missouri in 1988-89, No. 1 Missouri and No. 3 Oklahoma in 1989-90, No. 6 Missouri in 1991-92, No. 9 Oklahoma State in 2001-02, No. 10 Texas in 2003-04, No. 2 Kansas and No. 10 Texas A&M in 2007-08, No. 1 Texas in 2009-10, No. 1 Kansas in 2010-11 and No. 7 Missouri in 2011-12. Just five years ago in 2007-08, the Wildcats became just the second team in school history to record two Top 10 home wins, including the first in the building over eventual NCAA champion Kansas.

In just 24 seasons, Bramlage Coliseum has played host to some of the biggest crowds in the history of K-State basketball, a program that is accustomed to playing in front of big crowds.

In 2011-12, the Wildcats once again ranked among best in the country in home attendance, placing among the Top 35 for the fifth time in the last six seasons. The squad attracted 12,783 fans per game to 16 home games to rank 25th nationally and third in the Big 12. It was K-State's highest attendance ranking since also placing 25th in 2007-08 with an average of 12,529 fans per game. The school also placed 26th in both 2006-07 (12,301) and 2010-11 (12,652), while it was 31st in 2009-10 (11,884). The 12,783 average in 2011-12 ranks second in school history behind the 12,978 in the inaugural season of Bramlage Coliseum in 1988-89. Four of the school's top-5 attendance averages have come in the last six years.

Overall, K-State drew a total of 204,527 fans to its 16 home games in 2011-12, which marked the fifth time in six seasons that the school has drawn 200,000 or more fans at home. The total figure included the Dec. 17, 2011 game against Alabama, which drew 16,685 fans for the Hy-Vee Wildcat Classic at the Sprint Center in Kansas City, since the department controlled all the ticket and event operations. The 204,527 attendance total is fourth-best in school history. Although not included in the home attendance, the squad also played before a capacity-crowd of 15,004 at Wichita's INTRUST Bank Arena vs. West Virginia on Dec. 8, 2011.

K-State is one of just 14 schools in the nation to draw over 12,000 in paid attendance for every regular season home game over the last two seasons, which includes Kentucky, Syracuse, Louisville, North Carolina, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Kansas, Illinois, Michigan State, New Mexico, Vanderbilt and Creighton. Bramlage Coliseum has been sold out each of the past two seasons.

While carrying on the tradition of Ahearn Field House, Bramlage Coliseum has also pointed K-State in a new direction, as the Wildcats now play in one of the most modern facilities in the nation.

A multi-million dollar renovation greeted fans in 2007, as the department offered premium luxury seating for the first time ever with the addition of loge boxes to the arena. The 4, 6 and 8-seat luxury suite configurations are appointed with granite countertops, cherry wood cabinetry for food and drink storage, refrigerator, carpet, comfortable seating and one television monitor for every two seats in the box. In 2006-07, the school added 25 courtside seats to the east side of the court and that number increased to 29 in 2007-08. The renovations reduced capacity to 12,528.

Adding to the cornerstone of Bramlage Coliseum is the new $18 million Basketball Training Facility, which is located to the east of the building and includes a new practice gym, lockerrooms and coaching office for the men's and women's basketball teams, along with new state-of-the-art weight training and sports medicine areas. The new training facility opened its doors to the teams in early August 2012.

The first major renovation of the arena occurred prior to the 2000-01 season, as $2.5 million (in cooperation with Action Sports Media) in improvements were made to both the seating area and concourse to make the building more fan-friendly. Inside the arena, fans now enjoy a four-sided scoreboard above the floor, complete with video panels on all four sides, as well as a new sound system and three-sided shot clocks and matrix boards. Fans are welcomed by four trophy cases on the concourse, which highlight historical moments in K-State Athletics, as well as plaques depicting outstanding teams, players and moments.

The coliseum is named for the late 1935 K-State graduate and Junction City (Kan.) businessman Fred Bramlage, who made the principle contribution. The building was constructed at a cost of $17.2 million and was built in a 22-month period beginning in October 1986. Financial backing came from a number of areas, including $7 million from the student body and a matching figure from alumni. Unlike Ahearn Field House, state monies were not used for Bramlage Coliseum.

Mr. Bramlage was on hand on Oct. 18, 1986, to break ground on the new facility. Other dignitaries included then-Governor John Carlin and then university president Jon Wefald.

"What we begin here will add to the glory and reputation of Kansas State," said Bramlage. "My hope is that this building will inspire people to come together around teams in the spirit of cooperation."

Mild winters helped construction crews finish the project nearly two months ahead of schedule. Most of the athletics offices were moved from Ahearn Field House to Bramlage Coliseum in September 1988.

Those offices now housed in Bramlage Coliseum include those of the athletics director and most of the administrative staff, including the offices for the Ahearn Fund, business, communications, compliance, Fan Experience and Sales, video and K-State Sports Properties, along with the men's basketball office. A gameday Locker rooms for the men's and women's teams are located at ground level.

Ahearn Field House

Ahearn Field House meant different things to different people. To K-Staters, it meant great atmosphere, roaring crowds and Wildcat victories. To opponents, it meant intimidation, deafening noise and likely defeat.

Then Indiana head coach Bob Knight paid the facility one of its biggest compliments by saluting the fans. The Hoosier mentor said, "This has to be the greatest basketball crowd in America."

Over four and half million fans witnessed Ahearn's long and fruitful tenure and saw the Wildcats amass an incredible record of 378-86 (.815) in 38 seasons. Included in those totals are six undefeated seasons - 1951-52 (11-0); 1958-59 (11-0); 1961-62 (10-0); 1969-70 (11-0); 1972-73 (12-0); 1974-75 (12-0) - and an arena-best 16 wins in 1981-82 under head coach Jack Hartman.

Kansas State averaged almost 10,000 fans for its 464 games in Ahearn Field House and drew an arena record 12,166 fans during the 1968-69 season. In fact, the Wildcats drew 11,000 or more fans 16 times in the history of Ahearn Field House, including nine straight seasons from 1961-

62 to 1969-70. The 378 wins are also the most at a home venue.

SOUVENIR PROGRAM
Opening of the Kansas State College Field House

Saturday, December 9, 1950
Kansas State vs. Utah State in the Kansas State College Stadium
— 25c —

Ahearn's beginning officially started April 16, 1940, with a student rally although athletic director Mike Ahearn had mentioned the need for a new gymnasium several years earlier. The rally took place a full 10 years before the first game was played at the new field house.

The student rally kicked off an extended period of student demonstrations, petitions and pleading with state legislators for a new athletics facility which would be home to numerous events. However, at the heart of the matter, was basketball seating, or the lack of it.

As head coach Jack Gardner's Wildcat teams began to take off, so did the demand for tickets in the 2,800-seat Nichols Gymnasium, which had been home to the team for 30 years. The college's enrollment alone was almost twice the seating capacity of Nichols. Students began their field house campaign, which soon grew to be a statewide effort, with the slogan "Let's have a Crackerjack Field House instead of a Crackerbox Coliseum."

After countless petitions and rallies, the students took things a step further in January 1941. With over 100 legislators attending the K-State/Kansas basketball game as guests of the university, a body fell from the rafters of Nichols where many of the students were forced to sit. Although the body was made of straw and covered with ketchup rather than blood, the point was well taken.

"The way those student sat up on those rafters, it's really a wonder that somebody wasn't injured or killed," said Dev Nelson, the "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1954-79. "When the dummy fell from the rafters, it startled a lot of people."

In time, the long endeavors of the K-State students and supporters paid off with a new $2 million facility, which was the fifth largest in the country at its construction and the largest in the state of Kansas with a seating capacity of 13,000.

The structure opened on Dec. 9, 1950, when K-State defeated Utah State, 66-56 before a sellout crowd. Later that same season, on Jan. 31, 1951, an Ahearn Field House record crowd of 14,028 crammed in to see the Wildcats crush No. 4 Long Island, 85-65.

The last game in the building took place on March 5, 1988, when K-State defeated Missouri, 92-82, in front of 11,850. The last official seating capacity listed for the facility was 11,220 (over the years, seating was reduced to conform to fire codes).

Today, Ahearn Field House is one of America's showplace indoor facilities. It houses a Rekortan track for use by Kansas State's acclaimed men's and women's indoor track and field teams, three tennis courts for the women's tennis team and the home court of the 2011 Sweet 16 Wildcat women's volleyball squad. The volleyball team has ranked among the top 30 programs in the nation for home attendance in seven of the last 10 seasons, placing 24th nationally with more than 1,500 fans per contest.

■ Nearly 5 million (4,851,636) watched games at legendary Ahearn Field House, an average of 10,411 over nearly 500 games from 1950-88.

→ Action at Nichols Gym

Nichols Gym

K-State's basketball tradition was born in Nichols Gymnasium located now on the grounds of Nichols Hall on the university campus. The gym achieved its fame, however, more for spawning the movement to build Ahearn Field House and for an arsonist's fire which gutted the structure on Dec. 13, 1968.

Nichols was named after Ernest Nichols, the university's fifth president from 1899-1909. Work on the facility began in February 1910, and was completed in June of that same year at a cost of $84,190 (the money was appropriated from state funds).

The crowds were packed into the 2,800-seat Nichols Gym, where the students often sat in the rafters to watch the game.

The Wildcats defeated Bethany in the opener by a 40-20 count, then lost to Missouri, 58-55, in the final game on March 3, 1950.

Over the years, Kansas State won 227 games in the building (with a .627 winning percentage), including four seasons - 1916-17 (10-0); 1918-19 (10-0), 1919-20 (10-2) and 1947-48 (10-1) - of 10 victories. The last four teams compiled an impressive 36-5 (.878) record at Nichols Gym, including a 10-1 mark in 1947-48.

Fans at Nichols Gym saw some of the early milestones of the Kansas State program, including its first three All-Americans F. I. Reynolds (1917), Frank Groves (1937) and Rick Harman (1950) as well as early head coaches Mike Ahearn, Zora G. Clevenger (who would later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame) and Jack Gardner (who later would be inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame).

The school's first two conference championship teams - the Missouri Valley Conference champions in 1917 (15-2) and 1919 (17-2) - both called Nichols Gym home with each of the squads going 10-0 in the building. The school's first Final Four team - 1947-48 - also competed in the arena and posted a 10-1 mark, while its last team won the Big Seven Conference crown in 1949-50.

The seating capacity of Nichols was just 2,800 and by the time it closed, the crowds were easily overflowing. The student body was divided into two groups, and the groups alternated in attendance at every other game. People actually sat on the rafters and practice goals to see the games (see photo). That overcrowding problem eventually led to the construction of Ahearn Field House.

Prior to the advent of Nichols Gymnasium, Kansas State basketball was played in several locales. Among the homecourts were Commercial Hall, the K-State YMCA at 1100 Fremont in Manhattan and various other buildings around the town, including a closed-down skating rink.

The first game ever played on campus, a bout between the student team and the faculty, was staged in the Ag Barn at the north end of campus in January 1906. Twenty-five spectators attended, and the goals were provided by the blacksmith shop.

What will K-State look like in 2025? K-Staters have an idea.

President Kirk Schulz, Provost April Mason, students, staff and alumni are working toward the goal of becoming recognized nationally as a Top 50 public research university by 2025. To do that Kansas State University is working to boost total research and development expenditures, the total endowment and the number of undergraduate students involved in research, among other goals. In many ways, K-State is already well on its way to this goal. Check out the progress at www.k-state.edu/2025.

History and Location

Founded on Feb. 16, 1863, Kansas State University is the oldest public institution of higher education in Kansas and one of the first land-grant universities. It was located on the grounds of the old Bluemont Central College, which was chartered in 1858. The university moved to its present site in 1875.

Throughout its history, K-State's mission has been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act -- to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond.

The 644-acre wooded campus with historic limestone buildings is located in northern Manhattan, Kan. (population of 50,000) and is convenient to both business and residential districts. It is located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hill of northeast Kansas. The university also has a campus in Salina, Kan., and another coming soon in Olathe, Kan., along with numerous extension fields, offices and other facilities in Kansas and Nebraska. The K-State Salina campus offers bachelor's and associate degrees in aviation and engineering technologies.

The university hosts the prestigious Landon Lectures on Public Issues, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966 the series has featured several nationally prominent speakers, including Martin Luther King, Jr., Presidents Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton and George W. Bush.

One of the six universities governed by the Kansas Board of Regents, Kansas State University continues to fulfill its historical educational mission in teaching, research and public service.

Academic Excellence

K-State is the only research university in the U.S. to have three national CASE/Carnegie professors of the year. All three are active teachers: Michael Wesch, 2008 national winner; Chris Sorensen, 2007 national winner; and Dean Zollman, 1996 national winner.

More than 250 majors and programs are offered in nine colleges. The Graduate School offers 67 master's degrees, 39 doctoral degrees, five educational doctorate programs and 33 graduate certificates in multiple disciplines across campus.

More than $185 million is available in financial assistance, including $11 million in scholarships. Every year, seven out of 10 K-State students receive financial assistance. Even with more than 24,000 students, the university is committed to individualized education whenever possible.

For example, freshman English classes have no more than 22 students, introductory chemistry labs average 15 students, and speech classes are limited to 23 students. Seventy percent of classes have 30 students or less and the average class size for all undergraduate classes is 23 students. Ninety percent of classes have less than 49 students.

Student Achievement

Academic achievement of the institution is drawing national acclaim as well. Kansas State students have won more Truman scholarships, more Goldwater scholarships and more Phi Kappa Phi Fellowships than any other public university in the nation.

Over the past twenty-five years, K-State has ranked No. 1 in the nation among public universities in Rhodes, Truman, Marshall, Goldwater and Udall Scholars. The university has earned its reputation as the "Student Scholar Capital of America."

Students have an outstanding record of acceptance into professional schools. Over the past four years, 70 percent of qualified pre-med applicants were accepted into medical schools; 100 percent of pre-optometry and 82 percent of pre-dentistry students were accepted into respective professional schools. Over the past five years, 98 percent of students who participated in our pre-law program were accepted into law schools.

Academic Recognition

■ Kansas State was once again recognized by the Princeton Review as one of "The Best 377 Colleges" in 2012. Only 15 percent of the nation's 2,500 four-year colleges and three international schools are identified in the publication. The university was featured in Forbes magazine's 2012 America's Best Colleges List, which includes 650 college nationwide, as well as the 2013 U.S. News and World Report Best Colleges' list.

■ Through student surveys, Princeton Review rated Kansas State No. 2 for great campus and community relations, No. 4 for the best quality of life, No. 8 for the happiest students, No. 12 in the best-run colleges, No. 13 in their students love these colleges.

■ College of Architecture, Planning, and Design programs rank tops in the nation. In 2010, the undergraduate and graduate architecture programs were ranked sixth and 16th nationally, respectively, while the undergraduate and graduate interior architecture/design programs were both ranked in the Top 10. The undergraduate and graduate landscape architecture programs were in the Top 5.

■ The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business ranked College of Business Administration among the top 10% of business in the U.S. that are accredited in both the business and accounting programs.

■ The College of Agriculture is ranked as a top 10 program when considering increasing enrollment, competition team success, faculty recognition and graduate acceptance. The agronomy program is ranked No. 1 in the total number of combined faculty and student awards over the last 10 years. The Plant Pathology program is ranked among the top 10 in The Chronicle of Higher Education, while the horticulture and park management and conservation programs were ranked in the top 10.

■ The College of Human Ecology is ranked as one of the top 10 in the nation by the USDA Food and Agricultural Education Information System. The College's bachelor of science degree in interior design was ranked first in the nation in the most recent DesignIntelligence rankings, while its marriage and family therapy program ranks among 11th.

■ The College of Technology and Aviation is one of the top five aviation colleges with opportunities to fly in fixed wing aircrafts, gliders, a helicopter, and a jet. In addition, the college offers a curriculum in unmanned aircraft systems.

Kansas State has nine colleges offering bachelor's degrees in more than 100 fields, 60 master's degree programs and 42 doctoral degree programs.

Wildcat Nickname

Through its first 19 seasons of athletic competition, K-State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 season, new coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats." The moniker lasted the one season Bender coached at K-State. Under head coach Z.G. Clevenger in 1917, the school team became known as the "Farmers." In 1920 new head coach, Charles Bachman, took over the program, renaming the team "Wildcats." This time, the nickname stuck.

Willie Wildcat

Willie, a student bedecked in a oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheer coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student is kept secret.

Touchdown I-XI

In 1922, Hall of Famer Charles Bachman asked alumni to consider donating an actual Wildcat to the school to serve as a mascot. KSAC alumni Herbert R. Groome and John E. McCoy, both veterinarians in Twin Falls, Idaho, donated "Touchdown I" to the school shortly after the animal was nursed back to health under their care. (The bobcat had an encounter with a porcupine, and his face and throat were punctured by numerous quills. The mascot never fully recovered from its fight, dying of pneumonia shortly after arriving in Manhattan.)

Although the bobcats have served as K-State's wildcat mascot since 1922, the animals no longer attend K-State games. Touchdown XI, the 11th in the line, was kept at Manhattan's Sunset Zoo.

K-State Colors

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winnifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver and black are also common second and third colors. Former basketball coach Bob Huggins introduced a black uniform in 2006 and it continues to be used by both basketball teams, along with volleyball and baseball. Both basketball squads also utilize a silver uniform. Former basketball coach Cotton Fitzsimmons incorporated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time.

The term "Purple Pride," which is often used in association with K-State athletics, was given rise during the tenure of head football coach Vince Gibson (1967-74).

Powercat Logo

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the K-State Powercat. The logo was introduced by Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university was changing. Manhattan native Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with head coach Bill Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the football helmet, at Wagner Field, on the back of the Dev Nelson Pressbox, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere in Manhattan.

Previous logos used by the athletics department included a line drawing of a wildcat head and the cartoonish "Willie Wildcat" that is used only by the Alumni Association.

School Songs

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

alma mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.
"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly.
Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.
"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

wildcat victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.
"Glory into combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

wabash cannonball

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of Wildcat athletics. In the fall of 1969 the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming football game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to K-State became a second fight song.

Slogans

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" are just a few. One slogan that has virtually died out is "Every Man A Wildcat." The term was popular in the '50s, '60s and early '70s, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box. Since the term referred to only one gender, however, it has faded. Kansas State, itself, is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State", which is used by alums, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

"Voice of the Wildcats"

To go along with the outstanding basketball tradition at K-State is a long line of memorable "Voices of the Wildcats." Wildcat fans around the region have enjoyed broadcasts by Hall-of-Famers

Bob Hilgendorf, Dev Nelson, Gary Bender, Fred White, Steve Physioc, Ron Paradis, Mitch Holthus, Greg Sharpe and currently in his 11th season, Wyatt Thompson.

A pioneer in broadcasting in Kansas, Bob Hilgendorf was the Wildcats' play-by-play announcer for both football and basketball for seven years (1947-54). In 1951, he organized the K-State Sports Network, one of the country's first college-operated sports networks. He also broadcasted seven Final Fours.

Dev Nelson was the K-State Sports Information Director from 1966-72 and handled the Wildcats' play-by-play duties for both football and basketball as "Voice of the Wildcats" for 25 years (1954-79). He earned Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors five times and appeared on that award's final ballot of three for 18 consecutive years. In addition to his work on the Wildcat Network, Nelson also was the first man on the Big Eight Television Basketball Network and originated the state high school basketball tournament all-site coverage. His first K-State athletics broadcast was a 65-51 win over Kansas in 1951 at Ahearn Field House on the 550-station Liberty Network. The Press Box at Bill Snyder Family Stadium is named in honor of the 1949 K-State graduate.

Gary Bender worked for WIBW calling the action at Wildcat games sandwiched between Dev Nelson and Fred White during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. He went on to work for many years at CBS Sports, ABC Sports, ESPN, TNT and Fox Sports, including calling the 1981 NBA Finals and 1982 and 1983 NCAA Championship games. He officially retired on April 13, 2011 from Fox Sports Arizona after 18 years as the television play-by-play voice of the Phoenix Suns. Bender was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

Fred White called the action for football and basketball games from 1967-79 for WIBW. He was the radio voice of the Kansas City Royals for 25 years. The award-winning announcer was heard year-round after working college basketball and football games for CBS Sports, NBC Sports, ABC Sports, TBS, Raycom, Jefferson Pilot, Creative Sports and ESPN. White, who earned numerous Kansas Sportscaster of the year awards, retired as the Royals' Director of Broadcast Services in 2008.

Steve Physioc served as "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1979-83. After leaving WIBW in 1983, he has served as play-by-play announcer for the Cincinnati Reds and Bengals (1983-87), San Francisco Giants (1987-88), San Diego Padres (1989-90), Golden State Warriors (1989-91), Vancouver Grizzlies (1995-96), Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim (1996-2009) and is currently in his first year, handling television play-by-play duties for the Kansas City Royals. Physioc was a member of the ESPN staff from 1988-95 where he announced Major League Baseball, college basketball and baseball as well as Big Ten football before joining FOX Sports Net and KCAL in Los Angeles. He currently broadcasts college basketball games on FOX Sports Net and ESPNU. He is a 1977 graduate of K-State.

Ron Paradis was a three-year letterman at K-State from 1964-66 before embarking on a broadcasting career. During his tenure at WIBW-TV, Paradis served as "Voice of the Wildcats" in 1984. He led the Wildcats in scoring (12.3 ppg) and free-throw shooting (78.4) in 1965. Paradis still ranks among the top five career free throw shooters in K-State history.

Mitch Holthus was "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1984-96 while earning Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors in 1987, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994 by the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters. He is the youngest broadcaster to receive every major sportscasting award in the state of Kansas. He is currently in his 19th season as play-by-play analyst for the Kansas City Chiefs. He also broadcasts college basketball games on ESPNU and the Big 12 Network.

Greg Sharpe was K-State's man behind the mike from 1997 to 2001 and moved into the play-by-play role after serving as the Wildcats' color analyst from 1989 to 1996. Sharpe, who called the 2001 NCAA Tournament for the Westwood One radio network, was named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year in 1997. He is currently in his fifth year as the play-by-play voice of the Nebraska Cornhuskers.

The new Big 12 ushers in its 17th year by welcoming a new commissioner and two new members as it continues to promote the strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletic conferences.

Bob Bowlsby was named the Conference's fourth commissioner on May 4, 2012 after spending the previous six years as director of athletics at Stanford. TCU and West Virginia became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 will remain as the only major conference in the nation to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play.

The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 16 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 47 NCAA team titles and 517 individual national championships. The trophy case added more hardware last year, including Baylor's second national championship in women's basketball, as well as the Hunter Seat title for BU in equestrian. In addition, Texas men's golf claimed the national crown.

Several other teams also made strong national showings. The 2011 season marked the sixth straight in which Big 12 volleyball represented with at least three teams in the NCAA Regional Semifinal field. Texas has made six consecutive appearances. The Big 12 finished first in NCAA Volleyball Conference RPI for the first time in its history. In addition to winning its second straight national title, Big 12 women's basketball claimed the top position in conference RPI for the fifth consecutive season. Kansas men's basketball advanced to the national title game and made its fourth Final Four appearance since 2002. Oklahoma finished second at the College World Series in softball. Overall in 2011-12, five of the eight sports that hold NCAA Championships where the Big 12 sponsored full round-robin competition had a school competing among the final eight teams or beyond.

The individual honors also continued with national coaches of the year in football (K-State's Bill Snyder and Oklahoma State's Mike Gundy), women's basketball (Baylor's Kim Mulkey) and men's basketball (Kansas' Bill Self). In addition, Texas' Matt Scoggin was named the CSCAA Diving Coach of the Year.

Baylor quarterback Robert Griffin III won the league's fifth Heisman Trophy — the most of any conference since 1998. Oklahoma pitcher Keilani Ricketts was selected the 2012 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year. Baylor center Brittney Griner garnered consensus national player of the year honors in women's basketball in addition to receiving the prestigious Honda Cup as the collegiate woman athlete of the year. The Conference has had 13 athletes earn major individual awards in football in the past three campaigns. Also in the fall, Texas' Haley Eckerman was tabbed the American Volleyball Coaches Association's Freshman of the Year. More than 1,400 student-athletes have earned All-America honors in the past five years.

Through its first 16 years, the Big 12 has claimed a team national championship in 16 of the sports it sponsors. The Conference ranks second with seven appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and leads the country with 95 football consensus All-America selections. League squads have combined to lead the nation in women's basketball attendance each of the last 13 years and the Big 12 is the only conference to surpass the one-million mark in season attendance — doing so six times. In men's basketball, the league has had two teams in the regional finals in four of the past five seasons. No other conference has had multiple Elite Eight teams in a season as much during that span. During the last eight years a total of 26 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including 15 consecutive seasons.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Danielle Robinson (Oklahoma) and Sam Acho (Texas) were selected to receive Today's Top VIII Awards — one of the NCAA's top honors. It recognizes student-athletes who completed their athletic eligibility during 2010-11 for success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In 2011-12, two student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 89 Award. That honor showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short 17-year history, the Big 12 has also had over 500 Academic All-America recipients, averaging more than 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. Nine times in the past eight years a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport. The Big 12 had plenty of success overall in the classroom the last three years, as the Conference boasted 74 student-athletes earning Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition through the spring of 2012.

The Big 12 can take pride in other stories that combine on and off the field success. Patience Knight (Texas Tech) was the recipient of the Honda Inspiration Award in 2008, given to an outstanding female college athlete who overcomes adversity to excel in her sport. She was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in 2007, but rebounded to win All-America honors at the 2008 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships. Oklahoma State women's basketball was the inaugural recipient of the "Together We R" Team Award in 2012, recognizing programs that have strived to succeed in the face of adversity.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 293 scholars have received over $2 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 16 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming and diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 37 million people. More than 4,200 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

Covering the Big 12 Conference

Big12Sports.com

The Big 12 Conference maintains its website at Big12Sports.com. Complete information on the league and the member schools is available.

The site boasts original content from throughout the Conference along with several video broadcasts, including a weekly show (The Big 12 Report) and a daily update (Big 12 Minute). In men's basketball, condensed game highlights of numerous contests will be available via the Big 12 Digital Network, within 72 hours of a game's completion. Many parts of the Big 12 Digital Network - including video - are also available via an application on various mobile platforms (iPhones, iPads, Android). Comprehensive live coverage of media day in October and the 2013 Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship is also available.

In men's basketball, scores throughout the league, standings and box scores are updated as games are final. Big 12 conference and team statistics are updated no later than the following morning, with weekly award winners posted each Monday. An archive of conference and team-by-team statistics for every season in league history is included as well.

Media can access Acrobat PDF files of the daily release, statistics, team-by-team statistics and the conference media guide on the website.

Big 12 on Facebook, Twitter and YouTube

The Big 12 also maintains a presence on two social networking sites - Facebook (facebook.com/Big12), Twitter (@Big12Conference) and YouTube (youtube.com/Big12Conference). Periodic updates are posted, including game updates and other related information.

Big 12 Video Available On XOS Digital Xchange

Big 12 video highlights will be available via a FTP site during the 2012-13 season. Access is limited to local TV affiliates with regularly scheduled programs. Visit Big12Sports.com/DigitalXChange for information.

Big 12 Release

The Big 12 will update a media release, including team notes, results and more each morning after games are played during the season. Complete league statistics, in addition to team-by-team stats for all 10 league squads, will be updated via the conference website as well.

Phillips 66 Weekly Awards

A Big 12 Player and Rookie of the Week will be chosen each Monday, beginning November 12. Nominations are submitted by the school media relations offices and winners are selected by a panel of media voters who cover the league on a regular basis. This year marks the 17th year for Phillips 66 as a sponsor of the Big 12 Conference.

Big 12 Conference Weekly Basketball Coaches Briefings

The Big 12 men's basketball coaches will participate in a weekly media-only teleconference during the 2012-13 season. ## Covering Kansas State

Thank you for your interest in Kansas State men's basketball. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2012-13 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats.

Please feel free to contact Tom Gilbert or any member of the staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2012-13 season.

Media Availability

Bruce Weber Availability

Head coach Bruce Weber will be available for interviews twice weekly during the season (typically Tuesdays and Thursdays) via a teleconference and/or following practice. Please contact Associate Athletics Communications Director Tom Gilbert for dates and times of these teleconferences as well as phone numbers and/or practice times. In addition, Martin will be available for interviews 30 minutes after practice twice a week on the Bramlage floor. Please contact Tom Gilbert for dates and times of this availability.

Player Availability

All player interviews MUST be arranged through Tom Gilbert in the Athletics Communications office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media twice a week, typically Mondays and/or Tuesdays and Thursdays during the Big 12 season. To arrange an interview before or after practice, please call Tom Gilbert at least one day in advance.

Practices

All K-State practices are closed to both the general public and media. The lone exception is the practice the day before a TV contest when the commentators are allowed to view practice.

Gameday Information

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering K-State men's basketball on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the credential application website. To access the site, please visit www.k-statesports.com/media. The Athletics Communications Office will not process written requests for credentials. Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes may not be mailed in some instances. If this is the case, passes may be picked up at the Will Call window located on the East Side of Bramlage Coliseum and/or with the attendant at Gate 8 off of Kimball Avenue beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Individuals picking up passes will be required to furnish proper identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Media Parking

Parking passes at Bramlage Coliseum will be issued upon request and are available only to accredited media. Press parking is located in the VIP parking lot on the East side through Gate 8 off of Kimball Avenue.

Websites of K-State Athletics

The official website of the Kansas State Athletics Department is www.k-statesports.com. The site is available to the media and the general public and provides a wealth of information on each of K-State's 16 varsity sports. Media and fans are welcome to access everything from the most current media guide to game notes, recaps, schedules, rosters, statistics and biographies on k-statesports.com. Launched in 2011, K-StateHD.TV is an exclusive high-definition online network providing K-State a world-wide connection for live athletics and academics, classic games, press conferences, original programming plus much more.

Visiting Radio

To inquire about access to existing radio courtesy lines (ISDN as well as analog lines), visiting radio stations should contact Matt Brown of Learfield Communications at mbrown@learfield.com.

Media Services

Packets including statistics, pregame notes, flipcards, programs and in some cases, media guides, will be available for media in the Seaton Media Room prior to the game.

Halftime and final boxscores, a running play-by-play and postgame notes and quotes from head coaches and players of both teams also will be provided and will be posted on www.kstatesports.com following the game. Live statistics will also be available via laptops throughout press row and can be found at pressbox.kstatesports.com on the internet during the game.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Tom Gilbert with five minutes remaining in the game. Head coach Bruce Weber and requested players will be available in the designated interview room at the top of the tunnel in Bramlage Coliseum. Requested players will be made available for a short period time. Weber will be available following his postgame radio obligations.

Visiting Team Policy

Following Big 12 policy, the opposing coach and selected players will be given the option to go first in the interview room. However, they will also be given the choice to conduct interviews outside their locker room near the Seaton Media Room. Please check with the visiting media relations representative(s) for their list of policies and procedures. A list of contacts with phone numbers can be found on the opposite page.

Internet Access/Telephones

The press area as well as the Seaton Media Room in Bramlage Coliseum is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to file stories electronically as well as photographers may access the network with a wireless internet card. Please contact a member of the athletics communications staff for instructions relating to the network. It is a password-protected wireless network.

A limited number of charge-per-call telephones are located in the Seaton Media Room will be available for filing after the game on a first-come, first-served basis. All media wishing to have phone lines installed on press row will be responsible for making their own arrangements. Phones may be ordered through K-State Telecommunications at 785.532.7001.

Other Credential Guidelines

- With the exception of beat writers covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
- Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working media members.
- Kansas State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout" or "tip" sheets.
- Credentials are issued to web sites that are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSportsLine.com, etc., for institutions that are conference members and non-conference opponents, and for the Big 12.
- If a news-gathering medium has an on-line site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for on-line staff.

- Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
- Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
- Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conference from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.

NOTE: Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the K-State Athletic Communications Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers regularly covering K-State, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized Kansas State student publications or student electronic media outlets.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

Athletics Communications

The Kansas State University Athletics Communications Office is located in the north portion of Bramlage Coliseum, directly behind sections 12-15, on the first floor. The entrance to the office is located on the walkway between Bill Snyder Family Stadium and Bramlage Coliseum. There is also an elevator just outside the Legends' Room that will take you to the office. Men's basketball contact Tom Gilbert is generally available in his office on gamedays until three hours prior to tipoff.

Wyatt Thompson

Voice of the Wildcats | 11th Season

The 2012 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year and the 2011 recipient of the Hod Humiston Sportscaster of the Year Award, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the Kansas State Sports Network and returns for his 11th season behind the mike as "Voice of the Wildcats". The department's Director of Sportscasting, he also serves as host of the Bill Snyder and Bruce Weber shows on both television and radio. In addition, he is involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions throughout the state of Kansas, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to Kansas State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams' football and men's basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition, he was a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver and the "Countdown to Kickoff" host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools and colleges in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989. A native of Solomon, Kan., Thompson married the former Karen Bitler in July 2012. He has a son, Dustin.

Stan Weber

Radio/TV Analyst | Seventh Season

Providing the color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as FOX Sports Kansas City is former Wildcat signal-caller Stan Weber. Now in his 26th year providing color analysis for the network on football games, he has passed legendary play-by-play announcer Dev Nelson, who also called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

A native of Goddard, Kan., he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the team in rushing while earning Academic All-America honors. Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accounting from Kansas State and was recently inducted into the school's Accounting Hall of Fame. In addition to his broadcasting duties, he currently serves as Vice President - CFO of Tower Properties. Weber and his wife, Nancy, a former cheerleader, have four children (Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry) and reside in Overland Park, Kan. Stanton is a sophomore wide receiver on the K-State football team, while McKenzie is a 2012 K-State graduate in interior design.

Matt Walters

Radio Analyst | Ninth Season

Local radio personality Matt Walters is in his ninth year with the K-State Sports Network, where he serves as a color commentator for men's basketball in addition to his duties as the sideline reporter for the football team. A 17-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts, he also serves as co-host of the popular "Powercat Gameday" football pre-game show on Sports Radio 1350 KMAN in Manhattan since 1998.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kan., Walters is in his fifth year as a Marketing Consultant with KMAN, and in his 16th year at the station overall. Along with his duties at the station, he also hosts "The Game," a drive-time sports talk show that airs on KMAN, and serves as the play-by-play voice of the Manhattan High School football and boys' basketball teams. An award-winning broadcaster, he received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year for 2005. Walters and his wife, Megan, reside in Manhattan.

Ben Boyle

TV Play-by-Play | 18th Season

After spending 19 years in the athletics department at Kansas State, Ben Boyle is in his ninth year in the management of K-State Sports Network, including his seventh as the property's General Manager.

Boyle has been the play-by-play voice for the men's basketball television package since 1994 and was color analyst on the radio network from 1991 to 2005. He has also done freelance television play-by-play work for Fox Sports Net, ESPN Regional Television and Metro Sports.

During his 19 years in the athletic department, Boyle played a role in securing many of the department's key partnerships that have dramatically increased revenues and exposure for K-State Athletics, including the recently-renewed third-tier television rights agreement with FOX Sports Kansas City and a 10-year marketing and broadcast rights agreement with Learfield Communications. A 1989 graduate of Nebraska, Boyle and his wife, Carrie have two children (Jackson and Alex).

Kansas State Basketball On the Air

The 2012-13 men's basketball season marks the eighth year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and Learfield Communications. Learfield is a national leader in collegiate sports broadcasting and marketing, owning the rights to 50 of the nation's top collegiate programs. The 2012-13 season will be the eighth year of a 10-year partnership between Learfield and K-State Athletics that grants K-State Sports Properties the exclusive marketing and broadcast rights for all Wildcat athletic teams. The network distributes its digital-quality audio stream via satellite to affiliates across the state. But men's basketball is just the beginning. The network also provides play-by-play coverage of K-State football, women's basketball, volleyball and baseball. Weekly coaches shows for football, men's basketball and women's basketball supplement the live event coverage.

Bruce Weber Radio Show

Affiliates on the K-State Sports Network carry the Bruce Weber Show each Monday during the season. The show originates from Carlos O'Kelly's Mexican Cafe at the Manhattan Town Center Mall from 7-8 p.m. during the season and is open to the public.

Tentative radio show schedule for 2012-13 is as follows: Mondays: Nov. 26, Dec. 3, Dec. 10, Dec. 17, Jan. 7, Jan. 14, Jan. 21, Jan. 28, March 4, March 11. Tuesdays: Feb. 12, Feb. 19, Feb. 26.

FOX Sports Kansas City Television Package

In a partnership with Fox Sports, Learfield Sports and K-StateHD.TV, K-State is breaking ground with an enhanced third-tier television package beginning in 2012-13 that includes national and world-wide distribution. Fox will televise up to 28 live K-State sporting events this season with regional distribution on Fox Sports Midwest, national distribution on Fox College Sports and world-wide distribution on K-StateHD.TV. This year's package includes eight men's basketball games, and the weekly Bruce Weber Television Show. In most cases, the live men's basketball games will reach the entire Fox Sports Midwest footprint, which includes more than six million cable and satellite homes in the states of Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Indiana and Illinois. Most games will also be simulcast live on one of the three FCS national networks, which reach more than 60 million homes. Outside the footprint of the Fox distribution platforms, the men's basketball games will also be available for the first time on K-StateHD.TV.

Bruce Weber Television Show

The Bruce Weber Television Show airs Saturday mornings on Fox Sports Midwest. Hosted by "Voice of the Wildcats," Wyatt Thompson, the show features head coach Bruce Weber, player and fan features, a coaches' corner and highlights and previews of upcoming games. The show will also air on Cox Cable 22 on Mondays at 7 p.m. and Tuesdays at 8:30 p.m.

The TV show schedule is as follows: Saturdays: Dec. 1 (10:30 a.m.), Dec. 15 (11:30 a.m.), Dec. 22 (11:30 a.m.), Jan. 5 (11:30 a.m.), Jan. 12 (11:30 a.m.), Jan. 19 (11 a.m.), Jan. 26 (10:30 a.m.), Feb. 2 (11 a.m.), Feb. 9 (11:30 a.m.), Feb. 16 (10:30 a.m.), Feb. 23 (11:30 a.m.), March 2 (11:30 a.m.), March 9 (10:30 a.m.).

Debuting in 2011, K-StateHD.TV is an exclusive high-definition online network providing Kansas State Athletics and Kansas State University a world-wide connection for live athletics and academics, classic games, press conferences, original programming, as well as on-campus performances and/or lectures. A joint venture with the university, K-StateHD.TV is ranked first among all CBS College Network schools (more than 175 websites) in subscriptions, while streaming over 200 live events. The exhibition game against Emporia State on Nov. 4 will be the first live men's basketball game shown on the network, while every home and away game will be available as an on-demand option within 72 hours. Viewers can also watch exclusive free and premium content, including K-State Gameday, the official on-site show for K-State HD.TV. # K-State's New $18 million Basketball Training Facility

Dedicated October 5, 2012

Located on the east side of Bramlage Coliseum, the 50,000-square foot facility is the central headquarters for the Kansas State men's and women's basketball teams with close proximity to game day activities and other facilities such as the Academic Learning Center. The building is equipped with two practice courts, coaches' offices, locker rooms for both teams and coaches, player lounges, a theatre-style team film room, a 2,500-square foot weight room, a sports medicine center with a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy facility and an atrium lobby with viewing deck. The facility was designed by Populous and constructed by MW Builders, and blends a modern glass and steel structure with the tradition of K-State limestone on the exterior.
